Voicing Dissent Casey Rebecca Johnson, 2018-02-01

Disagreement is for better or worse pervasive in our society. Not only do we form beliefs that differ from those around us, but increasingly we have platforms and opportunities to voice those disagreements and make them public. In light of the public nature of many of our most important disagreements, a key question emerges: How does public disagreement affect what we know? This volume collects original essays from a number of prominent scholars, including Catherine Elgin, Sanford Goldberg, Jennifer Lackey, Michael Patrick Lynch, and Duncan Pritchard, among others, to address this question in its diverse forms. The book is organized by thematic sections in which individual chapters address the epistemic, ethical, and political dimensions of dissent. The individual contributions address important issues such as the value of disagreement, the nature of conversational disagreement, when dissent is epistemically rational, when one is obligated to voice disagreement or to object, the relation of silence and resistance to dissent, and when political dissent is justified. Voicing Dissent offers a new approach to the study of disagreement that will appeal to social epistemologists and ethicists interested in this growing area of epistemology.

Reel Mediation Helen Leah Lightstone, 2023-12

Some might concede that the seminal legal drama 12 Angry Men might have something to teach us about conflict resolution. Might the same be said though of Danny DeVito's 1989 black comedy The War of the Roses? What could Clint Eastwood's 2008 drama Gran Torino teach us about mediating disputes? In this exciting and original work of nonfiction, veteran mediator Helen Lightstone takes these and other questions seriously, asking what movies might offer as teaching tools when it comes to alternative dispute resolution. Designed with students of Lightstone Academy for Conflict Resolution's advanced mediation course in mind, this book is broken down into five major chapters, each of which relies on a film or set of films to explore a major area of dispute resolution. First, 12 Angry Men will introduce you to basic concepts, before the historical drama The Tenth Man provides a more complex look at processes of negotiation. The period piece Woman in Gold takes you through the arbitration process, and the documentary Music From the Big House and thriller Colonia review process design in more depth. War of the Roses offers a thorough look at advanced mediation, and finally Gran Torino examines conflict resolution across cultural difference. Overall, this groundbreaking work is perfect for anyone
