Molto Italiano Mario Batali, 2005-05-03 The trick to cooking is that there is no trick. Mario Batali's The only mandatory Italian cookbook for the home cook. Mario Batali's MOLTO ITALIANO is rich in local lore with Batali's humorous and enthusiastic voice familiar to those who have come to know him on his popular Food Network programs. Larded through about 220 recipes of simple healthy seasonal Italian cooking for the American audience. Easy to use and simple to read, some of these recipes will be those as seen on TV in the eight years of Molto Mario programs on the Food Network, including those from Mediterranean Mario, Mario Eats Italy, and the all new Ciao America with Mario Batali. Batali's distinctive voice will provide a historical and cultural perspective with a humorous bent to demystify even the more elaborate dishes, as well as showing ways to shorten or simplify everything from the purchasing of good ingredients to pre production and countdown schedules of holiday meals. Informative head notes will include bits about the provenance of the recipes and the odd historical fact. Mario Batali's MOLTO ITALIANO will feature ten soups, thirty antipasti, many vegetarian or vegetable based, forty pasta dishes representing many of the twenty one regions of Italy, twenty fish and shellfish dishes, twenty chicken dishes, twenty pork or lamb dishes, and twenty side dishes, each of which can be served as a light meal. Add twenty desserts and a foundation of basic formation recipes, and this book will be the only Italian cooking book needed in the home cook's library.

Mario Batali Simple Italian Food Mario Batali, 1998 Chef Mario Batali draws from the traditions of the village of Borgo Capanne in Northern Italy and Greenwich Village in New York to provide over two hundred recipes for pastas, salads, ragus, and other Italian specialties.

Who Decides? Nina Namaste, Marta Nadas, 2018-03-12 How is the meaning of food created, communicated, and continually transformed? How are food practices defined, shaped, delineated, constructed, modified, resisted, and reinvented by whom and for whom? These are but a few of the questions Who Decides: Competing Narratives in Constructing Tastes Consumption and Choice explores. Part I Taste Authenticity Identity explicitly centres on the connection between food and identity construction. Part II Food Discourses focuses on how food related language shapes perceptions that in turn construct particular behaviours that in turn demonstrate underlying value systems. Thus as a collection, this volume explores how tastes are shaped, formed, delineated, and acted upon by normalising socio cultural processes, and in some instances how those very processes are actively resisted and renegotiated.
