Partnering with Parents Mary Schreiber, 2019-04-01 Caregiver involvement is key to a child's reading success story and libraries are in the perfect position to provide the guidance needed for parents and caregivers to embrace their role as their children's first and most enduring teachers. Libraries offer many programs and services for children but sometimes caregivers are left out of the equation especially once children start school. Nevertheless parents and caregivers are an integral part of literacy development and libraries are a great place for them to witness modeling practices and participate in engaging family programs that encourage early literacy. Mary Schreiber combines personal experience and professional research with the programming expertise of youth librarians from across the country in this guide for libraries looking to make an even greater impact on the level of literacy attained by the children they serve. In Partnering with Parents readers will find a wealth of information on how to talk to caregivers about the different stages of a child's reading life what books to recommend to excite both caregivers and children about reading and ways to encourage parent and caregiver participation in library programming with additional information on working with and providing programming for diverse families. Whether you are a veteran in the profession or brand new to working with families you will find something in this book that will help you to make your library a more integral part of the education community Children's Books in Print, 2007, 2006

Toddler Storytimes II Diane Briggs, 2008 School Library Journal With 25 theme based chapters this is a handy resource. Each theme includes book recommendations often 10 or more with a nice mixture of classic and newer titles and a suggestion to choose two or three per session. Words and instructions for fingerplays rhymes and songs are provided while a discography provides melody sources for all songs. Each theme includes a flannel board activity complete with reproducible patterns and brief directions on how to present the story or song on the board. Safe and simple crafts ideas are presented as optional activities. Activities are listed by type rather than in an ordered list so tellers can pick choose and order according to individual style and preference. An introduction provides tips and rationale for all of the types of activities. A couple of sentences note the potential impact on brain development and early literacy skills but the focus is on the activities themselves. Strategies for sharing early literacy information with parents and caregivers are not addressed. Judy Nichols's Storytimes for Two Year Olds ALA 2007 and Linda L. Ernst's Baby Rhyming Time Neal Schuman 2008 provide more comprehensive looks at all aspects of storytime planning and presentation. This update of Briggs's Toddler Storytime Programs Scarecrow 1993 will be most useful as a resource for programming ideas and fleshing out themes California
