Mexican Homes of Today Verna Cook Shipway, Warren Shipway, 1964 Mexico Today and Tomorrow Ralph Waterman Vincent, 1906 Mexico this Month Anita Brenner, 1966 The Territories of Identity Soumyen Bandyopadhyay, Guillermo Garma Montiel, 2013-11-20

The expedited globalised process of exchange and new forms of cultural production have transformed old established notions of identity calling into question their conceptual foundations This book explores the spatial and representational dimension of this phenomenon by addressing how the reshaping of the key themes of place architecture and memory are altering the nature as well as our understanding of identity Cutting across boundaries the book drives discussion of identity beyond the well worn concern for its loss within a globalised context and importantly provides links between identity place memory and representation in architecture Examining a range of case studies from Australia Germany India Japan Mexico Poland Puerto Rico Turkey and Singapore as well as with contributions cutting across geographical and temporal boundaries this volume addresses such issues as architecture technology place and memory critical issues in the monitoring and mapping of identity shift within a rapidly globalising context With contributions from renowned authors in the field including Nicholas Temple Patsy Hely Robert Brown Liane Lefaivre John Hendrix Ana Souto Fiona MacLaren Stephen Walker Nezar AlSayyad Andrzej Piotrowski Catherine Ettinger Luz Marie Rodriguez and Raymond Quek this book presents fresh insights and diverse perspectives on the evolving question of identity and globalisation

Tradition of Craftsmanship in Mexican Homes Patricia W. O'Gorman, 2013-05-16 This book of more than four hundred photographs shows the detailed work of Mexican homes including adobe stone brick and masonry plaster and stucco wood terracotta and tiles iron metals and glass and paint It is the perfect reference for those looking for authentic Mexican accents to use in their home

The Mexican Aristocracy Hugo G. Nutini, 2010-01-01 The Mexican aristocracy today is simultaneously an anachronism and a testimony to the persistence of social institutions Shut out from political power by the democratization movements of the twentieth century stripped of the basis of its great wealth by land reforms in the 1930s the aristocracy nonetheless maintains a strong sense of group identity through the deeply held belief that their ancestors were the architects and rulers of Mexico for nearly four hundred years This expressive ethnography describes the transformation of the Mexican aristocracy from the onset of the Mexican Revolution of 1910 when the aristocracy was unquestionably Mexico's highest ranking social class until the end of the twentieth century when it had almost ceased to function as a superordinate social group Drawing on extensive interviews with group members Nutini maps out the expressive aspects of aristocratic culture in such areas as perceptions of class and race city and country living education and professional occupations political participation religion kinship marriage and divorce and social ranking His findings explain why social elites persist even when they have lost their status as ruling and political classes and also illuminate the relationship between the aristocracy and Mexico's new political and economic plutocracy

Contemporary Indian

Houses Sarbjit Bahga, Surinder Bahga, Yashinder Bahga, 2014-12-17 Contemporary Indian Houses discusses fifty one architect designed built up houses selected from different parts of India They display the diversity of needs tastes and building materials in the context of different weather conditions and social trends Different architectural appearances or external expressions have determined the classification of the houses into five sections This grouping keeps the reader's growing interest in the external aspect of a residential structure The emphasis is on the built form rather than on the interior and its decor Each house is accompanied by an explanatory text and supplemented by appropriate drawings and photographs to present a comprehensive picture of India's many splendoured domestic architecture Contemporary Indian Houses is a well illustrated document of changing trends in architectural tune It is not only a reflection of contemporary Indian architecture but also source of reference material for architecture historians Moreover it fulfills the needs of architects and other professionals engaged in house construction activity along with those general readers who wish to keep themselves informed of what is happening in the field of creative design

Tierra Y Libertad Steven Bender, 2010-09-29 One of the quintessential goals of the American Dream is to own land and a home a place to raise one's family and prove one's prosperity Particularly for immigrant families home ownership is a way to assimilate into American culture and community However Latinos who make up the country's largest minority population have largely been unable to gain this level of inclusion Instead they are forced to cling to the fringes of property rights and ownership through overcrowded rentals transitory living arrangements and at best home acquisitions through subprime lenders In Tierra y Libertad Steven W Bender traces the history of Latinos struggle for adequate housing opportunities from the nineteenth century to today's anti immigrant policies and national mortgage crisis Spanning southwest to northeast rural to urban Bender analyzes the legal hurdles that prevent better housing opportunities and offers ways to approach sweeping legal reform Tierra y Libertad combines historical cultural legal and personal perspectives to document the Latino community's ongoing struggle to make America home
