

The background of the entire image is a still life composition. In the center is an open book with text on its pages. A single lit candle sits on a surface above the book, casting a warm glow. Scattered all around the book and candle are numerous US dollar bills, some crumpled and others flat. The overall color palette is dark, with highlights from the candle and the green of the money.

Passion Life Pt Resurrection Phillip:

Incarceration and Race in Michigan Lynn O. Scott, Curtis Stokes, 2019-12-01 State and local policies are key to understanding how to reduce prison populations This anthology of critical and personal essays about the need to reform criminal justice policies that have led to mass incarceration provides a national perspective while remaining grounded in Michigan Major components in this volume include a focus on current research on the impact of incarceration on minority groups youth and the mentally ill and a focus on research on Michigan s leadership in the area of reentry Changes in policy will require a change in the public s problematic images of incarcerated people In this volume academic research is combined with first person narratives and paintings from people who have been directly affected by incarceration to allow readers to form more personal connections with those who face incarceration At a time when much of the push to reduce prison populations is focused on the financial cost to states and cities this book emphasizes the broader social and human costs of mass incarceration

Unity in Christ Anthony Fisher, 2023-10-02 What does episcopal fraternity and communio look like This central question is explored through the erudition and experience of Archbishop Anthony Fisher Catholic Archbishop of Sydney Australia Unity in Christ based upon a series of addresses given to the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops USCCB at their Special Assembly in 2022 delves into the themes associated with episcopal unity By surveying the Christian tradition beginning with the scriptures and then through various periods Apostolic generation patristic scholastic Vatican II recent post Vatican II developments such as synodality a coherent picture of episcopal togetherness is presented What becomes clear is that unity among Christ s disciples and their successors is not simply an ideal but rather a constitutive element of their office They are called to love as Christ loved expressed above all through genuine friendship with one another The consequences of this fraternity and communio have implications in areas such as spirituality preaching and fraternal correction among others This second feature the implications of episcopal fraternity and communio are explored through Archbishop Fisher s twenty years of experience as a bishop of the Catholic Church By providing concrete examples of lived episcopal fraternity and communio Fisher offers a glimpse into both the challenges and fruits of living out Christ s call that they might all be one Jn 17 21

The Crown of Monks Smaragdus (Abbot of St. Mihiel), 2013 Smaragdus was a monk and abbot of considerable standing in the early ninth century church His Diadema Monachorum The Crown of Monks together with a later commentary on the Rule of Saint Benedict established him as one of the most significant interpreters of Benedict s Rule in his day and for succeeding generations Smaragdus intended The Crown of Monks as a daily resource for monastic communities to be read at the evening chapter He sought to arouse well established monks to a keener and loftier yearning for the heavenly country and to strengthen and instill fear in weaker monks In this gathering of excerpts from various respected sources a genre known as the florilegium Smaragdus addresses a wide variety of topics perennially significant to monks It offers rich material for lectio and meditation forming monastic
