Moms Marijuana Life Love And Beating The Odds:

Mom's Marijuana Dan Shapiro, 2007-12-18 A young man battles Hodgkin's disease and survives with more than a little help from his Mom in this wry and uplifting memoir about life, love and beating the odds. When Dan Shapiro's decidedly anti-drug mom put aside her convictions and grew marijuana in her backyard garden behind a discrete screen of sunflowers, he learned that in the face of a crisis we all have the opportunity to decide what is most important to us. In this hilarious, high-spirited, sometimes harrowing memoir, Shapiro invites us into his battle with cancer, his romance with an oncology nurse, his journey through graduate school and his most important life lessons. He tells his story with wit and grace and indomitable spirit, showing us that only when the rhythm of life is stirred violently are we able to discover its full beauty. Living With

Colon Cancer Eliza Wood Livingston, 2009-12-30 In this helpful and inspiring book, the author provides a wealth of practical information about colon cancer while telling of her own battle against this challenging disease. Dying to Get High Wendy Chapkis, Richard J. Webb, 2008-08-03 Investigates one community of seriously ill patients fighting the federal government for the right to use physician-recommended marijuana. This book tackles the broader, complex history of medical marijuana in America. It asks what distinguishes a legitimate patient from an illegitimate pothead and good drugs from bad. Writing for Bliss, 2017-09-01 Writing for Bliss is most fundamentally about reflection, truth and freedom. With techniques and prompts for both the seasoned and novice writer, it will lead you to tap into your creativity through storytelling and poetry, examine how life-changing experiences can inspire writing, pursue self-examination and self-discovery through the written word and understand how published writers have been transformed by writing. Poet and memoirist Diana Raab credits her lifelong love of writing and its therapeutic effects with inspiring her to write this thoughtful and detailed primer that targets pretty much anyone interested in writing a memoir. Most compelling here is Raab's willingness to share her intimate stories, e.g. the loss of a relative, ongoing struggles with cancer, a difficult relationship with her mother. Her revelations are encouraging to writers who feel they need permission to take a voyage of self-discovery. The book's seven-step plan includes plenty of guidance, including on learning to read like a writer and on addressing readers as if seated across the table. Raab covers big topics such as the art and power of storytelling and small details such as choosing pens and notebooks that you enjoy using. She also helps readers with the important step of finding your form. PUBLISHER'S WEEKLY Writing for Bliss is about the profound ways in which we may be transformed in and through the act of writing. I am grateful to Diana Raab for sharing it and I trust that you will feel the same as you read on. May you savor the journey from the foreword by MARK FREEMAN, PhD. By listening to ourselves and being aware of what we are saying and feeling, the true story of our life's past experience is revealed. Diana Raab's book gives us the insights by which we can achieve this through her life-coaching wisdom and our writing. BERNIE SIEGEL, MD, author of The Art of Healing. Only a talented writer who has fought hard to overcome life's many obstacles could take her readers by the hand and lead them through the writing process with such enormous compassion.
