Psychology 4e Douglas A. Bernstein, Julie Ann Pooley, Lynne Cohen, Steve Provost, Jacquelyn Cranney, Neil Drew, 2023-11-03 Bernstein's Psychology takes a balanced approach to the discipline of psychology. The content of the text ranges across the history of psychological theories that aim to understand human behaviour from cell to society and includes multidisciplinary approaches. All content and assessment material is carefully constructed to develop the requisite skills to evaluate human behaviour with a scientific attitude. Linkages across the text help students to see a holistic picture and interrelated fields of psychology. Graduate competencies and psychological literacy continue to be a unique inclusion so that students master the knowledge, skills and professional attributes required to practise psychology competently and safely. Indigenous and cross-cultural psychology content is covered in two chapters as well as being integrated throughout the text with a key focus on local research and examples. This edition expands this focus to review the development of Indigenous psychology and the growing number of Indigenous psychologists currently practising in Australia via snapshots, linkages, statistics and examples. Instructor resources include Instructor's Manual, PowerPoint, Test Bank and active learning. Premium online teaching and learning tools are available on the MindTap platform. Learn more about the online tools at cengage.com/mindtap. Psychology Australian and New Zealand Edition Douglas A. Bernstein, Julie Ann Pooley, Lynne Cohen, Steve Provost, Jacquelyn Cranney, Bethanie Gouldthorp, Neil Drew, 2020-10-05

Make introductory psychology modern and accessible. Strike a balance between classic and contemporary topics and theory. The third AU/NZ edition of Bernstein Psychology engages students with local ideas and examples within the context of psychology as an international discipline. Rich cultural and indigenous coverage is integrated throughout the text as well as specific chapters on Indigenous psychology and Culture and psychology. There is also the continued and unique focus throughout the text on graduate competencies for accreditation, careers in psychology and the professional discipline of psychology. Linkages features in the text knit together student understanding of psychology's sub-disciplines and the research sections show the how and why of research. Premium online teaching and learning tools are available on the MindTap platform. Learn more about the online tools at cengage.com/mindtap.

The Psychology of Honor Abuse, Violence, and Killings Roxanne Khan, 2024-11-28 This important book provides a much needed exploration and examination of honor abuse, violence and killings from a psychological perspective. Written by a leading authority on the subject, the book draws on a wide range of research and theory on victims and perpetrators to bridge the gap between research and practice. Presented in two parts, the book begins with a focus on teaching research and practice issues in forensic psychology and related criminal justice fields integral to studying and working with victims and perpetrators of honor abuse, violence and killing. The second part provides an overview of the main issues relevant to the psychology of honor abuse, violence and killings. These include definitions, prevalence, crime characteristics, victims and perpetrators. The final chapter presents a new explanatory three-phase model of honor-based abuse perpetration Firsthand personal accounts and detailed cases studies are interwoven throughout giving a voice to victims and bringing their real life stories to the forefront As the first psychologically based book to synthesize existing and new knowledge on honor abuse the book is a must read for anyone working with victims and or perpetrators of honor abuse and domestic violence including criminal justice professionals mental health practitioners policymakers support agencies emergency workers and activists It is also relevant for any students or researchers of gender based violence and racially minoritized communities The Oxford Handbook of International Psychological Ethics Mark M. Leach, Michael J.
