ENGLISH DESCRIPTION How is one able to find a killer when you are the primary suspect? In this fourth installment of the series, detective Harry Hole will have to balance and cross a line between what is legal and ethical and the illegal in order to solve some crimes that weren't what they seemed at first. Security cameras capture everything when a bank teller is shot during a holdup. Harry will take up the investigation along with Beate Lønn, a young detective and expert recognizing facial features with the ability to remember every face she's ever seen. While the robberies are happening with more intensity and violence, Harry gets into trouble. One morning he wakes up with a terrible hangover that makes him relive old fears. The night before, he had met an old girlfriend who is now dead, and he is the main suspect unless he manages to clear up where he was during those last few hours when he remembers nothing. While Harry quietly looks into Anna's death, he and Beate uncover ties in their bank robbery case to one of Norway's most notorious bank robbers, one that is currently in prison. Is there someone willing to set him up to be blamed for Anna's death? The deeper Harry digs, the clearer it becomes that Anna's death is linked to the robbery.
