Negotiating Cultures Eugenio Barba And The Intercultural Debate:

Negotiating Cultures Ian Watson, 2002-10-11 Negotiating Cultures is a collection of essays and interviews that examines the role of cultural fusion negotiation and conflict in Eugenio Barba's creative work research and theories about theatrical performance Barba one of Europe's leading theatre artists researchers and theorists has been at the cutting edge of the contemporary preoccupation with what Homi Bhabha calls the borders between cultures The Methuen Drama Handbook of Interculturalism and Performance Daphne Lei, Charlotte McIvor, 2020-04-02 The Methuen Drama Handbook of Interculturalism and Performance explores ground breaking new directions and critical discourse in the field of intercultural theatre and performance while surveying key debates concerning interculturalism as an aesthetic and ethical series of encounters in theatre and performance from the 1960s onwards The handbook's global coverage challenges understandings of intercultural theatre and performance that continue to prioritise case studies emerging primarily from the West and executed by elite artists By building on a growing field of scholarship on intercultural theatre and performance that examines minoritarian and grassroots work the volume offers an alternative and multi vocal view of what interculturalism might offer as a theoretical keyword to the future of theatre and performance studies while also contributing an energized reassessment of the vociferous debates that have long accompanied its critical and practical usage in a performance context By exploring anew what happens when interculturalism and performance intersect as embodied practice The Methuen Drama Handbook of Interculturalism and Performance offers new perspectives on a seminal theoretical concept still as useful as it is controversial Featuring a series of indispensable research tools including a fully annotated bibliography this is the essential scholarly handbook for anyone working in intercultural theatre and performance and performance studies Eugenio Barba Jane Turner, 2018-06-27 Eugenio Barba is recognized as one of the most important theatre practitioners working today Along with the company he founded over fifty years ago the world acclaimed Odin Teatret he continues to produce extraordinary theatre performances that tour the world and his International School of Theatre Anthropology has greatly developed research into the craft of the actor Now revised and updated this volume reveals the background to and work of a major influence on twentieth and twenty first century performance Eugenio Barba is the first book to combine an overview of Barba's work and that of his company Odin Teatret exploration of his writings and ideas on theatre anthropology and his unique contribution to contemporary performance research in depth analysis of the 2000 production of Ego Faust performed at the International School of Theatre Anthropology a practical guide to training exercises developed by Barba and the actors in the company As a first step towards critical understanding and as an initial exploration before going on to further primary research Routledge Performance Practitioners offer unbeatable value for today's student A Poetics of Third Theatre Jane Turner, Patrick Campbell, 2021-05-16 A Poetics of Third Theatre offers an in depth critical analysis of Third Theatre a transnational community of theatre groups and artists united by a shared set of values and a laboratory attitude This book takes a genealogical account of Third Theatre as a concept and a practice that draws attention to the historical Third Theatre Encounters that have taken place across Europe and Latin America since the 1970s The work of renowned Third Theatre groups and organisations such as LUME Brazil Grupo Cultural Yuyachkani Peru Triangle Theatre UK and Nordisk Teaterlaboratorium NTL Denmark are explored to reveal how a multifarious poetics of Third Theatre is manifest through these artists approaches to performer training dramaturgy and cultural action Three critical pillars unconditional hospitality artisanal craft and re enchantment are employed in order to illuminate the shared ethos of the Third Theatre community and its exemplification as a mode of cultural performance This informative text will be of great use to students and scholars of drama and theatre studies and its dedicated section on performer training exercises offers the reader pathways into an experiential engagement with Third Theatre craft

The Routledge Companion to Theatre and Performance Paul Allain, Jen Harvie, 2013-05-13 Discussing some of the pivotal questions relating to the complementary fields of theatre and performance studies this engaging easy to use text is undoubtedly a perfect reference guide for the keen student and passionate theatre goer alike

Crossing Cultural Borders Through the Actor's Work Cláudia Tatinge Nascimento, 2008-07-21 A sophisticated analysis of how the intersection of technique memory and imagination inform performance this book redirects the intercultural debate by focusing exclusively on the actor at work Alongside the perspectives of other prominent intercultural actors this study draws from original interviews with Ang Gey Pin formerly with the Workcenter of Jerzy Grotowski and Thomas Richards and Roberta Carreri Odin Teatret By illuminating the hidden creative processes usually unavailable to outsiders the actor s apprenticeship training character development and rehearsals Nascimento both reveals how assumptions based on race or ethnicity are misleading trouble definitions of intra and intercultural practices and details how performance analyses and claims of appropriation fail to consider the permanent transformation of the actor s identity that cultural transmission and embodiment represent

Performing Exile, Performing Self Y. Meerzon, 2012-04-05 This book examines the life and art of those contemporary artists who by force or by choice find themselves on other shores It argues that the exilic challenge enables the migr artist to re establish new artistic devices new laws and a new language of communication in both his everyday life and his artistic work

Eating Shakespeare Anne Sophie Refskou, Marcel Alvaro de Amorim, Vinicius Mariano de Carvalho, 2019-05-16 Eating Shakespeare provides a constructive critical analysis of the issue of Shakespeare and globalization and revisits understandings of interculturalism otherness hybridity and cultural in authenticity Featuring scholarly essays as well as interviews and conversation pieces with creatives including Geraldo Carneiro Fernando Yamamoto Diana Henderson Mark Thornton Burnett Samir Bhamra Tajpal Rathore Samran Rathore and Paul Heritage it offers a timely and fruitful discourse between global Shakespearean theory and practice The volume uniquely establishes and implements a conceptual model inspired by non European thought thereby confronting a central concern in the field of Global Shakespeare the issue of Europe operating as a geographical and cultural centre that still dominates the study of Shakespearean translations and adaptations from a periphery of world wide localities With its origins in 20th century Brazilian modernism the concept of Cultural Anthropophagy is advanced by the authors as an original methodology within the field currently understood as Global Shakespeare Through a broad range of examples drawn from theatre film and education and from both within Brazil and beyond the volume offers illuminating perspectives on what Global Shakespeare may mean today

Performance and Civic Engagement Ananda Breed,Tim Prentki,2017-11-17 This book explores civic engagement as a politically active encounter between institutions individuals and art practices that addresses the public sphere on a civic level across physical and virtual spaces Taking a multidisciplinary approach it tracks across the overlapping discourses of politics cultural geography and performance investigating how and why physical and digital spaces can be analysed and utilised to develop new art forms that challenge traditional notions of how performance is political and how politics are performative Across three sections Politicising Communities Applying Digital Agency and Performing Landscapes and Identities the ten chapters and three interviews cover a wide variety of international perspectives all informed by innovative ways of addressing the current crisis of social fragmentation through performance Providing access to many debates on the theory and practice of new media this book is of significance to readers from a broad set of academic disciplines including politics sociology geography and performance studies

The Teaching of Kathakali in Australia Arjun Raina,2020-10-29 This book tells the story of teaching Kathakali a seventeenth century Indian dance drama to contemporary performers in Australia A rigorous analysis and detailed documentation of the teaching of multiple learners in Melbourne both in the group workshop mode and one on one combined with the author s ethnographic research in India leads to a unique insight into what the author argues persuasively is at the heart of the art s aesthetic a practical realisation of the theory of rasa as first articulated in the ancient Sanskrit treatise on drama The Nattyashastra The research references the latest discoveries in neuroscience on mirror neurons and argues for a reconceptualization of Kathakali s imitative methodology advancing it from the reductive category of mimicry to a more contemporary and complex mirroring which is where its value lies in Australian actor performer training The Teaching of Kathakali in Australia will be of great interest to students and scholars of theatre and dance intercultural actor training practice led research and interdisciplinary studies of neuroscience and performance

Musical Performance in the Diaspora Tina K Ramnarine,2013-10-18 This book illustrates how ethnographic investigation of musical performances might contribute to the analysis of diaspora It embraces diverse examples such as mourning and cultures of survival amongst Aboriginal and Jewish communities in Australia remembering a Kazakh homeland in Western Mongolia celebrating Diwali in New Zealand and the circulation of musical performances in Mozambique Portugal and the UK Some of the topics discussed in Musical Performance in the Diaspora include the expression and shaping of diasporic and postcolonial identities through performance musical memory in diasporic contexts the geographies of performance the politics of new forms of diasporic music making

This book presents a rich array of theoretical approaches and wide ranging ethnographic case studies to reconsider and challenge discourses that have favoured uncritical notions of diasporic hybridity and to broaden current analyses of performance in the diaspora

Neudenken Von Kultur und Kulturanalyse Joaquim Braga, Christian Möckel, 2013 The texts in this collection are revised versions of presentations given at the Coimbra International Conference on the Semantics of Culture Why Culture held on November 24 25 2011 Their common theme is the idea that the phenomenon of culture cannot be reduced to a substantialist vision of the diversity of manifestations of society and human beings However if one were to accept the concept of culture as a starting point for observing these manifestations then it should also be adopted as a starting point for critical questioning that is for problematizing The texts in this volume contribute to this philosophical problematization by pointing out each with its own perspective of analysis articulations of the phenomenon of culture as a theoretical object and as a thematic object

Odin Teatret Adam Ledger, 2012-07-31 Focusing on Odin Teatret's latest work this discussion is updated by drawing on fresh research The group's productions since 2000 are included and the book offers a reassessment of Odin's actor training Its community work and legacy are discussed and Barba's intercultural practice is viewed alongside two major Theatrum Mundi productions

The Use of Asian Theatre for Modern Western Theatre Min Tian, 2018-11-27 This book is a historical study of the use of Asian theatre for modern Western theatre as practiced by its founding fathers including Aurélien Lugné-Poe Adolphe Appia Gordon Craig W.B. Yeats Jacques Copeau Charles Dullin Antonin Artaud V.E. Meyerhold Sergei Eisenstein and Bertolt Brecht It investigates the theories and practices of these leading figures in their transnational and cross cultural relationship with Asian theatrical traditions and their interpretations and appropriations of the Asian traditions in their reactional struggles against the dominance of commercialism and naturalism From the historical and aesthetic perspectives of traditional Asian theatres it approaches this intercultural phenomenon as a Eurocentred process of displacement of the aesthetically and culturally differentiated Asian theatrical traditions and of their historical differences and identities Looking into the displaced and distorted mirror of Asian theatre the founding fathers of modern Western theatre saw in their imagination of the ghostly Other nothing but a self reflection or more precisely a self projection and emplacement of their competing ideas and theories preconceived for the construction and the future development of modern Western theatre      Shakespeares Asian Journeys Bi-qi Beatrice Lei, Judy Celine Ick, Poonam Trivedi, 2016-12-08 This volume gives Asia's Shakespeares the critical theoretical and political space they demand offering rich alternative ways of thinking about Asia Shakespeare and Asian Shakespeare based on Asian experiences and histories Challenging and supplementing the dominant critical and theoretical structures that determine Shakespeare studies today close analysis of Shakespeare's Asian journeys critical encounters cultural geographies and the political complexions of these negotiations reveal perspectives different to the European Exploring what Shakespeare has done to Asia along with what Asia has done with Shakespeare this book demonstrates how Shakespeare helps articulate Asianess unfolding Asia's past reflecting Asia's present and projecting Asia's future This is achieved by forgoing the myth of the Bard's universality bypassing the authenticity test avoiding merely descriptive or even ethnographic accounts and using caution when applying Western theoretical frameworks Many of the productions studied in this volume are brought to critical attention for the first time offering new methodologies and approaches across disciplines including history philosophy sociology geopolitics religion postcolonial studies psychology translation theory film studies and others The volume explores a range of examples from exquisite productions infused with ancient aesthetic traditions to popular teen manga and television drama from state dictated appropriations to radical political commentaries in areas including Japan India Taiwan Korea Indonesia China and the Philippines This book goes beyond a showcasing of Asian adaptations in various languages styles and theatre traditions and beyond introductory essays intended to help an unknowing audience appreciate Asian performances developing a more inflected interpretative dialogue with other areas of Shakespeare studies      Performing Nature Gabriella Giannachi, Nigel Stewart, 2005 The essays in this volume explore the borderland between ecology and the arts Nature is here read by a number of contributors as cultural by others as an independent domain or even as a powerful process of exchange between the human and the other than human The four parts of the volume reflect these different understandings of nature and performance Informed by psychoanalysis and cultural materialism contributors to the first part Spectacle Landscape and Subjectivity look at ways in which particular social and scientific experiments theatre and film productions and photography either reinforce or contest our ideas about nature and human human or human animal relations and identities The second part World Hermeneutic Language and Social Ecology investigates political protest social practice art acoustic ecology dance theatre family therapy and ritual in terms of social philosophy Contributors to the third part Environment Immersiveness and Interactivity explore architecture and sculpture site specific and mediated dance and paratre through radical theories of urban and virtual space and time or else phenomenological philosophy The final part Void Death Life and the Sublime indicates the possibilities in dance architecture and animal behaviour of a shift to an existential ontology in which nature has the capacity to perform itself
