

The background of the cover is a close-up photograph of a fountain pen and a rolled-up document. The pen is a dark, possibly black or dark blue, with a silver-colored clip and nib. It is positioned diagonally across the upper left portion of the image. The document is rolled up, showing a section of handwritten text in a cursive script, likely Latin, which is visible through the translucent paper. The lighting is dramatic, with strong highlights and shadows, giving the image a sense of depth and texture. The overall color palette is muted, with greys, blacks, and the warm tones of the paper and ink.
