Modernization Democracy And Islam 2005 01 30:

Islamism and Democracy in Indonesia Masdar Hilmy, 2010 Most scholarly works conducted within the period of post New Order Indonesia have underlined the fact that Indonesian Islamists reject the notion of democracy no adequate explanation nonetheless has been attempted thus far as to how and to what extent democracy is being rejected This book is dedicated to filling the gap by examining the complex reality behind the Islamists rejection of democracy It focuses its analysis on two streams of Islamism the two Islamist groups that seek extra parliamentary means to achieve their goals that is MMI and HTI and the PKS Islamists who choose the existing political party system as a means of their power struggle As this book has demonstrated there are times when the two streams of Islamism share a common platform of understanding and interpretation as well as an intersection where they are in conflict with one another The interplay between contested meanings over particular theological matters on normative grounds and power contests among the Islamists proves to be critical in shaping this complexity From Independence to Revolution Gillian Kennedy, 2017 Argues that the relationship between a divided Islamist movement and the state create a pattern of instability within Egypt Reformist Voices of Islam Shireen Hunter, Shireen T Hunter, 2014-12-18 In recent years Islamic fundamentalist revolutionary and jihadist movements have overshadowed more moderate and reformist voices and trends within Islam This compelling volume introduces the current generation of reformist thinkers and activists the intellectual traditions they carry on and the reasons for the failure of reformist movements to sustain broad support in the Islamic world today Richly detailed regionally focused chapters cover Iran the Arab East the Maghreb South Asia Indonesia Malaysia Turkey Europe and North America The editor's introductory chapter traces the roots of reformist thinking both in Islamic tradition and as a response to the challenge of modernity for Muslims struggling to reconcile the requirements of modernization with their cultural and religious values The concluding chapter identifies commonalities comparisons and trends in the modernizing movements Beyond Modernity Mohammed Moussa, Emi Goto, 2023-10-30 A contest is afoot in Muslim discourses around the world in the twenty first century Prevalent norms and acts are subject to competing motivations trends and forces The image of a monolithic Islam is thus wholly inadequate to identify and interpret the different expressions of Muslim thought and practice in their specific yet connected contexts This book proposes competing and persuasive perspectives for interpreting what Muslims say do and think in collective settings or in the light of common frames of reference The chapters contained in this book reflect a diversity of disciplines and interests Nonetheless a common thread of the preoccupation with meanings in context unites the contributors and the approaches to their chosen examples Islam is not a discrete category that is taken for granted Instead the cacophony of voices in the Muslim world situated in specific contexts variously national regional or global is allowed to inform each chapter Here one encounters contemporary Muslims participating in discourses with a contested character that create opportunities to augment or question orthodox dictates or transmit or alter existing beliefs and practices What emerges are nuanced portraits of contemporary Muslim thought and practice that reveal a far from monolithic Islam to which all things Islamic can be reduced

Europe's Encounter with Islam Luca Mavelli, 2013-03-01 In the last few years the Muslim presence in Europe has been increasingly perceived as problematic Events such as the French ban on headscarves in public schools the publication of the so called Danish cartoons and the speech of Pope Benedict XVI at the University of Regensburg have hit the front pages of newspapers the world over and prompted a number of scholarly debates on Muslims capacity to comply with the seemingly neutral and pluralistic rules of European secularity Luca Mavelli argues that this perspective has prevented an in depth reflection on the limits of Europe s secular tradition and its role in Europe s conflictual encounter with Islam Through an original reading of Michel Foucault s spiritual notion of knowledge and an engagement with key thinkers from Thomas Aquinas to Jurg n Habermas Mavelli articulates a contending genealogy of European secularity While not denying the latter s achievements in terms of pluralism and autonomy he suggests that Europe s secular tradition has also contributed to forms of isolation which translate into Europe s incapacity to perceive its encounter with Islam as an opportunity rather than a threat Drawing on this theoretical perspective Mavelli offers a contending account of some of the most important recent controversies surrounding Islam in Europe and investigates the postsecular as a normative model to engage with the tensions at the heart of European secularity Finally he advances the possibility of a Europe willing to reconsider its established secular narratives which may identify in the encounter with Islam an opportunity to flourish and cultivate its democratic qualities and postnational commitments This work will be of great interest to students and scholars of religion and international relations social and political theory and Islam in Europe

The Decline of Nation-States after the Arab Spring Imad Salamey, 2016-10-14 Surveying the causes of the Arab Spring and revealing the governing trends arising from it this book examines various international relation theories through the lens of the experiences of the countries in the Middle East and North Africa region It takes the events of the Arab Spring as an outcome of globalization s double movement whose integrative cultural political and security frameworks devastated nationally controlled economies undermining the nation state system and propagating a decentralized and communitarian based governance structure The consequences for many plural diverse societies were two fold autocratic nationalism was discarded while decentralized regimes representing communitarian based politics came to the fore The author reveals how the formulation of a new communitocratic order rests on the accommodation of this newly emerging communitarianism and explores the major drivers of political transformation describing the emerging communities forecasting their governing options and the possible repercussions for the post Arab Spring states
