Dictionary of Spoken Spanish
 U. S. War Dept, 2013-03-27 This is a complete unabridged republication of a Dictionary of Spoken Spanish which was specially prepared by nationally known linguists for the U. S. War Department TM 30 900. It is compiled from spoken Spanish and emphasizes idiom and colloquial usage in both Castilian and Latin American areas. More than 16 000 entries provide exact translations of both English and Spanish sentences and phrases as many as 60 idioms are listed under each entry. This is easily the largest list of idiomatic constructions ever published. Travelers business people and students who are interested in Latin American studies have found this dictionary their best source for those expressions of daily life and social activity not usually found in books. More than 18 000 idioms are given not as isolated words that you have to conjugate or alter but as complete sentences that you can use without change. A 25 page introduction provides a rapid survey of Spanish sounds grammar and syntax with full consideration of irregular verbs. It is especially apt in its modern treatment of phrase and clause structure. A 17 page appendix gives translations of geographical names numbers national holidays for Spanish countries important street signs useful expressions of high frequency and a unique 7 page glossary of Spanish and Spanish American foods and dishes.

Transatlantic Feminisms, Cheryl R. Rodriguez, Dzodzi Tsikata, Akosua Adomako Ampofo, 2015-03-18 Transatlantic Feminisms is an interdisciplinary collection of original feminist research on women's lives in Africa and the African diaspora. Demonstrating the power and value of transcontinental connections and exchanges between feminist thinkers this unique collection of fifteen essays addresses the need for global perspectives on gender ethnicity race and class. Examining diverse topics and questions in contemporary feminist research the authors describe and analyze women's lives in a host of vibrant compelling locations. There are essays exploring women's political activism in Kenya Uganda Ghana Santo Domingo Jamaica and Tanzania. Other essays explore representation and creativity in Brazil Nigeria and Miami. While one essay examines African women as conflicted immigrants in France another recounts the experiences of Haitian women trying to survive in the Dominican Republic. Core themes of the book include the evolution of black feminism black feminist political leadership the politics of identity and representation and struggles for agency and survival. These themes are interwoven throughout the volume and illuminate different geographic and cultural experiences yet very similar oppressive forces and forms of resistance.

Hispanic and Lusophone women filmmakers Parvati Nair, Julian Gutierrez-Albilla, 2019-01-04 This volume examines the films of Hispanic and Lusophone women filmmakers from the 1930s to the present day. It establishes productive connections between film practices across these geographical areas by identifying common areas of concern on the part of these female filmmakers Focusing on aesthetic theoretical and socio historical analyses it questions the manifest or latent gender and sexual politics that inform and structure the emerging cinematic productions by women filmmakers in Portugal Spain Latin America and the US With a combination of scholars from the UK the US Spain and Latin America the volume documents and interprets a fascinating corpus of films made by Hispanic and Lusophone women and proposes research strategies and methodologies that can expand our understanding of socio cultural and psychic constructions of gender and sexual politics An essential resource to rethink notions of gender identity and subjectivity it is a unique contribution to Spanish and Latin American Film Studies and Film Studies Objects of Culture in the Literature of Imperial Spain Mary E.
