Modernization Democracy And Islam 2005 01 3:

Islamism and Democracy in Indonesia Masdar Hilmy, 2010 Most scholarly works conducted within the period of post New Order Indonesia have underlined the fact that Indonesian Islamists reject the notion of democracy no adequate explanation nonetheless has been attempted thus far as to how and to what extent democracy is being rejected This book is dedicated to filling the gap by examining the complex reality behind the Islamists rejection of democracy It focuses its analysis on two streams of Islamism the two Islamist groups that seek extra parliamentary means to achieve their goals that is MMI and HTI and the PKS Islamists who choose the existing political party system as a means of their power struggle As this book has demonstrated there are times when the two streams of Islamism share a common platform of understanding and interpretation as well as an intersection where they are in conflict with one another The interplay between contested meanings over particular theological matters on normative grounds and power contests among the Islamists proves to be critical in shaping this complexity

The Muslim World in the 21st Century Samiul Hasan, 2012-01-14 Islam is not only a religion but also a culture tradition and civilization There are currently 1.5 billion people in the world who identify themselves as Muslim Two thirds of the worldwide Muslim population i.e. approximately a billion people live in forty eight Muslim majority countries MMC in the world all of which except one are in Africa and Asia Of these MMCs in Africa and Asia only twelve inhabited by about 165 million people have ever achieved a high score on the Human Development Index HDI the index that measures life expectancy at birth education and standard of living and ranks how developed a country is This means that the majority of the world's Muslim population lives in poverty with low or medium level of human development The contributions to this innovative volume attempt to determine why this is They explore the influence of environment space and power on human development The result is a complex interdisciplinary study of all MMCs in Africa and Asia It offers new insights into the current state of the Muslim World and provides a theoretical framework for studying human development from an interdisciplinary social cultural economic environmental political and religious perspective which will be applicable to regional and cultural studies of space and power in other regions of the world

The Decline of Nation-States after the Arab Spring Imad Salamey, 2016-10-14 Surveying the causes of the Arab Spring and revealing the governing trends arising from it this book examines various international relation theories through the lens of the experiences of the countries in the Middle East and North Africa region It takes the events of the Arab Spring as an outcome of globalization's double movement whose integrative cultural political and security frameworks devastated nationally controlled economies undermining the nation state system and propagating a decentralized and communitarian based governance structure The consequences for many plural diverse societies were two fold autocratic nationalism was discarded while decentralized regimes representing communitarian based politics came to the fore The author reveals how the formulation of a new communitocratic order rests on the accommodation of this newly emerging communitarianism and explores the major drivers of political transformation describing the emerging communities forecasting their governing options and the possible repercussions for the post Arab Spring states The Ashgate Research Companion to Islamic Law Peri Bearman, Professor Rudolph Peters, 2014-08-28 This unparalleled Companion provides a comprehensive and authoritative guide to Islamic law to all with an interest in this increasingly relevant and developing field The volume presents classical Islamic law through a historiographical introduction to and analysis of Western scholarship while key debates about hot button issues in modern day circumstances are also addressed In twenty one chapters distinguished authors offer an overview of their particular specialty reflect on past and current thinking and point to directions for future research The Companion is divided into four parts The first offers an introduction to the history of Islamic law as well as a discussion of how Western scholarship and historiography have evolved over time The second part delves into the substance of Islamic law Legal rules for the areas of legal status family law socio economic justice penal law constitutional authority and the law of war are all discussed in this section Part three examines the adaptation of Islamic law in light of colonialism and the modern nation state as well as the subsequent re Islamization of national legal systems The final section presents contemporary debates on the role of Islamic law in areas such as finance the diaspora modern governance and medical ethics and the volume concludes by questioning the role of Sharia law as a legal authority in the modern context By outlining the history of Islamic law through a linear study of research this collection is unique in its examination of past and present scholarship and the lessons we can draw from this for the future It introduces scholars and students to the challenges posed in the past to the magnitude of milestones that were achieved in the reinterpretation and revision of established ideas and ultimately to a thorough conceptual understanding of Islamic law

From Independence to Revolution Gillian Kennedy, 2017 Argues that the relationship between a divided Islamist movement and the state create a pattern of instability within Egypt Religion, Secularism, and Political Belonging Leerom Medovoi, Elizabeth Bentley, 2021-03-08 Working in four scholarly teams focused on different global regions North America the European Union the Middle East and China the contributors to Religion Secularism and Political Belonging examine how new political worlds intersect with locally specific articulations of religion and secularism The chapters address many topics including the changing relationship between Islam and politics in Tunisia after the 2010 revolution the influence of religion on the sharp turn to the political right in Western Europe understandings of Confucianism as a form of secularism and the alliance between evangelical Christians and neoliberal business elites in the United States since the 1970s This volume also provides a methodological template for how humanities scholars around the world can collaboratively engage with sweeping issues of global significance Contributors Markus Balkenhol Elizabeth Bentley Kambiz GhaneaBassiri David N Gibbs Ori Goldberg Marcia Klotz Zeynep Kurtulus Korkman Leerom Medovoi Eva Midden Mohanad Mustafa Mu chou Poo Shaul Setter John Vignaux Smith Pooyan Tamimi Arab Ernst van den Hemel Albert Welter Francis Ching Wah Yip Raef Zreik

Islam's Predicament with Modernity Bassam Tibi, 2009-02-25 This book presents an in depth cultural and political analysis of the issue of political Islam as a potential source of tensions and conflict and how this might be peacefully resolved Looking at modernity from an Islamic point of view the author analyses issues such as law knowledge and human rights

Reform and Modernity in Islam Safdar Ahmed, 2013-05-30 The debate over Islam and modernity tends to be approached from a Eurocentric perspective that presents Western norms as a template for progress against which Islamic societies can be measured This misses the historical development of Muslim reformist thought that actively engages with the world around it and seeks to reconfigure Islam within the diverse conditions of modernity Safdar Ahmed paints a complex and nuanced picture that goes beyond the idea that Muslim reformers have either reproduced or reacted against Western ideas Rather Ahmed argues they have reconstructed and appropriated these ideas and so the thread of Western influence runs through modern Islamic thought on nationalism and sovereignty femininity and gender Ahmed uncovers new historiographical perspectives by critically examining the work of prominent intellectuals such as Muhammad Abduh Qasim Amin and Abdul A la Maududi

Journal of a Dissenter Chris Wright, 2025-01-20 This is a lengthy intellectual journal by a political radical that ranges over a variety of subjects such as Marxism capitalism history many schools of modern philosophy psychology economics and contemporary American politics It also includes quite a few personal passages but I've kept those only because they express common experiences and youthful psychological tendencies Its most useful content for students might be its many summaries of good historical and scientific scholarship especially in the journal's second half Ultimately the document is a fairly comprehensive expression of a particular society as refracted through an inquisitive and critical mind from the ages of 15 to 44

Beyond Modernity Mohammed Moussa, Emi Goto, 2023-10-30 A contest is afoot in Muslim discourses around the world in the twenty first century Prevalent norms and acts are subject to competing motivations trends and forces The image of a monolithic Islam is thus wholly inadequate to identify and interpret the different expressions of Muslim thought and practice in their specific yet connected contexts This book proposes competing and persuasive perspectives for interpreting what Muslims say do and think in collective settings or in the light of common frames of reference The chapters contained in this book reflect a diversity of disciplines and interests Nonetheless a common thread of the preoccupation with meanings in context unites the contributors and the approaches to their chosen examples Islam is not a discrete category that is taken for granted Instead the cacophony of voices in the Muslim world situated in specific contexts variously national regional or global is allowed to inform each chapter Here one encounters contemporary Muslims participating in discourses with a contested character that create opportunities to augment or question orthodox dictates or transmit or alter existing beliefs and practices What emerges are nuanced portraits of contemporary Muslim thought and practice that reveal a far from monolithic Islam to which all things Islamic can be reduced

Muslim Identities and Modernity Maha Habib, 2016-03-16 What have the concepts of modernity and secularization meant for Islamic tradition culture and society How have the discourses which surround all of these issues influenced Muslim self perception and individual identity There have been many attempts to describe and analyse the encounter between Islam and modernity in the Middle East but few have been able so effectively to explore the impact this has on the idea and reality of religious identity and individual religiosity Maha F Habib examines modernity from this angle offering socio cultural philosophical and literary perspectives She assesses how this is played out in Egypt analysing cultural changes in the country through its intellectual thought and literature from the nineteenth century to the present day Her references to the works of Muhammad Abdu Muhammad Husayn Haykal Abbas Mahmud al Aqqad Naguib Mahfouz Alaa al Aswany and Salwa Bakr reveal contemporary issues and concerns which will interest those researching the cultural and social milieu of modern Egypt

Homosexualities, Muslim Cultures and Modernity M. Rahman, 2014-01-30 This book addresses the increasing role of queer politics within forms of Islamophobia both by exploring the framing of lesbian gay bisexual and transgender LGBT issues as a key marker of western superiority and by identifying the ways in which Muslim homophobia contributes to this dialectic From Resilience to Revolution Sean L. Yom, 2015-12-01 Based on comparative historical analyses of Iran Jordan and Kuwait Sean L Yom examines the foreign interventions coalitional choices and state outcomes that made the political regimes of the modern Middle East A key text for foreign policy scholars From Resilience to Revolution shows how outside interference can corrupt the most basic choices of governance who to reward who to punish who to compensate and who to manipulate As colonial rule dissolved in the 1930s and 1950s Middle Eastern autocrats constructed new political states to solidify their reigns with varying results Why did equally ambitious authoritarians meet such unequal fates Yom ties the durability of Middle Eastern regimes to their geopolitical origins At the dawn of the postcolonial era many autocratic states had little support from their people and struggled to overcome widespread opposition When foreign powers intervened to bolster these regimes they unwittingly sabotaged the prospects for long term stability by discouraging leaders from reaching out to their people and bargaining for mass support early coalitional decisions that created repressive institutions and planted the seeds for future unrest Only when they were secluded from larger geopolitical machinations did Middle Eastern regimes come to grips with their weaknesses and build broader coalitions The Oxford Handbook of Islam and Politics John L. Esposito, Emad El-Din Shahin, 2016 The Oxford Handbook of Islam and Politics with contributions from prominent scholars and specialists provides a comprehensive analysis of what we know and where we are in the study of political Islam

New Frontiers in Comparative Sociology Masamichi S. Sasaki, 2009 This book is a collection of notable papers from the first six volumes of the journal Comparative Sociology Its content represents leading edge and contemporarily astute analyses in the burgeoning science of comparative sociology especially relevant to a globalizing world in transition Given that not everyone is acquainted with comparative sociology this book offers an opportunity to enlighten readers unfamiliar with the discipline about the importance of comparative sociology to the new world order Taken together the articles illuminate various aspects of comparative sociology a theoretical methodological substantive Some compare social entities in subjective case study fashion while others report on rigorous social research All contribute in one form or another to describing the many and varied facets of the exciting a oenewa science of comparative sociology The content of this volume has previously been published in Comparative Sociology volumes 1 a 6 3 Reformist Voices of Islam Shireen Hunter, Shireen T Hunter, 2014-12-18 In recent years Islamic fundamentalist revolutionary and jihadist movements have overshadowed more moderate and reformist voices and trends within Islam This compelling volume introduces the current generation of reformist thinkers and activists the intellectual traditions they carry on and the reasons for the failure of reformist movements to sustain broad support in the Islamic world today Richly detailed regionally focused chapters cover Iran the Arab East the Maghreb South Asia Indonesia Malaysia Turkey Europe and North America The editor's introductory chapter traces the roots of reformist thinking both in Islamic tradition and as a response to the challenge of modernity for Muslims struggling to reconcile the requirements of modernization with their cultural and religious values The concluding chapter identifies commonalities comparisons and trends in the modernizing movements IBSS: Political Science: 2005 Vol. 54 The British Library of Political and Economic Science, 2006-11-03 First published in 1952 the International Bibliography of the Social Sciences anthropology economics political science and sociology is well established as a major bibliographic reference for students researchers and librarians in the social sciences worldwide Key features Authority Rigorous standards are applied to make the IBSS the most authoritative selective bibliography ever produced Articles and books are selected on merit by some of the world's most expert librarians and academics Breadth Today the IBSS covers over 2000 journals more than any other comparable resource The latest monograph publications are also included International Coverage The IBSS reviews scholarship published in over thirty languages including publications from Eastern Europe and the developing world User friendly organization all non English titles are word sections Extensive author subject and place name indexes are provided in both English and French Arab Liberal Thought after 1967 Meir Hatina, Christoph Schumann, 2016-04-29 This volume aims at confronting the image of the Middle East as a region that is fraught with totalitarian ideologies authoritarianism and conflict It gives voice and space to other more liberal and adaptive narratives and discourses that endorse the right to dissent question the status quo and offer alternative visions for society The Militant Kurds Vera Eccarius-Kelly, 2010-12-07 This extensive examination of the Kurdish conflict in Turkey Iraq Germany and the EU focuses on the history and development of the Kurdish Workers Party PKK and its impact on transnational security human rights and democratization The Militant Kurds A Dual Strategy for Freedom explores the complexity of the 30 year guerrilla war of the Kurdish Workers Party PKK against the Turkish Republic identifying longstanding obstacles to peace and probing the new dynamics that may lead to an end to the conflict In doing so the book provides fascinating insights into Turkey's national ethos its dominant military culture and civil society's struggle for increased democratization The Militant Kurds offers an extensive analysis of the precarious position of the Kurdish minority beginning with the establishment of the modern Turkish republic in 1923 Divided into five sections examining current political realities in Turkey the book investigates the role of Islam and ethnicity analyzes the rise of the PKK discusses Turkish military culture and explains the international dimensions of the Kurdish conflict Comparative historical political and socioeconomic examples contextualize the long struggle for Kurdish self determination Each chapter offers an analysis of the underlying dynamics of the conflict and provides up to date explanations

Headscarf Politics in Turkey M. Kavakci Islam, 2010-10-25 This book questions the role model status of the Turkish Republic with respect to the advancement of female agency in a secular context by using the study of women with headscarves as a case in point Turkey's commitment to modernization depends heavily on secularism which involves among other things the westernization of women's appearance
