Nigeria's Digital Diaspora Farooq A. Kperogi, 2020 Over a decade ago when Nigeria s migratory digital elite in the United States pioneered a newfangled form of citizen online journalism that disrupted the professional certainties of domestic legacy journalism the country s professional journalists held out hope that the disruptive effect of this insurgent non professionalized non routinized but nonetheless transformative form of journalism would be transitory But diasporic citizen online journalism is not only now an integral part of Nigeria s media ecosystem it has also inspired successful homeland digital native emulators and is challenging even supplanting in some cases traditional domestic media formations as sites of consequential democratic discourse With Nigeria s frenetic and deeply engaged social media scene diasporan citizen journalism homeland news and social media activism are merging to create the most energetic moment in Nigeria s media history This book chronicles the emergence and transformation of Nigeria s diasporic citizen journalism from the margins to the mainstream of the country s journalistic landscape and draws parallels with the mainstreaming of alternative media formations in other parts of the world Farooq A Kperogi is Associate Professor of Journalism and Emerging Media at Kennesaw State University Georgia USA He is a columnist for the Nigerian Tribune and blogs at <https://www.farooqkperogi.com>

Newspapers of the World Online: U.S. and International Perspectives Hartmut Walravens, 2009-03-13 Digitisation has been a hot topic in newspaper librarianship for some years now it came as a godsend for many bulky and space consuming collections The major part of this volume comprises the papers given at the international conference on newspaper digitisation held at the University of Utah Salt Lake City May 2006 and presents the state of the art including experiences from current British and North American projects This material is complemented by presentations from the World Library and Information Congress in Seoul August 2006 focusing on the East Asian Newspaper situation

A Dream of Nigeria Kevin Etta Jr.,2006-03-27 A Dream of Nigeria is a collection of published essays examining governance in Nigeria from 2002 to 2005 during Nigeria s current civil rule dispensation It is firstly a historical and political assessment of the nature and impact of governance during this period on the social economic and spiritual fortunes of the Nigerian peoples Secondly it is a whisper a prayer and a clarion call for the peoples of Nigeria in particular and Africa in general to reach for something higher than themselves a set of higher values forming the basis for good governance improved service delivery and civic responsibility at all levels and creating a more stable political foundation for proper democratization

Political Economy of Contemporary African Popular Culture Kealeboga Aiseng,Israel A. Fadipe,Phillip Mpofu,2024-04-01 Drawing on examples from across the continent this volume examines socially significant aspects of contemporary African popular culture including music cultures fandoms and community mass and digital media to demonstrate how neoliberal politics and market forces shape the cultural landscape and vice versa Contributors investigate the role that the media politicians and corporate interests play in shaping that landscape highlight the crucial role of the African people in the production and circulation of popular culture more broadly and furthermore demonstrate how popular culture can be used as a tool to resist oppressive regimes and challenge power structures in the African context Scholars of political communication cultural studies and African studies will find this book particularly useful

Online around the World Laura M. Steckman,Marilyn J. Andrews,2017-05-24 Covering more than 80 countries around the world this book provides a compelling contemporary snapshot of how people in other countries are using the Internet social media and mobile apps How do people in other countries use the social media platform Facebook differently than Americans do What topics are discussed on the largest online forum one in Indonesia with more than seven million registered users Why does Mongolia rate in the top ten countries worldwide for peak Internet speeds Readers of Online around the World A Geographic Encyclopedia of the Internet Social Media and Mobile Apps will discover the answers to these questions and learn about people s Internet and social media preferences on six continents outside of the online community of users within the United States The book begins with an overview of the Internet social media platforms and mobile apps that chronologically examines the development of technological innovations that have made the Internet what it is today The country specific entries that follow the overview provide demographic information and describe specific events influenced by online communications allowing readers to better appreciate the incredible power of online interactions across otherwise unconnected individuals and the realities and peculiarities of how people communicate in today s fast paced globalized and high technology environment This encyclopedia presents social media and the Internet in new light identifying how the use of language and the specific application of human culture impacts emerging technologies and communications dramatically affecting everything from politics to social activism education and censorship Glocal English Farooq A.

Kperogi,2015-06-22 Glocal English compares the usage patterns and stylistic conventions of the world s two dominant native varieties of English British and American English with Nigerian English which ranks as the English world s fastest growing non native variety courtesy of the unrelenting ubiquity of the Nigerian English language movie industry in Africa and the Black Atlantic Diaspora Using contemporary examples from the mass media and the author s rich experiential data the book isolates the peculiar structural grammatical and stylistic characteristics of Nigerian English and shows its similarities as well as its often humorous differences with British and American English Although Nigerian English forms the backdrop of the book it will benefit teachers of English as a second or foreign language across the world Similarly because it presents complex grammatical concepts in a lucid personal narrative style it is useful both to a general and a specialist audience including people who study anthropology and globalization The true life experiential encounters that the book uses to instantiate the differences and similarities between Nigerian English and native varieties of English will make it valuable as an empirical data mine for disciplines that investigate the movement and diffusion of linguistic codes across the bounds of nations and states in the age of globalization Nigerian Media Industries in the Era of Globalization Unwana Samuel

Akpan,2023-01-09 In Nigerian Media Industries in the Era of Globalization editor Unwana Samuel Akpan provides a timely collection of relevant key and well informed contributions on the Nigerian media industries in a changing media landscape This collection assembles both media professionals and professors of media practice and theory to address how the Nigerian media industry has changed in a globalized world The chapters apply scholarship research and industry experience to modern media narratives as well as a blend of Nigerian cultural concepts and idioms of communication The contributors provide a historicized account of the Nigerian indigenous media systems and Nigerian mainstream media industry examine media law in Nigeria and media ownership in Nigeria express concerns over fake news in relation to elections explore changes in journalism broadcasting health communication organizational communication AI in countering terrorism sports media and draw conclusions on how the media has changed in digital spaces This book is essential for media scholars and media professionals who are interested in the growth and survival of the Nigerian media in the era of globalization

Nigeria's Journalistic Militantism Frisky Larr,2011-04-21 Putting the Facts in Perspective on how the Press failed Nigeria setting the wrong agenda and excessively attacking ex President Olusegun Obasanjo in breach of professional ethics on absolute neutrality A brief historical guide to the build up of facts and culmination in the present political dilemma of political uncertainty A conclusive personal view on the possible way forward for the Nigerian Press The Asaba Massacre S.
