Mom Connection Tracey Bianchi, 2012-05 A mom's guide to creating vibrant friendships with other women that feed both their creativity and sense of purpose in the larger world

The Artist's Daughter Alexandra Kuykendall, 2013-04-15 When Alexandra Kuykendall became a mother it was the beginning of a soul searching journey that took her into her past and made her question everything she'd experienced and a lot of what she hadn't. The only daughter of a single world traveling mother and an absent artist father, Alexandra shares her unique quest to answer universal questions: Am I lovable? Am I loved? Am I loving? In short moving episodes, Alexandra transports readers into a life that included a childhood in Europe, a spiritual conversion marked more by questions than answers, a courtship in the midst of a call to be with troubled teens, marriage and motherhood, and always, always, the question of identity. Through her personal journey, women will discover their own path to understanding the shape of their lives and a deeper sense of God's intimate presence within it.

Always There Susan Besze Wallace, 2012-04-12 A devotional for moms by moms using real life mothering stories and Scripture to illustrate God's abiding presence in their lives

Searching for the Future in the Past Keun-joo Christine Pae, Kathleen T. Talvacchia, 2024-10-17 Inclusive and progressive theological and religious perspectives have an important and distinctive contribution to make to an analysis of the critical issues facing women identified persons in the 21st century. This incisive collection of essays recovers the missing theological voices grounded in those religious communities and traditions which gender and sexuality studies often overlook. Feminist theologians have from their beginnings aspired to be the communal production of women identified persons who critically reflect on their experiences in the contexts of culture, social standpoint, religious practices and beliefs, and imagination. The Feminine Divine. Pae and Talvacchia draw from this heritage to engage the critical issues of today to create new perspectives. They create an intellectual and discursive space where feminist theologians in all of their diversity renew and reclaim the rich legacies of the feminist theological tradition through intergenerational, racially diverse, and transnational conversation.

Suffering Well Joshua J. King, 2015-07-29 Author Joshua J. King guides us through Job chapter by chapter, verse by verse, highlighting truths we ordinary Bible students might too easily overlook. He delivers fascinating insights into the trials of Job's wife as well as the theologies and character of his four friends, and he provides a compelling analysis of Job's stubborn faith and the true longings of his heart. Any Christian who wants to know more about the heart and character of God and how that God works for our best through suffering should read this book. It's a very thoughtful piece. Tracey Bianchi, co-author of True You: Overcoming Self-Doubt and Using Your Voice and author of Mom Connection: Creating Vibrant Relationships in the Midst of Motherhood and Green Mama: The Guilt-Free Guide to Helping You and Your Kids Save the Planet. A uniquely uplifting exploration of an important Old Testament book, a new view of human suffering. Highly recommended.
