Reconstructing Italy Stephanie Zeier Pilat, 2016-04-08 Reconstructing Italy traces the postwar transformation of the Italian nation through an analysis of the Ina Casa plan for working class housing established in 1949 to address the employment and housing crises Government sponsored housing programs undertaken after WWII have often been criticized as experiments that created more social problems than they solved The neighborhoods of Ina Casa stand out in contrast to their contemporaries both in terms of design and outcome Unlike modernist high rise housing projects of the period Ina Casa neighborhoods are picturesque and human scaled and incorporate local construction materials and methods resulting in a rich aesthetic diversity And unlike many other government forays into housing undertaken during this period the Ina Casa plan was on the whole successful the neighborhoods are still lively and cohesive communities today This book examines what made Ina Casa a success among so many failed housing experiments focusing on the tenuous balance struck between the legislation governing Ina Casa the architects who led the Ina Casa administration the theory of design that guided architects working on the plan and an analysis of the results the neighborhoods and homes constructed Drawing on the writings of the architects government documents and including brief passages from works of neorealist literature and descriptions of neorealist films by Pier Paolo Pasolini Italo Calvino and others this book presents a portrait of the postwar struggle to define a post Fascist Italy

A Territory in Conflict Fatima Abreek-Zubiedat, 2025-04-08 A Territory in Conflict explores Israeli and Palestinian projects of modernization and development in the Gaza Strip from the outset of Israel's military occupation in 1967 to the Oslo Accords of 1993 Rather than reduce the Gaza Strip to an arena of war and violence Fatima Abreek Zubiedat resurrects the urban and architectural history of Gaza's cities and the varied perspectives and identities of the people who shaped them Through a close examination of planning activities in occupied Palestinian territory focusing on development settlement and security her book highlights the collision between Israeli occupation Palestinian nationalism and regional peace processes politics of class and citizenship contestation between camps and cities and the tensions inherent in Israeli development policies designed to establish lasting control over the territory's demographics and resources Abreek Zubiedat probes the power of architecture in conflict zones illustrating the agency of Gaza's cultural elite its mayors architects and engineers At the same time she draws attention to alternative voices Gaza's local inhabitants and refugees illuminating the conflicts complexities and contradictions of settler colonialism in the Middle East Her innovative approach to urbanization resettlement and rehabilitation in the Gaza Strip offers a groundbreaking account of the Israel Palestine conflict that goes beyond the limited framework of colonizer colonized binary restoring Gaza s cities in the public eye and giving voice to the people who inhabit them Pride in Modesty Michelangelo Sabatino,2011-05-21 Following Italy s unification in 1861 architects artists politicians and literati engaged in volatile debates over the pursuit of national and regional identity Growing industrialization and urbanization across the country contrasted with the rediscovery of traditionally built forms and objects created by the agrarian peasantry Pride in Modesty argues that these ordinary often anonymous everyday things inspired and transformed Italian art and architecture from the 1920s through the 1970s Through in depth examinations of texts drawings and buildings Michelangelo Sabatino finds that the folk traditions of the pre industrial countryside have provided formal practical and poetic inspiration directly affecting both design and construction practices over a period of sixty years and a number of different political regimes This surprising continuity allows Sabatino to reject the division of Italian history into sharply delimited periods such as Fascist Interwar and Democratic Postwar and to instead emphasize the long continuous process that transformed pastoral and urban ideals into a new modernist Italy The Fishing Net and the Spider Web Claudio Fogu,2020-11-23 This book explores the role of Mediterranean imaginaries in one of the preeminent tropes of Italian history the formation or making of Italians While previous scholarship on the construction of Italian identity has often focused too narrowly on the territorial notion of the nation state and over identified Italy with its capital Rome this book highlights the importance of the Mediterranean Sea to the development of Italian collective imaginaries From this perspective this book re interprets key historical processes and actors in the history of modern Italy and thereby challenges mainstream interpretations of Italian collective identity as weak or incomplete Ultimately it argues that Mediterranean imaginaries acted as counterweights to the solidification of a national Italian identity and still constitute alternative but equally viable modes of collective belonging Furnishing Fascism Ignacio G. Galán,2025-05-16 The role of modernist interior design in the construction of Italian nationalism Along with the rise of Mussolini s fascist regime the interwar years in Italy also saw the widespread development of its modernist interior design and furnishing practices While the regime s politics were overtly manifest in monumental government architecture Furnishing Fascism examines the subtler yet effective role of household goods and decor in the cultivation of Italy s exclusionary sense of national identity Presenting a fresh look at the work of various architects and designers including iconic figures such as Gio Ponti and Carlo Enrico Rava Ignacio G Gal n explores how seemingly neutral products of everyday life contributed to the propagation of fascist ideology Through extensive promotion in popular magazines and department stores on the film sets of Cinecitt Studios and throughout the country s colonial territories Italy s modernist design practices were part of a larger political project that aimed to produce a totalizing image of cultural hegemony Interweaving design theory architectural history and media scholarship

Furnishing Fascism reexamines the period's so-called minor arts to reveal the political entanglement of modernism in early twentieth-century Italy and offers valuable insight into the complications of cultural production under the auspices of authoritarian power. City of Collision Philipp Misselwitz, Tim Rieniets, 2006-06-02 War has entered the cities. Since September 11, 2001, at the latest, it has become apparent that this is the case not only in Jerusalem and the Middle East but also in Western metropolises. This book presents a thorough investigation of the current situation in Jerusalem from a trilateral perspective. Israeli, Palestinian, and international experts air their views. The discussion centers on the production and use of urban space under the conditions created by the conflict, including, for example, the so-called security fence, urban enclaves, exclaves, the approach to monuments and no-man's-land, and the instrumentalization of infrastructures, which leads to the crass juxtaposition of highly developed and impoverished urban spaces. The conflict, however, does not bring with it destruction and violence alone but also exhibits ambivalent effects and, along with them, new cultural and urban realities. Jerusalem has become a prototype in the age of new urban violence. Der Krieg hat Einzug in die Städte gehalten. Spätestens seit dem 11. September 2001 ist deutlich geworden, dass nicht mehr nur Jerusalem und der Naher Osten betroffen sind, sondern auch westliche Metropolen. Das Buch stellt eine umfassende urbanistische Untersuchung der aktuellen Situation in Jerusalem aus trilateraler Perspektive vor. israelische, palästinensische und internationale Fachleute kommen zu Wort. Diskutiert werden Produktion und Nutzung von städtischem Raum unter den Bedingungen des Konflikts, wie z.B. der sog. Sicherheitszaun, urbane Enklaven, Exklaven, der Umgang mit Monumenten und Niemandsland, oder die Instrumentalisierung von Infrastrukturen, die zu einem krassen Nebeneinander von hoch entwickelten oder verarmten städtischen Räumen führen. Der Konflikt bringt jedoch nicht nur Destruktion und Gewalt mit sich, sondern zeigt vielmehr auch ambivalente Wirkungen und mit ihnen neue kulturelle und urbane Realitäten. Jerusalem ist zu einem Prototyp im Zeitalter neuer städtischer Gewalt geworden.

"Architecture, Design and Craft in Toronto 1900-1940" Alla Myzelev, 2017-07-05 Toronto, the largest and one of the most multicultural cities in Canada, boasts an equally interesting and diverse architectural heritage. Architecture, Design and Craft in Toronto 1900-1940 tells a story of the significant changes in domestic life in the first 40 years of the twentieth century. Adopting a multidisciplinary approach to studies of residential spaces, the author examines how questions of modernity and modern living influenced not only architectural designs but also interior furnishings, modes of transportation, and ways to spend leisure time. The book discusses several case studies, some of which are known both locally and internationally, for example, Casa Loma, while others such as Guild of All Arts or Sherwood have been virtually unstudied by historians of visual culture. The overall goal of the book is to put Toronto on the map of scholars of urban design and architecture and to uncover previously unknown histories of design, craft, and domesticity in Toronto. This study will be of interest not only to the academic community, namely architects, designers, craftspeople, and scholars of these disciplines, along with social historians but also the general public interested in local history and or visual culture Rome and the Colonial City Sofia Greaves, Andrew Wallace-Hadrill, 2022-05-05 According to one narrative that received almost canonical status a century ago with Francis Haverfield the orthogonal grid was the most important development of ancient town planning embodying values of civilization in contrast to barbarism diffused in particular by hundreds of Roman colonial foundations and its main legacy to subsequent urban development was the model of the grid city spread across the New World in new colonial cities This book explores the shortcomings of that all too colonialist narrative and offers new perspectives It explores the ideals articulated both by ancient city founders and their modern successors it looks at new evidence for Roman colonial foundations to reassess their aims and it looks at the many ways post Roman urbanism looked back to the Roman model with a constant re appropriation of the idea of the Roman

The Mediterranean Question Iain Chambers, Marta Cariello, 2025-09-04 Whose Mediterranean are we talking about What languages are most appropriate to its reception and understanding With two thirds constituted by the histories and cultures of its African and Asian shorelines and hinterlands and its principal spoken language in all its variants and dialects being Arabic then the Mediterranean clearly exceeds the Western frame of explanation Without pretending to speak for or in the name of these ignored and repressed dimensions The Mediterranean Question explores the gap between the Mediterranean reduced to a European and Western mirror by listening and attending to some of those other histories cultures and lives How to puncture prevalent European understandings of the Mediterranean The colonizing impulse inscribed in Western historiography cannot be undone simply by adding previously repressed and unacknowledged histories. Instead, a re-examination of the premises and procedures that produced such exclusions leads to a valuable change in coordinates. An order of knowledge that creates subaltern objects of study to reconfirm European centrality and subjectivity is interrogated. Insisting on a politics of registration and listening, further critical incentives drawn from the trans-local dissemination of literature, music, cinema, and the visual arts can be deployed to query existing representations. In this more ragged and open series of maps, there lies no complete picture but rather a challenge to the violence of existing explanations. Insisting that present-day knowledge is sustained in asymmetrical relations of power, The Mediterranean Question promotes a reconfiguration of historical archives and cultural ties, casting a critical light on the deeper histories that have made the Mediterranean Europe and Western modernity. Proposing a series of intersecting analyses that underline the colonial constitution of the present and its mobile and creolized formation, Chambers and Cariello seek to establish new coordinates for thinking and practicing the possibilities of another Mediterranean.

Fascism, Architecture, and the Claiming of Modern Milan, 1922-1943 Lucy M. Maulsby, 2014-01-01. Fascism Architecture and the Claiming of Modern Milan 1922-1943 chronicles the dramatic architectural and urban transformation of Milan during the nearly twenty years of fascist rule. The commercial and financial centre of Italy and the birthplace of fascism, Milan played a central role in constructing fascism's national image and identity as it advanced from a revolutionary movement to an established state power. Using a wide range of archival sources, Lucy M. Maulsby analyses the public buildings from the relatively modest party headquarters to the grandiose Palace of Justice and the Palazzo del Popolo d'Italia through which Mussolini intended to enhance the city's image and solidify fascism's presence in Milan. Maulsby establishes the extent to which Milan's economic structure, social composition, and cultural orientation affected Il Duce's plans for the city, demonstrating the influences on urban development that were beyond the control of the fascist regime. By placing Milan's urban change in its historic context, this book expands our understanding of the relationship between fascism and the modern city.

Modern Architecture and Climate Daniel A. Barber, 2023-04-11. How climate influenced the design strategies of modernist architects. Modern Architecture and Climate explores how leading architects of the twentieth century incorporated climate-mediating strategies into their designs and shows how regional approaches to climate adaptability were essential to the development of modern architecture. Focusing on the period surrounding World War II, before fossil-fuel-powered air conditioning became widely available, Daniel Barber brings to light a vibrant and dynamic architectural discussion involving design materials and shading systems as means of interior climate control. He looks at projects by well-known architects such as Richard Neutra, Le Corbusier, Licio Costa Mies van der Rohe, and Skidmore, Owings and Merrill, and the work of climate-focused architects such as M.M. Roberto Ogilvy and Ogilvy and Cliff May. Drawing on the editorial projects of James Marston Fitch, Elizabeth Gordon, and others, he demonstrates how images and diagrams produced by architects helped conceptualize climate knowledge alongside the work of meteorologists physicists engineers and social scientists Barber describes how this novel type of environmental media catalyzed new ways of thinking about climate and architectural design Extensively illustrated with archival material Modern Architecture and Climate provides global perspectives on modern architecture and its evolving relationship with a changing climate showcasing designs from Latin America Europe the United States the Middle East and Africa This timely and important book reconciles the cultural dynamism of architecture with the material realities of ever increasing carbon emissions from the mechanical cooling systems of buildings and offers a historical foundation for today's zero carbon design

Rethinking Global Modernism Vikramaditya Prakash, Maristella Casciato, Daniel E.
