Negotiating Gendered Discourses Ferndez Sexualities:

Negotiating Gendered Discourses Jane L. Christie, 2015-11-25 It has been argued that the first presidential campaign of Michelle Bachelet in Chile and Cristina Fernandez de Kirchner in Argentina used a rhetoric of newness Some political observers have said that as the first women to successfully run for the highest office in these countries they were presented as the new faces of democracy These observers argued that gender was not a determining factor in their electoral success but the focus on this first women frame did generate heavily gendered criticisms of these two candidates Negotiating Gendered Discourses addresses these views by asking how the gender factor is negotiated when women from the Southern Cone of Latin America run for high political office In particular Jane L Christie examines how Bachelet and Fernandez positioned themselves in relation to the numerous women led social movements and in doing so reveals points of intersection between these contemporary political discourses and existing sources of female authority when negotiating complicated ideological debates about human rights the economy and women's rights

Writing Terror on the Bodies of Women Sarah England, 2018-08-15 Writing Terror on the Bodies of Women Media Coverage of Violence against Women in Guatemala analyzes the scope and dynamics of violence against women in Guatemala and how it is represented in the print media Using nearly two thousand Guatemalan newspaper reports covering murders and assaults on women this book contextualizes violence against women within the history of violence in Guatemala gender ideologies and patriarchal social structures and the contemporary demands of the women's movement for social and legislative change It shows that while some newspapers cover violence against women with investigative reports and editorials that use feminist analysis and language these are overshadowed by the large number of individual reports that reproduce narratives of terror and conceal the gendered nature of violence against women by suggesting that delinquents gangs unknown men and inexplicably violent husbands are the main culprits while simultaneously upholding dichotomous gendered narratives of good and bad wives and daughters

Unbecoming Female Monsters Cristina Santos, 2016-12-07 Unbecoming Female Monsters Witches Vampires and Virgins is a multi cultural and

Risk-Taking in Higher Education Ryan Kelty,Bridget A. Bunten,2017-03-08 Risk taking is foundational to the structure and goals of higher education Encouraging students to consider new diverse even uncomfortable ideas is needed to develop a critically informed view of the world and establish one s own values and beliefs Yet students and parents are increasingly averse to risk taking in higher education a shift evidenced by calls for colleges and universities to provide an education that shelters students from diverse and potentially controversial ideas and topics This tension over the necessary role of risk taking in higher education represents a critical moment for American education This volume includes authors from numerous academic disciplines to emphasize both the importance of risk taking across higher education and to highlight the varied approaches to incorporate risk taking into classroom practices The authors collective works in this volume reaffirm the critical need to reject intellectual coddling and commodification in the college classroom and to promote intellectual risk taking as an essential aspect of higher education Sustained systematic emphasis on risk taking in higher education is key to promoting innovation critical thinking life long learning and moral ethical development

Contradicting Maternity Carol Long, 2009-06-01 Drawing on rich and poignant interviews with mothers who have been diagnosed HIV positive Contradicting Maternity provides a rare perspective of motherhood from the mother's point of view Whereas motherhood is often assumed to be a secondary identity compared to the central figure of the child this book reverses the focus arguing that maternal experience is important in its own right The book explores the situation in which two very powerful identities those of motherhood and of being

HIVpositive collide in the same moment This collision takes place at the interface of complex and often split social and personal meanings concerning the sanctity of motherhood and the anxieties of HIV The book offers an interpretation of how these personal and social meanings resonate with and also fail to encompass the experiences surrounding HIV positive mothers Photographs academic literature and the accounts of real women are read with both a psychodynamic and discursive eye highlighting the contradictions within maternal experience but also between maternal experience and the social imagination Contradicting Maternity will appeal to scholars students and practitioners in psychology the social sciences and the health professions The sensitive and readable analysis will also be of interest to mothers whether HIV positive or not
