Kees de Hoog is a professor of family sociology and family policy his work throughout the years has extended far beyond that and covers the fields that are captured by the different parts in this book Therefore the contributions in this volume comprise an interesting read for scholars all over the world who have an interest in families consumers households and the ways they interface Union List of Serials in Libraries of the United States and Canada ,1961 Reframing Dutch Culture movement of workers from less prosperous parts of Europe to areas with demand for their services The author identifies seven major systems of migrant labour the North Sea System mainly Westphalian workers heading for the German and Dutch North Sea Coast and Walloon French workers bound for the Belgian and Zeeland coasts the area between London and the Humber the Paris Basin Provence Languedoc and Catalonia Castile Piedmont and central Italy with Corsica A detailed study of the first of these systems tracing its development and changes is brought into a synchronic relation with data for the other regions The evidence shows major waves of immigration in the seventeenth century and a rapid diminution of migratory labour to the North Sea in the last quarter of the nineteenth century a time when new pull areas were created by the expanding industrial complexes of Germany and labour began to come in from areas outside Europe Repertorium van
