Compact AA. VV.,2016-01-07T00:00:00+01:00 1862 193 Urban Expansion, Land Cover and Soil Ecosystem

Services Ciro Gardi,2017-04-07 More than half of the world population now lives in cities and urban expansion continues as rural people move to cities This results in the loss of land for other purposes particularly soil for agriculture and drainage This book presents a review of current knowledge of the extension and projected expansion of urban areas at a global scale Focusing on the impact of the process of land take on soil resources and the ecosystem services that they provide it describes approaches and methodologies for detecting and measuring urban areas based mainly on remote sensing together with a review of models and projected data on urban expansion The most innovative aspect includes an analysis of the drivers and especially the impacts of soil sealing and land take on ecosystem services including agriculture and food security biodiversity hydrology climate and landscape Case studies of cities from Europe China and Latin America are included The aim is not only to present and analyse this important environmental challenge but also to propose and discuss solutions for the limitation mitigation and compensation of this process

The UK Regional-National Economic Problem Philip McCann,2016-03-10 In recent years the United Kingdom has become a more and more divided society with inequality between the regions as marked as it has ever been In a landmark analysis of the current state of Britain s regional development Philip McCann utilises current statistics examines historical trends and makes pertinent international comparisons to assess the state of the nation The UK Regional National Economic Problem brings attention to the highly centralised top down governance structure that the UK deploys and demonstrates that it is less than ideally placed to rectify these inequalities The North South divide in the UK has never been greater and the rising inequalities are evident in almost all aspects of the economy including productivity incomes employment status and wealth Whilst the traditional economic dominance of London and its hinterland has continued along with relative resilience in the South West of England and Scotland in contrast the Midlands the North of England Northern Ireland and Wales lag behind by most measures of prosperity This inequality is greatly limiting national economic performance and the fact that Britain has a below average standard of living by European and OECD terms has been ignored The UK s economic and governance inequality is unlikely to be fundamentally rebalanced by the current governance and connectivity trends although this definitive study suggests that some areas of improvement are possible if they are well implemented This pivotal analysis is essential reading for postgraduate students in economics and urban studies as well as researchers and policy makers in local and central government
