Moer Taalbeschouwing:

Taalbeschouwing op de basisschool Ides Callebaut, 2000 De nieuwe taalbeschouwing is aangekomen Ook in het onderwijs gaat men er meer en meer van uit dat het er in het werkelijke leven vooral op aankomt concrete situaties te kunnen aanpakken en beheersen In taalonderwijs gaat het er dan om dat je situaties leert beheersen door de manier waarop je je taal gebruikt Taalgebruik wordt dus de kern van taalonderwijs en dus ook van taalbeschouwing De bedoeling is dat leerlingen hun eigen taalgebruik verbeteren door te kijken hoe zij en anderen taal gebruiken en door daarover na te denken Of over hoe ze zich veel ellende kunnen besparen Wij vinden het ook ongelooflijk boeiend te zien en een beetje te begrijpen hoe wij taal gebruiken en hoe ons taalsysteem in elkaar zit Taalbeschouwing is dan een vorm van wereldoriëntatie Niet over konijnen of paardebloemen of de kledij in de middeleeuwen maar over onszelf Nadenken over taalbeschouwingsonderwijs kan niet zonder ook over taal zelf na te denken Daarover kan de lezer in dit boek dus ook heel wat vinden

The Oxford Handbook of European Islam Jocelyne Cesari, 2015 For centuries Muslim countries and Europe have engaged one another through theological dialogues diplomatic missions political rivalries and power struggles In the last thirty years due in large part to globalization and migration from Islamic countries to the West what was previously an engagement across national and cultural boundaries has increasingly become an internalized encounter within Europe itself Questions of the Hijab in schools freedom of expression in the wake of the Danish Cartoon crisis and the role of Shari'a have come to the forefront of contemporary European discourse The Oxford Handbook of European Islam is the first collection to present a comprehensive approach to the multiple and changing ways Islam has been studied across European countries Parts one to three address the state of knowledge of Islam and Muslims within a selection of European countries while presenting a critical view of the most up to date data specific to each country These chapters analyze the immigration cycles and policies related to the presence of Muslims tackling issues such as discrimination post colonial identity adaptation and assimilation The thematic chapters in parts four and five examine secularism radicalization Shari'a Hijab and Islamophobia with the goal of synthesizing different national discussion into a more comparative theoretical framework The Handbook attempts to balance cutting edge assessment with the knowledge that the content itself will eventually be superseded by events Featuring eighteen newly commissioned essays by noted scholars in the field this volume will provide an excellent resource for students and scholars interested in European Studies immigration Islamic studies and the sociology of religion

Language Awareness in Multilingual Classrooms in Europe Christine Hélot, Carolien Frijns, Koen

Gorp, Sven Sierens, 2018-04-23 Within the scope of today's globalisation linguistic diversity is a given fact of the world we live in. In several educational contexts in Europe language awareness LA activities have been introduced with the objective to prepare pupils cognitively, socially and/or critically for life as multilingual, open-minded and/or empowered citizens in a diverse world. Despite previous research in various contexts the concept of LA remains problematic; a generally accepted evidence-based conceptualisation is missing. This confronts both research and education with a challenge in order to develop LA activities, implement them successfully in educational contexts and achieve the expected outcomes. We should know what the concept stands for, how it works and why we would choose to implement it in classrooms or not. This volume focuses on three apparent simple questions: what, how and why. The first question, what, refers to the conceptual mess of LA. The second question, how, refers to the implementation of LA activities in several educational contexts. The third question, why, is a recurrent theme running through all the chapters and deals with a reflection on the way we deal unconsciously with LA activities in education.

The fascination with the history, grammar, spelling and vocabulary of Dutch and French has been studied mainly from monolingual perspectives, tracing the development towards modern Dutch or French. Van de Haar shows that the discussions on these languages were rooted in multilingual environments, in particular in French schools, Calvinist churches, printing houses and chambers of rhetoric. The proposals that were formulated there to forge Dutch and French into useful forms were not directed solely at uniformization but were much more diverse.

Selected Studies: Indo-European linguistics Jan Gonda, 1975 Dialect and Education Jenny Cheshire, 1989 This volume brings together research that has been carried out in Belgium, Denmark, the Netherlands, the United Kingdom and West Germany. It contains classroom initiatives designed to cope with potential educational problems arising from the relationship between dialect and standard language. We are Playing Relatives H.M.J. Maier, 2022-07-18 We are playing relatives offers a comprehensive survey of literary writing in the Malay language. It starts with the playful evocations of language and reality in the Hikayat Hang Tuah, a work that circulated on the Malay Peninsula in the eighteenth century and follows the Malay literary impulse up to the beginning of the twenty-first century, a time when the dominant notions of Malay literature seem to fade away in the cyberspace created on the island of Java. And the Hikayat Hang Tuah's play and dance on the sounds of Malay words seem to be infused with a new vitality. We are playing relatives covers a highly heterogeneous group of texts published over a long period of time in many places in Southeast Asia. The book is organized around a discussion of related texts that are crucial in the rise of the notion of Malay.
