global ramifications this book sheds much needed light on the rapid development of China's logistics industry over the past several decades and puts it into historical context. Though still lagging behind global logistics leaders, overall China has invested heavily in logistics infrastructure and technology to become a vital link in global supply chains and is forging ahead in e-commerce logistics. This timely book analyzes the key policies, infrastructure projects, technologies, and companies that have transformed China's domestic logistics capabilities and enabled it to become deeply intertwined with the worldwide supply chain. As the world enters a new era of geopolitics and confronts the possibility of US-China decoupling, it is more critical than ever to understand China's logistics system to navigate uncertain times, and with their decades of experience, these authors are the very best guides. Business leaders, policy makers, and logistics and supply chain professionals will benefit from this comprehensive and readable book's insights into how and why China's logistics system developed as it has, what that means for businesses and nations connected to China, and where we go from here. Proceedings of the

International Conference on Chinese Enterprise Research 2007 Teng-Kee Tan, Xiaofang Fu, 2008. The International Conference on Chinese Enterprise Research (ICCER) is an annual event organized by the Lien Chinese Enterprise Research Centre, Nanyang Technological University. Held on 13 and 14 December 2007 at Nanyang Technological University and the Singapore Chinese Chamber of Commerce Industry respectively, the succeeding ICCER enjoyed immense support from local and international management scholars, boosting the scale and academic standing of the conference. The conference invited famous keynote speakers including Professor Zhang Weiying, Dean of Guanghua School of Management, Peking University, and Professor Zhao Renwei, former director of the Institute of Economy, Chinese Academy of Social Science. At the same time, attendance also included heads of Nanjing University, Sun Yat-Sen University, Northwest University, and Sichuan University's Management and Economics schools, together with research directors and professors of the finest educational institutions. In addition to academic presentations, a panel of prominent economists such as Professor Tan Khee Giap from Nanyang Technological University, Mr Xu Li, General Manager of Industrial and Commercial Bank of China Singapore, and Mr Jack Niu, Deputy Group Chief Credit Officer, Standard Chartered Bank, also deliberated on the topic 'Internationalization of Banks in China'. The keynote speeches, together with a collection of 25 excellent research papers from the conference, are presented to the readers in this proceedings. The Chinese Education Policy Landscape Eryong Xue, Jian Li, 2019-08-20. This book examines the Chinese education policy landscape since 1978 by constructing a policy analysis tool, the concept added policy chain, and discusses how to review, assess, and forecast the development of that landscape historically and contextually. In addition, it presents several major historical educational policy shifts in order to explore both the internal and external rationale behind the development of an education policy with Chinese characteristics. It also provides a unique policy analysis tool for investigating the intricate political logics in contemporary Chinese education policy development at the macro level systematically and comprehensively.
