Visual Voyages Daniela Bleichmar, 2017-01-01 An unprecedented visual exploration of the intertwined histories of art and science of the old world and the new From the voyages of Christopher Columbus to those of Alexander von Humboldt and Charles Darwin the depiction of the natural world played a central role in shaping how people on both sides of the Atlantic understood and imaged the region we now know as Latin America Nature provided incentives for exploration commodities for trade specimens for scientific investigation and manifestations of divine forces It also yielded a rich trove of representations created both by natives to the region and visitors which are the subject of this lushly illustrated book Author Daniela Bleichmar shows that these images were not only works of art but also instruments for the production of knowledge with scientific social and political repercussions Early depictions of Latin American nature introduced European audiences to native medicines and religious practices By the 17th century revelatory accounts of tobacco chocolate and cochineal reshaped science trade and empire around the globe In the 18th and 19th centuries collections and scientific expeditions produced both patriotic and imperial visions of Latin America Through an interdisciplinary examination of more than 150 maps illustrated manuscripts still lifes and landscape paintings spanning four hundred years Visual Voyages establishes Latin America as a critical site for scientific and artistic exploration affirming that region s transformation and the transformation of Europe as vitally connected histories G.K. Hall Bibliographic Guide to Latin American Studies Benson Latin American Collection, 1999 World Employment Report 2004-05 International Labour Office, 2005 Productive employment is the economic foundation of decent work Laying this foundation is the central challenge we now face Decent and productive employment remains only an aspiration for many hundreds of millions of people frustrated by a reality of rising unemployment or employment that does not provide the chance to escape poverty
