Modern Minority Asian American Literature And Everyday Life:

Modern Minority Yoon Sun Lee, 2013-02-14 Modern Minority presents a fresh examination of canonical and emergent Asian American literature's relationship to the genre of realism particularly through its preoccupation with everyday life

Asian American Literature in Transition, 1930-1965: Volume 2 Victor Bascara, Josephine Nock-Hee Park, 2021-06-17 Leading scholars provide illuminating and engaging perspectives on a long neglected yet incredibly eventful period 1930-1965 of Asian American literature

Ethnic American Literature Emmanuel S. Nelson, 2015-02-17 Unlike any other book of its kind this volume celebrates published works from a broad range of American ethnic groups not often featured in the typical canon of literature This culturally rich encyclopedia contains 160 alphabetically arranged entries on African American Asian American Latino and Native American literary traditions among others The book introduces the uniquely American mosaic of multicultural literature by chronicling the achievements of American writers of non European descent and highlighting the ethnic diversity of works from the colonial era to the present The work features engaging topics like the civil rights movement bilingualism assimilation and border narratives Entries provide historical overviews of literary periods along with profiles of major authors and great works including Toni Morrison Maxine Hong Kingston Maya Angelou Sherman Alexie A Raisin in the Sun American Born Chinese and The House on Mango Street The book also provides concise overviews of genres not often featured in textbooks like the Chinese American novel African American young adult literature Mexican American autobiography and Cuban American poetry

Repetition and Race Amy C. Tang, 2016-05-02 Repetition and Race shows how texts by Theresa Cha Susan Choi Karen Tei Yamashita Chang-rae Lee and Maxine Hong Kingston use structures of repetition to register and respond to the widespread institutionalization of liberal multiculturalism

The Oxford Handbook of American Literary Realism Keith Newlin, 2019 The Oxford Handbook of American Literary Realism offers fresh interpretations of the artistic and political challenges of representing life accurately It is the first book to treat the subject topically and thematically in wide scope with essays that draw upon recent scholarship in literary and cultural studies to offer an authoritative and in depth reassessment of major and minor figures and the contexts that shaped their work

Korean and Korean American Life Writing in Hawai'i Heui-Yung Park, 2015-12-16 Korean and Korean American Life Writing in Hawai'i examines such self-representing genres as lyric poems oral history autobiography and memoirs written by Korean and Korean Americans from the early twentieth century to the present in order to explore how these people have shaped their individual or collective identities Their representations produced in different periods by successive generations reveal how Koreans in their diaspora to Hawai'i came to terms with their ethnic and local selves and also how the sense of who and what they are changed over the years both within and beyond the initial generation Looking into their individual and collective identities in lyric poems oral history autobiography and memoirs reveals how the earliest arrivals their children and their grandchildren have come to terms with their national ethnic and local selves and how their sense of identity changes over the course of time both within and beyond the initial generation In the lyric poems found in Korean language periodicals of the native born generation we can trace the significance of the motherland and Hawai i for these writers sense of identity The oral histories of first generation women most of whom arrived as picture brides also represent another us often vulnerable Koreans who define themselves in relation to both the present culture and to Korean men The self developed by the second third and in between generation Koreans diversifies because their identity is not defined exclusively by their ancestral land extending to Hawai i and to America This study focuses on three main areas of emphasis Hawai i Korean language and culture and life writing By tracing how identity changes with each generation this study reveals how identity formation for Hawai i diasporic Koreans has evolved

The Cambridge Companion to the American Modernist Novel Joshua L. Miller, 2015-10-29 The Cambridge Companion to the American Modernist Novel offers a comprehensive analysis of US modernism as part of a wider global literature Both modernist and American literary studies have been reshaped by waves of scholarship that unsettled prior consensus regarding America s relation to transnational diasporic and indigenous identities and aesthetics the role of visual and musical arts in narrative experimentation science and technology studies and allegiances across racial ethnic gendered and sexual social groups Recent writing on US immigration imperialism and territorial expansion has generated fresh and exciting reasons to read or reread modernist novelists both prominent and forgotten Written by a host of leading scholars this Companion provides unique interpretations and approaches to modernist themes techniques and texts

Asian American Literature Jinqi Ling, 2022-10-20 This book introduces Asian American literary studies by engaging the conditions contingencies and immediate and long term effects of its major debates Two rationales inform Ling s presentation of the field in this way first is a felt need to provide recognizable contours and trajectories for the evolution of Asian American criticism as an ethnic specific minoritarian formation in the United States second is an imperative to historicize its practices including polemics controversies and ideological ruptures as an ongoing negotiation undertaken by Asian American critics for a more self conscious and more adequate representation of the field s interests These rationales are fully contextualized in the book s Introduction and Conclusion The main body of this study is organized non chronologically into 8 chapters with each designed to reflect how the field has been energized by its demographic transformation its growing intellectual heterogeneity its defining moments and its cross cutting relationship with the trends in other disciplines What has emerged and been given prominence to in the surveys and discussions of this book then constitute the essential criticism of Asian American literary studies a discourse almost 5 decades in the making when examined retrospectively

Race Characters Swati Rana, 2020-11-16 A vexed figure inhabits U S literature and culture the visibly racialized immigrant who disavows minority identity and embraces the American dream Such figures are potent and controversial for they promise to expiate racial violence and perpetuate an exceptionalist ideal of America Swati Rana grapples with these figures building on studies of literary character and racial form Rana offers a new way to view characterization through racialization that creates a fuller social reading of race Situated in a nascent period of ethnic identification from 1900 to 1960 this book focuses on immigrant writers who do not fit neatly into a resistance based model of ethnic literature Writings by Paule Marshall Ameen Rihani Dalip Singh Saund Jos Garcia Villa and Jos Antonio Villarreal symbolize different aspects of the American dream from individualism to imperialism assimilation to upward mobility The dynamics of characterization are also those of contestation Rana argues Analyzing the interrelation of persona and personhood Race Characters presents an original method of comparison revealing how the protagonist of the American dream is socially constrained and structurally driven

The Cambridge History of Asian American Literature Rajini Srikanth, Min Hyoung Song, 2015-12-01 The Cambridge History of Asian American Literature presents a comprehensive history of the field from its origins in the nineteenth century to the present day It offers an unparalleled examination of all facets of Asian American writing that help readers to understand how authors have sought to make their experiences meaningful Covering subjects from autobiography and Japanese American internment literature to contemporary drama and social protest performance this History traces the development of a literary tradition while remaining grounded in current scholarship It also presents new critical approaches to Asian American literature that will serve the needs of students and specialists alike Written by leading scholars in the field The Cambridge History of Asian American Literature will not only engage readers in contemporary debates but also serve as a definitive reference for years to come

Tonal Intelligence Sunny Xiang,2020-12-15 Why were U S intelligence organizations so preoccupied with demystifying East and Southeast Asia during the mid twentieth century Sunny Xiang offers a new way of understanding the American cold war in Asia by tracing aesthetic manifestations of Oriental inscrutability across a wide range of texts She examines how cold war regimes of suspicious thinking produced an ambiguity between Oriental enemies and Asian allies contributing to the conflict s status as both a real war and a long peace Xiang puts interrogation reports policy memos and field notes into conversation with novels poems documentaries and mixed media work by artists such as Theresa Hak Kyung Cha Kazuo Ishiguro Ha Jin and Trinh T Minh ha She engages her archive through a reading practice centered on tone juxtaposing Asian diasporans who appear similar in profile yet who differ in tone Tonal Intelligence considers how the meaning of race war and empire came under pressure during two interlinked periods of geopolitical transition American nation building in East and Southeast Asia during the mid twentieth century and Asian economic modernization during the late twentieth century By reading both state records and aesthetic texts from these periods for their tone rather than their content Xiang shows how bygone threats of Asian communism and emergent regimes of Asian capitalism have elicited distinct yet related anxieties about racial intelligibility Featuring bold methods unlikely archives and acute close readings Tonal Intelligence rethinks the marking and making of race during the long cold war

Asian American Fiction After 1965 Christopher T. Fan,2024-04-23 After the 1965 Immigration and Nationality Act loosened discriminatory restrictions people from Northeast Asian countries such as South Korea Taiwan Japan and eventually China immigrated to the United States in large numbers Highly skilled Asian immigrants flocked to professional managerial occupations especially in science technology engineering and math Asian American literature is now overwhelmingly defined by this generation s children who often struggled with parental and social expectations that they would pursue lucrative careers on their way to becoming writers Christopher T Fan offers a new way to understand Asian American fiction through the lens of the class and race formations that shaped its authors both in the United States and in Northeast Asia In readings of writers including Ted Chiang Chang rae Lee Ken Liu Ling Ma Ruth Ozeki Kathy Wang and Charles Yu he examines how Asian American fiction maps the immigrant narrative of intergenerational conflict onto the two cultures conflict between the arts and sciences Fan argues that the self consciousness found in these writers works is a legacy of Japanese and American modernization projects that emphasized technical and scientific skills in service of rapid industrialization He considers Asian American writers attraction to science fiction the figure of the engineer and notions of the postracial modernization theory and time travel and what happens when the dream of a stable professional identity encounters the realities of deprofessionalization and proletarianization Through a transnational and historical materialist approach this groundbreaking book illuminates what makes texts and authors Asian American Bilingual Brokers Jeehyun Lim, 2017-04-03 Reading Asian American and Latino literature Bilingual Brokers traces the shift in attitudes toward bilingualism in postwar America from the focus on cultural assimilation to that of resource management Interweaving the social significance of language as human capital and the literary significance of English as the language of cultural capital Jeehyun Lim examines the dual meaning of bilingualism as liability and asset in relation to anxieties surrounding new immigration and globalization Using the work of Younghee Kang Carlos Bulosan Amrico Paredes Maxine Hong Kingston Richard Rodriguez Changrae Lee Julia Alvarez and Ha Jin as examples Lim reveals how bilingual personhood illustrates a regime of flexible inclusion where an economic calculus of one's value crystallizes at the intersections of language and racial difference By pointing to the nexus of race capital and language as the focal point of postwar negotiations of difference and inclusion Bilingual Brokers probes the faultlines of postwar liberalism in conceptualizing and articulating who is and is not considered to be an American The Minor Intimacies of Race Christine Kim, 2016-04-30 An attempt to put an Asian woman on Canada's 100 bill in 2012 unleashed enormous controversy The racism and xenophobia that answered this symbolic move toward inclusiveness revealed the nation's trumpeted commitment to multiculturalism as a lie It also showed how multiple minor publics as well as the dominant public responded to the ongoing issue of race in Canada In this new study Christine Kim delves into the ways cultural conversations minimize race's relevance even as violent expressions and structural forms of racism continue to occur Kim turns to literary texts artistic works and media debates to highlight the struggles of minor publics with social intimacy Her insightful engagement with everyday conversations as well as artistic expressions that invoke the figure of the Asian allows Kim to reveal the affective dimensions of racialized publics It also extends ongoing critical conversations within Asian Canadian and Asian American studies about Orientalism diasporic memory racialized citizenship and migration and human rights
