Passport Customer Service Centre:

The future of the Newport Passport Office Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Welsh Affairs Committee, 2011-02-03 Newport Passport Application Processing Centre serves the whole of Wales and south west England It deals with 47 000 passport applications annually around 10 per cent of the national total The Identity and Passport Service IPS proposes to close the Passport Office at Newport with a loss of over 300 jobs although the Home Office announced that a customer service centre would be retained in Newport to service South Wales and the South West of England The piecemeal nature of the announcements suggests the lack of a co ordinated strategy regarding the future of the IPS in Wales The Office s significance to Wales and its value to the Welsh economy have not been truly appreciated by the Government No economic impact assessment of the proposal has been completed and the criteria on which the decision was based should be re examined The Newport Passport Office is the second largest employer in the city centre Its closure would have a significant economic impact on the city and would be a further blow for the Welsh economy The Committee is not convinced that long term savings will be made by reducing the size of the Office The IPS should on the contrary provide a detailed appraisal of the costs and benefits of consolidation and expansion as opposed to a reduction of services Without the retention of the office in Newport the Government s duty to provide a Welsh language service to users may not be properly discharged Health

Beyond Kolkata Ishita Dey, Ranabir Samaddar, Suhit K. Sen, 2016-03-23 This book examines the politics behind and the socio economic and ecological repercussions of the making of a new township variously called New Town Megacity or Jyoti Basu Nagar in Rajarhat near Kolkata Conceived by the West Bengal state government in the mid 1990s in pandering to the vision of urban planners of creating a hi tech town beyond an unruly crowded Kolkata and feeding the hunger of realtors and developers the city is built on the foundations of coercive even violent land acquisition state largesse and corruption and at the cost of erasing a self sufficient subsistence economy and despoiling a fragile environment Yet after its completion and departure of construction labour the new town appears as a necropolis a ghost city that belies its promised image of an urban utopia even as the displaced locals lead a precarious mobile existence as transit labour engaged in odd and informal jobs Written on the basis of intensive fieldwork government documents court records and chronicles of public protests this book broadly analyses the politics and economics of urbanisation in the age of post colonial capitalism particularly the paradoxical combination of neoliberal and primitive modes of capital accumulation upon which the global emergence of new towns is based Departing from the dominant styles of urban studies that focus on cultural or spatial analysis of cities the authors show the links between changes in space technology political economy class composition and forms of urban politics which give concrete shape to a city It will immensely interest those in sociology political science economics development studies urban studies policy and governance studies and history
