Rose Arny,2002-02 Modernizing of the Orient (Classic Reprint) Clayton Sedgwick Cooper,2015-07-12 Excerpt from Modernizing of the Orient The East has at last met the West face to face What has been the character of that meeting What have been the results of the mingling of these two opposite and distinct sets of people with their antipodal points of view and methods Is the East becoming West What is happening These have been the writer s questions upon two journeys around the world in which many unusual privileges have been afforded for first hand contact with a large variety of institutions and native populations It is hoped that what is here set forth may be the means of inducing clearer ideas and further study concerning those people who embrace more than one half the population of the globe and who for obvious reasons are now becoming the center of international commercial and racial interests About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
