Tourism and Informal Encounters in Cuba Valerio Simoni, 2016-01-01 Based on a detailed ethnography this book explores the promises and expectations of tourism in Cuba drawing attention to the challenges that tourists and local people face in establishing meaningful connections with each other Notions of informal encounter and relational idiom illuminate ambiguous experiences of tourism harassment economic transactions hospitality friendship and festive and sexual relationships Comparing these various connections the author shows the potential of touristic encounters to redefine their moral foundations power dynamics and implications offering new insights into how contemporary relationships across difference and inequality are imagined and understood

Beyond Ethics and Pragmatism Moshe Shokeid, 2024-11-01 Based on several long term fieldwork projects in Israel and the United States this book brings together a repertoire of subjective and professional experiences of an anthropologist who attended various theoretical and methodological tutoring settings That varied panorama of research milieus ethnographic field sites and diverse personal engagements has offered a wide perspective on the complex craft of anthropology Moreover it sometimes placed the author in unexpected situations that challenged some habitually accepted modes of personal conduct as well as ethnographic research norms and paradigms expanding the arena and terms of the anthropological assignments and the record of ethnographic works

On the Nervous Edge of an Impossible Paradise Kenneth Little, 2020-02-04 There are beastly forces in Belize Forces that are actively involved in making paradise impossible On the Nervous Edge of an Impossible Paradise is a collection of seven stories about local lives in the fictional village of Wallaceville Lives turn rogue in the face of runaway forces that take the form and figure of a Belize beast time which can appear as a comic mishap social ruin tragic excess or wild guesses Inciting the affective politics of life in the region this fable of emergence evokes the unnerving uncertainties of life in the tourist state of Belize

The Feeling of the Fall Ines Taccone, 2023-08-11 As an inquiry into engagements with forces of loss and threat this work explores experimental ways to write about climate crisis in anthropology From Belize to Ontario and back this ambitious piece of ethnographic writing set during a time beyond ruin in a fictional ecotourist community in the year 2040 Here loss is taken up through an inventive form of ethnographic storytelling that brings together people animals landscapes and the weather in a world beyond the climate crisis right now where new entanglements with things which have fallen to ruin emerge in imagined milieus in which loss and life converge

Nourishing the Nation Venetia Johannes, 2019-11-04 In the early twenty first century nationalism has seen a surprising resurgence across the Western world In the Catalan Autonomous Community in northeastern Spain this resurgence has been most apparent in widespread support for Catalonia's pro independence movement and the popular assertion of Catalan symbols culture and identity in everyday life Nourishing the Nation provides an ethnographic account of the everyday experience of national identity in Catalonia using an essential everyday object of consumption food As a crucial element of Catalan cultural life a focus on food provides unique insight into the lived realities of Catalan nationalism and how Catalans experience and express their national identity today

Footprints in Paradise Andrea E. Murray, 2017-06 The economic imperative of sustainable tourism development frequently shapes life on small subtropical islands In Okinawa ecotourism promises to provide employment for a dwindling population of rural youth while preserving the natural environment and bolstering regional pride Footprints in Paradise explores the transformation in community and sense of place as Okinawans come to view themselves through the lens of the visiting tourist consumer and as their language landscapes and wildlife are reconstituted as treasured and vulnerable resources The rediscovery and revaluing of local ecological knowledge strengthens Okinawan or Uchinaa cultural heritage despite the controversial presence of US military bases amidst a hegemonic Japanese state Encounters across

Difference Natalia Bloch, 2021-05-07 In Encounters across Difference Natalia Bloch examines tourism encounters in the informal sector in India and their potential to empower subaltern communities Drawing from ethnographic evidence in Hampi and Dharamshala Bloch explores the potential of tourism to promote political engagement volunteering sponsorship local entrepreneurship and women s empowerment Contrary to the frequent criticism of tourism to the Global South as a colonial practice Bloch argues that workers and small entrepreneurs in displaced communities see tourists as allies in their political struggles and on a more individual level as an opportunity to build better lives For more information check out A Conversation with Natalia Bloch author of Encounters across Difference Tourism and Overcoming Subalternity in India A

Goddess in Motion Roger Canals, 2017-08-01 The current practice of the cult of Mar a Lionza is one of the most important and yet unexplored religious practices in Venezuela Based on long term fieldwork this book explores the role of images and visual culture within the cult By adopting a relational approach A Goddess in Motion shows how the innumerable images of this goddess represented as an Indian white or mestizo woman move constantly from objects to bodies from bodies to dreams and from the religion domain to the art world In short this book is a fascinating study that sheds light on the role of visual creativity in contemporary religious manifestations Honour and Violence Nafisa Shah, 2016-10-01 The practice of karo kari allows family especially fathers brothers and sons to take the lives of their daughters sisters and mothers if they are accused of adultery This volume examines the central position of karo kari in the social political and juridical structures in Upper Sindh Pakistan Drawing connections between local contests over marriage and resources Nafisa Shah unearths deep historical processes and power relations In particular she explores how the state justice system and informal mediations inform each other in state responses to karo kari and how modern law is implicated in this seemingly ancient cultural practice
