Modern Movements Among Moslems:

Modern Trends in Islamic Theological Discourse in 20th Century Indonesia Fauzan Saleh, 2001-12-01 Aiming to trace the development of Islamic theological discourse in Indonesia from the early 1900s to the end of the 20th century the author focusses on how modernist Muslims have constructed their theological thought throughout the century which in turn reflects their religious understanding in response to the particular demands of their age The theological thought constructed so far signifies a continuum of progress developing from one stage to the next Implicitly this progress also indicates the improvement of Indonesian Muslims understanding of their own religion which may suggest the betterment of their commitment to doctrinal beliefs and religious practices Therefore this study will also examine the ways in which Indonesian Islam noticeably grows more orthodox through these forms of religious commitment Drawing upon an Indonesian term the growth of orthodox Islam is known as the santri cultural expansion which has been characterized by the vertical and horizontal mobility of devout Muslims in political cultural and economic enterprises A discussion of the theological thought underlying that santri cultural expansion is also included

Muslim Transnationalism in Modern China Hale Eroğlu, 2025-04-01 In the early twentieth century as the multiethnic Qing empire transformed into the Republican Chinese nation state Chinese Muslims faced new challenges confronting competing visions of nation building religion secularism democracy and modernity In this book Hale Ero lu explores how a group of key figures navigated this complex landscape offering a transnational intellectual history of Chinese Muslim thought Muslim Transnationalism in Modern China provides a portrait of underrecognized reformists who aimed to turn Muslim subjects into active Chinese citizens and revive true Islam in order to aid China s development and promote peace Ero lu examines reformists engagement with local and transnational Muslim currents spanning orthodox heterodox reformist secular and socialist movements from Egypt Britain India Turkey and the Soviet Union She reveals their varied strategies and highlights how they adapted global ideas to address local challenges such as the policies of the Nationalist and Communist parties the antireligion discourse of the New Culture Movement and the anti Islam rhetoric of Christian missionaries Drawing from Republican and early Communist era journals Chinese translations of Islamic sources and memoirs and travelogues this book offers a nuanced understanding of Chinese speaking Muslim intellectuals efforts to balance local and global influences in shaping their community s future

Messianic Ideas and Movements in Sunni Islam Yohanan Friedmann, 2022-06-16 Expectation of a redeemer is a widespread phenomenon across many civilizations Classical Islamic traditions maintain that the mahdi will transform our world by making Islam the sole religion and that he will do so in collaboration with Jesus who will return as a Muslim and play a major role in this apocalyptic endeavour While the messianic idea has been most often discussed in relation to Shi i Islam it is highly important in the Sunni branch as well In this groundbreaking work Yohanan Friedmann explores its roots in Sunni Islam and studies four major mahdi claimants Ibn Tumart Sayyid Muhammad Jawnpuri Muhammad Ahmad and Mirza

Ghulam Ahmad who made a considerable impact in the regions where they emerged Focusing on their religious thought and relating it to classical Muslim ideas on the apocalypse he examines their movements and considers their achievements failures and legacies including the ways in which they prefigured some radical Islamic groups of modern times Modern Religious Movements in India John Nicol Farquhar,1915 The Islamic State in the Post-Modern World Dr Louis D Hayes,2014-05-28 The Islamic State in the Post Modern World is a study of the political development of Pakistan This study consists of three parts The first addresses the concept of the state as it has evolved historically the second section focuses on the creation of Pakistan as an experiment in bridging the gulf between the demands of the modern state and the philosophical spiritual attraction of the Islamic model and the third part considers international issues from the beginning of the 21st century especially the conflicts in Iraq and Afghanistan One Century of Vain Missionary Work among Muslims in China Raphael Israeli,2018-10-23 Christian missionaries in China have been toiling since the 16th century with little success Only after the Opium War were the Western powers which invaded China able to enforce their gunboat policy under which their missionaries could penetrate all parts of China and extend their activities to a larger part of the population which needed welfare assistance and western protection and therefore resorted to evangelization as a way to obtain both However relative to the huge Chinese population and to the optimistic expectations of the missionaries little was achieved on the ground Therefore at some point since the beginning of the 20th century a decision was made by the missionaries to shift their emphasis to the Muslim population of China realizing that unlike the Godless Chinese who had no knowledge nor approach to the Bible the Muslims would be more amenable due to their Holy Book which knew One God and drew from the Judeo Christian tradition many of their narratives The attempt was valiant and lasted for almost a century with many efforts made to extend educational and medical aid to the Muslim population but it also ended in frustration on the whole due to the unexpected tenacity and resistance of the Hui and Uighur Muslims to the missionaries endeavour Intellectuals in the Modern Islamic World Stephane A. Dudoignon,Komatsu Hisao,Kosugi Yasushi,2006-09-27 Incorporating a rich series of case studies covering a range of geographical areas this collection of essays examines the history of modern intellectuals in the Islamic world throughout the twentieth century The contributors reassess the typology and history of various scholars providing significant diachronic analysis of the different forms of communication learning and authority While each chapter presents a separate regional case with an historically and geographically different background the volume discloses commonalities similarities and intellectual echoes through its comparative approach Consisting of two parts the volume focuses first on al Manar the influential journal published between 1898 and 1935 that inspired much imagination and arguments among local intelligentsias all over the Islamic world The second part discusses the formation transmission and transformation of learning and authority from the Middle East to Central and Southeast Asia Constituting a milestone in comparative studies of the modern Islamic world this book highlights the range of and transformation in the role of intellectuals in Islamic societies Lives of Muslims in India Abdul Shaban, 2018-01-10 The fast consolidating identities along religious and ethnic lines in recent years have considerably minoritised Muslims in India The wide ranging essays in this volume focus on the intensified exclusionary practices against Indian Muslims highlighting how amidst a politics of violence confusing policy frameworks on caste and class lines and institutionalised riot systems the community has also suffered from the lack of leadership from within At the same time Indian Muslims have emerged as a mass around which the politics of vote bank appeasement foreigners Pakistanis within the country and so on are innovated and played upon making them further apprehensive about asserting their legitimate right to development The important issues of the double marginalisation of Muslim women and attempts to reform the Muslim Personal Law by some civil society groups is also discussed Contributed by academics activists and journalists the articles discuss issues of integration exclusion and violence and attempt to understand categories such as identity minority multiculturalism and nationalism with regard to and in the context of Indian Muslims This second edition with a new introduction will be of great interest to scholars and researchers in sociology politics history cultural studies minority studies Islamic studies policy studies and development studies as well as policymakers civil society activists and those in media and journalism Islam in the Modern World Jeffrey T.

Kenney, Ebrahim Moosa, 2013-08-15 This comprehensive introduction explores the landscape of contemporary Islam Written by a distinguished team of scholars it provides broad overviews of the developments events people and movements that have defined Islam in the three majority Muslim regions traces the connections between traditional Islamic institutions and concerns and their modern manifestations and transformations How are medieval ideas policies and practices refashioned to address modern circumstances investigates new themes and trends that are shaping the modern Muslim experience such as gender fundamentalism the media and secularisation offers case studies of Muslims and Islam in dynamic interaction with different societies Islam in the Modern World includes illustrations summaries discussion points and suggestions for further reading that will aid understanding and revision Additional resources are provided via a companion website

Contemporary Rationalist Islam in Turkey Gokhan Bacik, 2021-07-29 Nineteenth century Istanbul was an intellectual hub of rich discussions about Islam in which leading reformists had a significant role Turkey today appears to be an intellectual vacuum to anyone searching for ongoing critical engagement with Islam The main purpose of this book is to adjust this view of Turkey by showcasing the modern Turkish theologians who challenge mainstream Sunni interpretations of Islam Labelling these theologians as rationalist rather than reformist the author reveals that their theology is inherently anti establishment and thus a religiously oriented challenge to the hegemony of the state sanctioned Islam for the rationalists Turkey's problems have their origins in the Sunni interpretation of Islam Contemporary Rationalist Islam in Turkey analyses nine prominent scholars of Islam who provide a religious opposition to the Sunni revival in Turkey H seyin Atay Yasar Nuri zt rk M Hayri Kirbasoglu Ilhami G ler R Ihsan Elia ik mer zsoy Mustafa zt rk Israfil Balci and Mehmet Azimli These scholars

writings are almost exclusively published in Turkish so this book makes their ideas available in English for the first time It also examines the scope methodology and argumentation of the scholars theology categorizing their theological interpretations from historicist to universalist and from empiricist to rationalist In identifying a new rationalist school of Turkish theology and outlining its different manifestations the book breaks new ground It fills a significant gap in the literature on Islamic studies and reveals an understudied dimension of Turkey and Turkish Islam beyond the well known ideas of the AKP and the Gulenists Islamic Movements of Europe Frank Peter,Rafael Ortega,2014-09-08 Islam in Europe and Islamophobia are subjects of vital global importance which currently preoccupy policy makers and academics alike Through the examination of various European Muslim groups and institutions that have branched off from Islamic movements including the Muslim Brotherhood Hizb ut Tahrir and Jama at i Islami this book outlines the configuration of social political and religious processes that have given rise to new kinds of European Muslim organisations The authors offer a new perspective on these Muslim groups and seek to reclaim them from the often highly charged public debates by placing them within the context of their origins as politicised religious movements on the one hand and their ongoing incorporation into European societal structures on the other They also consider the relationship of these organisations to their parent movements and examine the presence of Islam in European education and higher education institutions Taking into account the connection between Islamic movements and the perceived surge of Islamophobia in Europe this book does not debate the question of whether these groups fit into normative or cultural structures of European nation states but rather examines how these structures have changed through their interaction with these groups and the growing Muslim population within Europe It does not consider political Islam as the antithesis to a refined notion of secularism but as a form of public religion which contributes to the ever changing structure of Europe s secular regimes Featuring the work of more than 40 scholars from around the world this is the comprehensive guide to Islamic movements in Europe offering original definitive perspectives on Muslims and Islam in Europe today It will be essential reading for policy makers political commentators and scholars alike

A History of Islamic Societies Ira M. Lapidus,2002-08-22 Ira Lapidus classic history of the origins and evolution of Muslim societies revised and updated for this second edition first published in 2002 The Cambridge History of Islam: Volume 2B, Islamic Society and Civilisation P. M. Holt,Ann K. S. Lambton,Bernard Lewis,1977-04-21 This is a most comprehensive and ambitious collaborative survey of Islamic history and civilization A History of Conversion to Islam in the United States, Volume 1 Patrick D. Bowen,2015-08-17 A History of Conversion to Islam in the United States Volume 1 White American Muslims before 1975 is the first in depth study of the thousands of white Americans who embraced Islam between 1800 and 1975 Drawing from little known archives interviews and rare books and periodicals Patrick D Bowen unravels the complex social and religious factors that led to the emergence of a wide variety of American Muslim and Sufi conversion movements While some of the more prominent Muslim and Sufi converts including Alexander Webb Maryam

Jameelah and Samuel Lewis have received attention in previous studies

White American Muslims before 1975 is the first book to highlight previously unknown but important figures including Thomas M Johnson Louis Glick Nadirah Osman and T B Irving

The Making of Martyrdom in Modern Twelver Shi'ism Adel Hashemi,2022-02-24 In Twelver Shi a Islam the wait for the return of the Twelfth Imam Muhammad ibn al Hasan al Mahdi at the end of time overshadowed the value of actively seeking martyrdom However what is the place of martyrdom in Twelver Shi ism today This book shows that the Islamic revolution in Iran resulted in the marriage of Shi i messianism and extreme political activism changing the mindset of the Shi a worldwide Suddenly each drop of martyrs blood brought the return of al Mahdi one step closer and the Islamic Republic of Iran supposedly became the prelude to the foretold world revolution of al Mahdi Adel Hashemi traces the unexplored area of Shi i discourse on martyrdom from the 1979 revolution when the Islamic Republic s leaders cultivated the culture of martyrdom to topple the Shah s regime to the dramatic shift in the understanding of martyrdom today Also included are the reaction to the Syrian crisis the region s war with ISIS and other Salafi groups and the renewed commitment to the defense of shrines This book shows the striking shifts in the meaning of martyrdom in Shi ism revealing the real relevance of the concept to the present day Muslim world

Muslim Reformist Political Thought Sarfraz Khan,2013-05-13 There are two main trends distinguishable amongst Muslim reformists revivalists and modernists This book charts and analyses the main trends of Muslim reformist political thought in Bukhara It is the first to utilize original sources preserved in Soviet archives that were previously inaccessible to western scholars The author has translated numerous original documents from Tajiki and Russian into English This book thus serves as a useful resource for students of Islam Central Asia the former Soviet Union and of law politics and philosophy

A History of Conversion to Islam in the United States, Volume 2 Patrick D. Bowen,2017-09-11 In A History of Conversion to Islam in the United States Volume 2 The African American Islamic Renaissance 1920 1975 Patrick D Bowen offers an in depth account of African American Islam as it developed in the United States during the fifty five years that followed World War I Having been shaped by a wide variety of intellectual and social influences the African American Islamic Renaissance appears here as a movement that was characterized by both great complexity and diversity Drawing from a wide variety of sources including dozens of FBI files rare books and periodicals little known archives and interviews and even folktale collections Patrick D Bowen disentangles the myriad social and religious factors that produced this unprecedented period of religious transformation

Alternative Voices in Muslim Southeast Asia Norshahril Saat,Azhar Ibrahim,2019-12-17 According to some observers Southeast Asian Islam is undergoing a conservative turn This means voices that champion humanist progressive or moderate ideas are located on the fringes of society Is this assessment accurate for a region that used to be known for promoting the smiling face of Islam Alternative Voices in Muslim Southeast Asia examines the challenges facing progressive voices in Indonesia Malaysia and Singapore today It examines their discourses which delve into how multiculturalism and secularism are the way forward for the diverse societies of these three countries Moreover it analyses the avenues employed by these voices in articulating their views amidst the dominance of state and quasi state religious officials who seek to restrict and discipline them Contributors to the volume include scholars activists and observers some of whom are victims of repression and discrimination While most of the chapters cover developments of the last decade some of them go back to the previous century capturing the emergence of modernist thinkers influenced by parallel movements in the Middle East and the wider region Others respond to recent developments concerning Islam and Muslims in the three countries the Pakatan Harapan coalition victory in the 2018 Malaysian election the re election of Joko Widodo as Indonesia s president in 2019 and recent religious rulings passed in Singapore Readers should come not only to reflect on the struggles faced by this group but also to appreciate the humanist traditions essential for the development of the societies of these countries in the midst of change

Lifeworlds of Islam
Mohammed A. Bamyeh, 2019 Lifeworlds of Islam shows that Islam has typically operated not in the form of standard dogmas but more often as a compass for practical individual orientations or lifeworlds Mohammed A Bamyeh develops a sociology of Islam that maps out how Muslims have employed the faith to foster global networks public philosophies and engaged civic lives both historically and in the present

Sufism and Jihad in Modern Senegal John Glover, 2007 Examines through the use of Murid oral and written sources the creation of an alternative modernity as an understanding of historical change by Sufi notables and disciples The Murid order founded in Senegal in the latter decades of the nineteenth century grew into a major Sufi order during the colonial period and is now among the most recognizable of the Sufi orders in Africa Murids have spread the voice of Islam and Africa in concert halls and on the airwaves through pop singers especially Youssou N Dour and the image of Shaykh Amadu Bamba M Back the founding saint of the order often used to grace the covers of works concerning Islam African culture abolition and European colonization In this insightful and revealing study John Glover explores the manner in which a Muslim society in West Africa actively created a conception of modernity that reflects its own historical awareness and identity Drawing from Murid written and oral historical sources Glover carefully considers how the Murid order at the collective and individual levels has navigated the intersection of two major historical forces Islam specifically in the contexts of reform and mysticism and European colonization and achieved in the process an understanding of modernity not as an unwilling witness but as an active participant Ultimately Sufism and Jihad in Modern Senegal presents the reader with a new portrait of a society that has used its notion of modernity to adapt and incorporate further historical changes into its identity as an African Sufi order John Glover is Associate Professor of History at the University of Redlands in southern California
