Oriental Interiors John Potvin, 2015-12-17 Since the publication of Edward Said's groundbreaking work Orientalism 35 years ago numerous studies have explored the West's fraught and enduring fascination with the so-called Orient. Focusing their critical attention on the literary and pictorial arts, these studies have to date largely neglected the world of interior design. Oriental Interiors is the first book to fully explore the formation and perception of eastern-inspired interiors from an orientalist perspective. Orientalist spaces in the West have taken numerous forms since the 18th century to the present day and the fifteen chapters in this collection reflect that diversity, dealing with subjects as varied and engaging as harems, Turkish baths, RMS Titanic, Parisian bachelor quarters, potted palms, and contemporary yoga studios. It explores how furnishings, surface treatments, ornament, and music, for example, are deployed to enhance the exoticism and pleasures of oriental spaces, looking across a range of international locations. Organized into three parts, each introduced by the editor, the essays are grouped by theme to highlight critical paths into the intersections between orientalist studies, spatial theory, design studies, visual culture, and gender studies, making this essential reading for students and researchers alike.

Design and Agency John Potvin, Marie-Ève Marchand, 2020-05-14 Design and Agency brings together leading international design scholars and practitioners to address the concept of agency in relation to objects, organisations, and people. The authors set out to expand the scope of design history and practice, avoiding the heroic narratives of a typical modernist approach. They consider both how the agents of design construct and express their identities and subjectivities through practice, while also investigating the distinctive contribution of design in the construction of individual identity and subjectivity. Individual chapters explore notions of agency in a range of design disciplines and historical periods, including the agency of women in effecting changes to the design of offices and working practices, the role of Jeffrey Lindsay and Buckminster Fuller in developing the design of a geodesic dome Le Corbusier's Casa Curutchet a re-consideration of the gendered historiography of the Jugendstil movement and Bruce Mau's design exhibitions Taken together the essays in Design and Agency provide a much needed response to the traditional texts which dominate design history With a broad chronological span from 1900 to the present and an equally broad understanding of the term design it expands how we view the discipline and shows how design itself can be an agent for social cultural and economic change

Designing the French Interior Anca I. Lasc, Georgina Downey, Mark Taylor, 2015-10-22 Designing the French Interior traces France's central role in the development of the modern domestic interior from the pre-revolutionary period to the 1970s and addresses the importance of various media including drawings prints pattern books illustrated magazines department store catalogs photographs guidebooks and films in representing and promoting French interior design to a wider audience Contributors to this original volume identify and historicize the singularity of the modern French domestic interior as a generator of reproducible images a site for display of both highly crafted and mass produced objects and the direct result of widely circulated imagery in its own right This important volume enables an invaluable new understanding of the relationship between architecture interior spaces material cultures mass media and modernity

Staging Fashion Tiziana Ferrero-Regis, Marissa Lindquist, 2020-12-10 The fashion show and its spaces are sites of otherness representing everything from rebellion and excess through to political and social activism This conceptual and stylistic variety is reflected in the spaces they occupy whether they are staged in an industrial warehouse on a city street or out in the open landscape Staging Fashion is the first collection of essays about the presentation and staging of fashion in runway shows in the period from the 1960s to the 2010s It offers a fresh perspective on the many collaborations between artists architects and interior designers to reinforce their interdisciplinary links Fashion architecture and interiors share many elements including design history material culture aesthetics and trends The research and ideas underpinning Staging Fashion address how fashion and the spatial fields have collaborated in the creation of the space of the fashion show The 15 essays are written by fashion interior architecture and design scholars focusing on the presentation of fashion within the runway space from avant-garde practices and collaboration with artists to the most spectacular and commercial shows of recent years from Prada to Chanel

Materials, Practices, and Politics of Shine in Modern Art and Popular Culture Antje Krause-Wahl, Petra Löffler, Anne Söll, 2021-06-03 Shine allures and awakens desire As a phenomenon of perception shiny things and materials fascinate and tantalize They are a formative element of material culture promising luxury social distinction and the hope of limitless experience and excess Since the early twentieth century the mass production dissemination and popularization of synthetic materials that produce heretofore unknown effects of shine have increased At the same time shine is subjectified as glamor and made into a token of performative self-empowerment The volume illuminates genealogical as well as systematic relationships between material phenomena of shine and cultural philosophical concepts of appearance illusion distraction

Japonisme Elizabeth Emery, 2020-09-17 Japonisme the nineteenth century fascination for Japanese art has generated an enormous body of scholarship since the beginning of the twenty first century but most of it neglects the women who acquired objects from the Far East and sold them to clients or displayed them in their homes before bequeathing them to museums The stories of women shopkeepers collectors and artists rarely appear in memoirs left by those associated with the japoniste movement This volume brings to light the culturally important yet largely forgotten activities of women such as Clémence d'Ennery 1823 1898 who began collecting Japanese and Chinese chimeras in the 1840s built and decorated a house for them in the 1870s and bequeathed the Musée d'Ennery to the state as a free public museum in 1893 A friend of the Goncourt brothers and a fifty year patron of Parisian dealers of Asian art d'Ennery's struggles to gain recognition as a collector and curator serve as a lens through which to examine the collecting and display practices of other women of her day Travelers to Japan such as the Duchesse de Persigny Isabella Stewart Gardner and Laure Durand Fardel returned with souvenirs that they shared with friends and family Salon hostesses including Juliette Adam Louise Cahen d'Anvers Princesse Mathilde and Marguerite Charpentier provided venues for the discussion and examination of Japanese art objects as did well known art dealers Madame Desoye Madame Malinet Madame Hatty and Madame Langweil Writers actresses and artists Judith Gautier Thérèse Bentzon Sarah Bernhardt and Mary Cassatt to name just a few took inspiration from the Japanese material in circulation to create their own unique works of art Largely absent from the history of Japonisme these women and many others actively collected Japanese art interacted with auction houses and art dealers and formed collections now at the heart of museums such as the Louvre the Musée Guimet the Musée Cernuschi the Musée Unterlinden and the Metropolitan Museum of Art Aesthetic Femininity and Domestic Modernity in Late Victorian Advice Literature Shu-chuan Yan, 2025-09-30

Aesthetic Femininity and Domestic Modernity in Late Victorian Advice Literature considers how the domestic interior is constituted imagined contested and mediated in the public forum of advice literature It interrogates the construction and negotiation of aesthetic femininity and domestic modernity within the larger contexts of the New Journalism the New Art Criticism a new girls culture and the emerging New Woman phenomenon in Britain This book presents extensive new research on women authored advice literature including domestic advice manuals home decoration books and periodicals for young girls and adult women within the discourse of household art Part One justifies girls presence in the cultivation of beauty and taste at home The practice of home decoration can be appropriated as a mode of agency and subjectivity for a girl to articulate her own voice and specific positioning as she grows toward womanhood Part Two uncovers the ways in which advice literature serves as a mediator of decorating practices to help foster the affinities between gentlewomen's domestic bodies and decorated interiors Aimed at an interdisciplinary audience this book adds to the growing body of scholarship on the studies of home cultures art and interior design nineteenth century studies and the social history of women Interior Design Masters Mark Hinchman, Elyssa Yoneda, 2018-06-27 Interior Design Masters contains 300 biographical entries of people who have significantly impacted design. They are the people historical and contemporary that students and practitioners should know. Coverage starts in the late Renaissance with a focus on the twentieth and twenty-first centuries. The book has five sections with the entries alphabetical in each so it can serve as a history textbook and a reference guide. The seventeenth and eighteenth-century section covers figures from Thomas Chippendale to Horace Walpole. The nineteenth-century section includes William Morris and Candace Wheeler. The early twentieth-century section presents modernism's design heroes including Marcel Breuer, Eileen Gray, and Gilbert Rohde. The post-World War II designers range from Madeleine Castaing to Raymond Loewy. The final contemporary section includes Ron Arad and the Bouroullec brothers. These are the canonical figures who belong to any design history. The book also contains less well-known figures who deserve attention such as Betty Joel, the British art deco furniture designer Paul Veyseyre, the Frenchman active in China in the 1930s, and more recently Lanzavecchia Wai, the Italian-Singaporean duo whose work ranges from health care to helicopters. Global in its coverage, the book is richly illustrated with over 600 black and white and color photographs.

The Politics of Vietnamese Craft Jennifer Way, 2019-10-03 Jennifer Way's study The Politics of Vietnamese Craft uncovers a little-known chapter in the history of American cultural diplomacy in which Vietnamese craft production was encouraged and shaped by the US State Department as an object for consumption by middle-class America. Way explores how American business and commerce, the art world, and national museums variously guided the marketing and meanings of Vietnamese craft in order to advance American diplomatic and domestic interests. Conversely, American uses of Vietnamese craft provide an example of how the United States aimed to absorb post-colonial South Vietnam into the Free World in a Cold War context of American anxiety about communism spreading throughout Southeast Asia. Way focuses in particular on the part played by the renowned American designer Russel Wright, contracted by the US International Cooperation Administration's aid programs for South Vietnam to survey the craft industry in South Vietnam and manage its production, distribution, and consumption abroad and at home. Way shows how Wright and his staff brought American ideas about Vietnamese history and culture to bear in managing the making of Vietnamese craft.

Art Nouveau Charlotte Ashby, 2021-10-21 Art Nouveau presents a new overview of the international Art Nouveau movement. Art Nouveau represented the search for a new style for a new age, a sense that the conditions of modernity called for fundamentally new means of expression. Art Nouveau emerged in a world transformed by industrialisation, urbanisation, and increasingly rapid means of transnational exchange, bringing about new ways of living, working, and creating. This book is structured around key themes for understanding the contexts behind Art Nouveau, including new materials and technologies, colonialism and imperialism, the rise of the modern woman, the rise of the professional designer, and the role of the patron/collector. It also explores the new ideas that inspired Art Nouveau: nature and the natural sciences, world arts, and world religions, psychology, and new visions for the modern self. Ashby explores the movement through 41 case studies of artists and designers, buildings, interiors paintings graphic arts glass ceramics and jewellery drawn from a wide range of countries

Ceramics in the Victorian Era Rachel Gotlieb, 2023-06-29 This book broadens the discussion of pottery and china in the Victorian era by situating them in the national imperial design reform and domestic debates between 1840 and 1890 Largely ignored in recent scholarship Ceramics in the Victorian Era Meanings and Metaphors in Painting and Literature argues that the signification of a pot a jug or a tableware pattern can be more fully discerned in written and painted representations Across five case studies the book explores a rhetoric and set of conventions that developed within the representation of ceramics emerging in the late 18th century and continuing in the Victorian period Each case study begins with a textual passage exemplifying the outlined theme and closes with an object analysis to demonstrate how the fusing of text image and object are critical to attaining the period eye in order to better understand the metaphorical meanings of ceramics Essential reading not only for ceramics scholars but also those of material culture the book mines the rich and diverse archive of Victorian painting and literature from the avant garde to the sentimental from the well known to the more obscure to shed light on the at once complex and simple implications of ceramics agencies at this time

Reading Graphic Design in Cultural Context Grace Lees-Maffei, Nicolas P. Maffei, 2019-02-07 Reading Graphic Design in Cultural Context explains key ways of understanding and interpreting the graphic designs we see all around us in advertising branding packaging and fashion It situates these designs in their cultural and social contexts Drawing examples from a range of design genres leading design historians Grace Lees Maffei and Nicolas P Maffei explain theories of semiotics postmodernism and globalisation and consider issues and debates within visual communication theory such as legibility the relationship of word and image gender and identity and the impact of digital forms on design Their discussion takes in well known brands like Alessi Nike Unilever and Tate and everyday designed things including slogan t shirts car advertising ebooks corporate logos posters and music packaging
