

PATRIOTISM

Patriotism is a sentiment or attachment to one's country or homeland, involving a deep love, loyalty, and devotion to its values, culture, history, and people.

OVERVIEW

Patriotism encompasses a strong sense of pride and identification with one's nation, often leading individuals to support and defend their country's interests, rights, and values. It can foster a sense of unity and solidarity among citizens, promoting civic engagement, national identity, and a collective sense of purpose.

EXAMPLES

- National Identity: Patriotism often involves a strong attachment to the unique characteristics and cultural heritage of one's nation.
- Civic Duty: Patriotism can inspire individuals to actively participate in the civic processes of their country, such as voting, serving in the military.

alive in the new state through separate institutions of religion the Church of Scotland education and the legal system Neil Davidson argues otherwise The Scottish nation did not exist before 1707 The Scottish national consciousness we know today was not preserved by institutions carried over from the pre Union period but arose after and as a result of the Union for only then were the material obstacles to nationhood most importantly the Highland Lowland divide overcome This Scottish nation was constructed simultaneously with and as part of the British nation and the eighteenth century Scottish bourgeoisie were at the forefront of constructing both The majority of Scots entered the Industrial Revolution with a dual national consciousness but only one nationalism which was British The Scottish nationalism which arose in Scotland during the twentieth century is therefore not a revival of a pre Union nationalism after 300 years but an entirely new formation Davidson provides a revisionist history of the origins of Scottish and British national consciousness that sheds light on many of the contemporary debates about nationalism
