Ordinary Enchantments Magical Realism And The Remystification Of Narrative:

Ordinary Enchantments Wendy B. Faris, 2004 Ordinary Enchantments investigates magical realism as the most important trend in contemporary international fiction defines its characteristics and narrative techniques and proposes a new theory to explain its significance In the most comprehensive critical treatment of this literary mode to date Wendy B Faris discusses a rich array of examples from magical realist novels around the world including the work not only of Latin American writers like Gabriel Garcia Marquez but also of authors like Salman Rushdie Gunter Grass Toni Morrison and Ben Okri Faris argues that by combining realistic representation with fantastic elements so that the marvelous seems to grow organically out of the ordinary magical realism destabilizes the dominant form of realism based on empirical definitions of reality gives it visionary power and thus constitutes what might be called a remystification of narrative in the West Noting the radical narrative heterogeneity of magical realism the author compares its cultural role to that of traditional shamanic performance which joins the worlds of daily life and that of the spirits Because of that capacity to bridge different worlds magical realism has served as an effective decolonizing agent providing the ground for marginal voices submerged traditions and emergent literatures to develop and create masterpieces At the same time this process is not limited to postcolonial situations but constitutes a global trend that replenishes realism from within In addition to describing what many consider to be the progressive cultural work of magical realism Faris also confronts the recent accusation that magical realism and its study as a global phenomenon can be seen as a form of commodification and an imposition of cultural homogeneity And finally drawing on the narrative innovations and cultural scenarios that magical realism enacts she extends those principles toward issues of gender and the possibility of a female element within magical realism

Magical Realism and Cosmopolitanism K. Sasser, 2014-09-02 Magical Realism and Cosmopolitanism details a variety of functionalities of the mode of magical realism focusing on its capacity to construct sociological representations of belonging This usage is traced closely in the novels of Ben Okri Salman Rushdie Cristina Garc a and Helen Oyeyemi

Magical Realism and the History of the Emotions in Latin America Jerónimo Arellano, 2015-05-21 Iconoclastic in spirit Magical Realism and the History of the Emotions in Latin America is the first study of affect and emotion in magical realist literature Against the grain of a vast body of scholarship it argues that magical realism is neither exotic commodity nor postcolonial resistance but an art form fueled by a search for spaces of wonder in a disenchanted world Linking the rise and fall of magical realism and kindred narrative forms to the shifting value of wonder as an emotional experience this thought provoking study proposes a radical new approach to canonical novels such as One Hundred Years of Solitude Received as one of the most convincing manifestations of the turn to affect in contemporary Latin American critical thought Magical Realism and the History of the Emotions draws on affect theory the history of emotions and new materialism to reframe key questions in Latin American literature and culture

Waldron,2013-12-16 For many the advent of globalization brought with it an end to the way that the world had been viewed previous to the fall of the Berlin Wall Among the many endings the one that most concerns my book is the perceived foreclosure of any alternatives to the capitalistic ideology that structures globalization Even criticisms of globalization are bounded by its limits since the critical models they use cannot conceive of a space outside its homogenizing discourse Against the final limits that shape most interpretations of globalization I show how writers on the periphery of the globalizing north through the development and deployment of neo baroque imaginings offer a different possibility to monological globalism I show that the baroque has been a way of resisting and reconfiguring the colonial gaze in Latin America since the time of the first encounter to the present Proceedings of the 2nd International Conference on Culture and Sustainable Development (ICOCAS 2024) Gani Nur Pramudyo,Izmy Khumairoh,Marta Widyawati,2024-12-06 This book is an open access The 2nd International Conference on Culture and Sustainable Development ICOCAS 2024 adopts the theme The Urgency of Humanities in Current Cultural Dynamics This international seminar remains committed to the global goals outlined in the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs Discussion on sustainable development in this seminar focuses on cultural issues and the position of humanities in addressing contemporary challenges Nevertheless cultural dynamics will impact other aspects of sustainable development The seminar aims to provide a platform for academics at the global level to discuss and disseminate research findings related to the role of humanities in cultural dynamics and its relation to sustainable development at the international level The scope of topics includes studies in Culture including History Literature and Linguistics as well as Library and Information Science This seminar activity will involve many experts in the field of humanities from various leading universities worldwide The 2nd International Conference on Culture and Sustainable Development ICOCAS 2024 with the theme The Urgency of Humanities in Current Cultural Dynamics is expected to motivate faculty members and students to produce high quality research that is responsive to current cultural dynamics and to expand networks with academics at the global level This activity is also expected to be conducted regularly each year to enhance the reputation of Diponegoro University internationally as a World Class University The Postmodern Fairytale Kevin Paul Smith,2007-07-31 Why is Shrek one of the greatest selling DVDs of all time Why are shampoo advertisements based on Sleeping Beauty Why is it that the same simple stories keep being told This study attempts to explain why fairy tales keep popping up in the most unexpected places and why the best storytellers begin their tales with once upon a time

Realism's Others Eva Aldea, Geoffrey Baker, 2010-07-12 For at least a century scholarship on realist narrative and occasional polemics against realist narrative have assumed that realism promotes the values of sameness against those of otherness and that it does so by use of a narrative mode that excludes certain epistemologies ideologies and ways of thinking However the truth is more complex than that as the essays in this volume all demonstrate Realism's Others examines the various strategies by which realist narratives create the idea of difference whether that difference is registered in terms of class ethnicity epistemology nationality or gender The authors in this collection examine in detail not just the fact of otherness in some canonical realist and canonical magical realist and postmodern novels but the actual means by which that otherness is established by the text These essays suggest that neither realist narrative nor narratives positioned as anti realist take otherness for granted rather the texts discussed here actively create difference and this creation of difference often occasions severe difficulties for the novels representational schema How does one represent different types of knowledge other aesthetic modes or other spaces for example in texts whose epistemology has long been seen as secular and empirical whose aesthetic mode has always been approached as pure descriptive mimesis and whose settings are largely domestic These essays all begin with a certain collision of nationalities of classes of representational matrices of religions and go on to chart the challenges that this collision presents to our ideas or stereotypes of realism or to the possibilities of writing against and beyond realism This question motivates examination of key realist or social realist texts in some of these essays by Honoré de Balzac George Eliot Franz Grillparzer Theodor Storm Gottfried Keller Theodor Fontane Wilhelm Raabe María Amparo

Ruiz de Burton Henry James William Dean Howells Charles Chesnutt Theodore Dreiser H T Tsiang Alan Sillitoe and Richard Yates However it is no less central a question in certain non realist texts which engage realist aims to a surprising degree often to debate them openly some of these essays discuss in this light fantastic magical realist and postmodern works by Abram Tertz Paul Auster Alejo Carpentier Toni Morrison Gabriel Garc a M rquez Salman Rushdie and A S Byatt Realism becomes more than an aesthetic aim or narrative mode It becomes rather a value evoked and discussed by all of the works analyzed here in order to reveal its impact on fiction s treatment of ethnicity nationality ideology space gender and social class

Magical Feminism in the Americas: Resisting Female Marginalisation and Oppression through Magic Abu Shahid Abdullah, 2025-01-07 The book aims to show the way magical feminism resists female marginalisation and oppression in the Americas Dealing with multiple victimisation of women in the Americas who have suffered not only because of their gender but also their race ethnicity political ideology social status financial insecurity and such magical feminism provides a voice to them so that they can speak about their marginalisation and victimisation In other words by using magical feminism these female authors attempt to give a voice to the oppressed women enabling them to resist and challenge the traditional female role and to raise their voices against various social and political issues The subversive and transgressive power of magical feminism enables the oppressed women to break patriarchal constraints and to reverse the traditional power structure By creating an imaginary realm through traditions local beliefs and rituals myth magic and the spirits of the dead ancestors as guides magical feminist technique functions as a survival strategy for women in traumatic and oppressive situations and provides them consolation The project includes a total of eight novels from African American Gloria Naylor s Mama Day Latin American Isabel Allende s The House of the Spirits Native American Louise Erdrich s Tracks Chicana Ana Castillo s So Far from God North American Gail Anderson Dargatz s The Cure for Death by Lightning Central American Gioconda Belli s The Inhabited Woman Hawaiian American Kiana Davenport s Shark Dialogues and Cuban American Cristina Garc a s Dreaming in Cuban background

Redefining the Real Margaret-Anne Hutton, 2009 What is the literary fantastic and how does it manifest itself in the texts of French and francophone women writers publishing at the close of the twentieth and start of the twenty first century What do we mean today when we talk of the real and realism These are just some of the questions addressed by the papers in this volume which derive from a conference entitled The Fantastic in Contemporary Women s Writing in French held in London in September 2007 This book sets out to refocus through a non realist lens on the works of high profile authors Darrieussecq Nothomb Germain Cixous and NDiaye and some of their less highly publicised contemporaries It analyses and mobilises a wide range of both gendered and non gendered practices and theories of the contemporary fantastic whilst critically interrogating both of the latter terms and their inter relation

Moving Forward, Looking Back Sarah M. Misemer, 2010 Many critical shifts in concepts of time and society's consciousness of modernity were derived from the railway and World Standard Time in the nineteenth century These innovations restructured the way people viewed the world and dealt with public and private time The forward projectile motion along a linear track mimicked the passage of public chronological time Conversely the train also invoked a private nostalgic view of time as the traveler was yanked from his/her traditional view of the space-time continuum via the train's velocity Travelers observed the landscape disappear in their backward glance from the window although the landscape and interior compartment's space remained stagnant This optical illusion caused passengers to perceive the world in new ways Thus the train unveils a conflictive blend of nostalgia and progress in the River Plate as these countries move forward but look back

The Spirit and the Screen Steven Félix-Jäger, Chris E. W. Green, 2023-05-15 The Spirit and the Screen engages contemporary films from the perspective of pneumatology to give theologians of culture fruitful new perspectives that begin with the Spirit rather than other common theological contact points Christology anthropology theological ethics creation eschatology etc This book explores pertinent pneumatological issues that arise in film as well as literary devices that draw allusions to the Spirit It offers three main contributions first it explores how Christian understandings of the person and work of the Spirit illuminate the nature of film and film making second it shows that there are in fact Spirit figures in film as distinct from but inseparable from Christ figures even if sometimes they re not intended as such Spirit led characters are moved to act prophetically against their inclinations and in excess of their skill or knowledge and with eccentric life giving creativity third it identifies subtle and explicit symbolizations of the Spirit in pop culture symbolizations that requires deep careful thinking about the Christian doctrine of the Spirit and generate new horizons for cultural analysis The contributors of this book explore these issues asking how Christian convictions and experiences of the Spirit might shape the way one thinks about films and film making
