Modernity At Sea Melville Marx Conrad In Crisis Theory Out Of Bounds:

Modernity at Sea Cesare Casarino, 2002 At once a literary philosophical meditation on the question of modernity and a manifesto for a new form of literary criticism Modernity at Sea argues that the nineteenth century sea narrative played a crucial role in the emergence of a theory of modernity as permanent crisis In a series of close readings of such works as Herman Melville's White Jacket and Moby Dick Joseph Conrad's The Nigger of the Narcissus and The Secret Sharer and Karl Marx's Grundrisse Cesare Casarino draws upon the thought of twentieth century figures including Giorgio Agamben Louis Althusser Walter Benjamin Leo Bersani Gilles Deleuze Félix Guattari and Antonio Negri to characterize the nineteenth century ship narrative as the epitome of Michel Foucault's heterotopia a special type of space that simultaneously represents inverts and contests all other spaces in culture Elaborating Foucault's claim that the ship has been the heterotopia par excellence of Western civilization since the Renaissance Casarino goes on to argue that the nineteenth century sea narrative froze the world of the ship just before its disappearance thereby capturing at once its apogee and its end and producing the ship as the matrix of modernity

Signs of Danger Peter C. Van Wyck, A rising ocean A falling building A toxic river Species extinguished A nuclear landscape In a world so configured the state of contemporary ecological thought and practice is woefully and perilously inadequate Focusing on the government's nuclear waste burial program in Carlsbad New Mexico Signs of Danger begins the urgent work of finding a new way of thinking about ecological threat in our time The Waste Isolation Pilot Plant in Carlsbad began receiving shipments in 1999 With a proposed closing date of 2030 this repository for nuclear waste must be secured with a sign the purpose of which will be to keep people away for three hundred generations In the official documents uncovered by Peter van Wyck we encounter a government bureaucracy approaching the issue of nuclear waste as a technical problem only to find itself confronting a host of intractable philosophical issues concerning language culture and history Signs of Danger plumbs these depths as it shows us how the problem raised in the desert of New Mexico is actually the problem of a culture grappling with ecological threats and with questions of the limits of meaning and representation in the deep future The reflections at the center of this book on memory trauma disaster representation and the virtual are aimed at defining the uniquely modern status of environmental and nuclear threats They offer invaluable insights into the interface of where culture ends and nature begins and how such a juncture is closely linked with questions of risk concepts of history and the cultural experience of time

The Passage of Literature Christopher GoGwilt, 2011-01-27 Through a set of comparative studies of the fiction of Joseph Conrad Jean Rhys and Pramoedya Ananta Toer The Passage of Literature explains the interrelation between English Creole and Indonesian formations of literary modernism arguing that each passage of literature is the site of contest between competing genealogies of culture that transports cargo across the Atlantic Ocean Embarking in Santa Cruz de Tenerife he wanted to understand the realities of a little known alternative to the shipping industry on which our global economy relies and which contributes more carbon emissions than aviation What started as a three week stint of fieldwork aboard the ship turned into a five month journey as the COVID 19 pandemic forced all borders shut while crossing the ocean preventing the crew from stepping ashore for months on end Trade winds engagingly recounts De Beukelaer s life changing personal odyssey and the complex journey the shipping industry is on to cut its carbon emissions The Avontuur s mission remains crucial as ever the shipping industry urgently needs to stop using fossil fuels starting today If we can t swiftly decarbonise shipping we can t solve the climate crisis The Rational Double Michael Damon Reid,2009 Reading Landscape in American Literature ,

Neuropolitics William E. Connolly,2002 Why would a political theorist venture into the nexus between neuroscience and film According to William Connolly whose new book is itself an eloquent answer the combination exposes the ubiquitous role that technique plays in thinking ethics and politics By taking up recent research in neuroscience to explore the way brain activity is influenced by cultural conditions and stimuli such as film technique Connolly is able to fashion a new perspective on our attempts to negotiate and thrive within a deeply pluralized society whose culture and economy continue to quicken In Neuropolitics Connolly draws upon recent brain body research to explore the creative potential of thinking the layered character of culture the cultivation of ethical sensibilities and the critical role of technique in all three He then shows how a series of films including Vertigo Five Easy Pieces and Citizen Kane enhances our appreciation of technique and contests the linear image of time now prevalent in cultural theory Connolly deftly brings these themes together to support an ethos of deep pluralism within the democratic state and a politics of citizen activism across states His book is an original and rigorous study that attends to the creative possibilities of thinking in identity culture and ethics In-Between Fiction and

Non-Fiction Michelangelo Paganopoulos,2019-01-15 This volume invites the reader to join in with the recent focus on subjectivity and self reflection as the means of understanding and engaging with the social and historical changes in the world through storytelling It examines the symbiosis between anthropology and fiction on the one hand by looking at various ways in which the two fields co emerge in a fruitful manner and on the other by re examining their political aesthetic and social relevance to world history Following the intellectual crisis of the 1970s anthropology has been criticized for losing its ethnographic authority and vocation However as a consequence of this ethnographic scope has opened towards more subjective and self reflexive forms of knowledge and representations such as the crossing of the boundaries between autobiography and ethnography The collection of essays re introduces the importance of authorship in relationship to readership making a ground breaking move towards the study of fictional texts and images as cultural sociological and political reflections of the time and place in which they were produced In this way the contributors here contribute to the widening of the ethnographic scope of contemporary anthropology A number of the chapters were presented as papers in
