Historical Dictionary of Nigeria Toyin Falola, Ann Genova, Matthew M. Heaton, 2018-06-21 The Historical Dictionary of Nigeria Second Edition introduces Nigeria's rich and complex history. Readers will find a wealth of information on pre-20th century history, Nigeria under British colonial rule, and important post-independence issues while providing greater attention to Nigeria's role in international relations, diaspora, and contributions to arts, film, and culture in particular. This revised edition covers major developments since the last edition, such as the rise of the terrorist group Boko Haram and the election of Muhammadu Buhari to the presidency in 2015, among others. This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Nigeria Second Edition contains a chronology, an introduction, and an extensive bibliography. The dictionary section has over 1,000 cross-referenced entries on important personalities, politics, economy, foreign relations, religion, and culture. This book is an excellent resource for students, researchers, and anyone wanting to know more about Nigeria. Nigerian Media Industries in the Era of Globalization

Unwana Samuel Akpan, 2023-01-09 In Nigerian Media Industries in the Era of Globalization, editor Unwana Samuel Akpan provides a timely collection of relevant, key, and well-informed contributions on the Nigerian media industries in a changing media landscape. This collection assembles both media professionals and professors of media practice and theory to address how the Nigerian media industry has changed in a globalized world. The chapters apply scholarship, research, and industry experience to modern media narratives, as well as a blend of Nigerian cultural concepts and idioms of communication. The contributors provide a historicized account of the Nigerian indigenous media systems and Nigerian mainstream media industry, examine media law in Nigeria, and media ownership in Nigeria, express concerns over fake news in relation to elections, explore changes in journalism, broadcasting, health communication, organizational communication, AI in countering terrorism, sports media, and draw conclusions on how the media has changed in digital spaces. This book is essential for media scholars and media professionals who are interested in the growth and survival of the Nigerian media in the era of globalization.

Nigerian English David Jowitt, 2018-11-05 Although the past few decades have witnessed growing interest in varieties of English around the world, no study of the Nigerian variety intended for the international market has yet been published. Making use of well-known paradigms, the book will relate Nigerian English as a Second Language variety to other World Englishes. Its chief overall concern, however, is to provide a detailed descriptive account of the variety, seeking to show what is distinctive about it and also, in this perspective, distinguishing between more educated and less educated usage. After giving a sociolinguistic profile of Nigeria where English today enjoys a more prominent role than ever before, it will examine in turn the phonology, morpho-syntax, and lexico-semantics of Nigerian English with samples of written texts from the eighteenth century to the present. It will also give a comprehensive summary of academic research carried out in the field over the past fifty years. In this way, the book will provide an introduction to the subject for the benefit of scholars and students in universities in many countries and will serve as a useful companion to other books in De Gruyter.

Hassan, Mohd Nazri Latiff Azmi, 2021-03-03 The media attention towards Islam has increased recently but meeting the quality standards in reporting the religion is often of great concern in this regard This issue has been debated since the aftermath of violent incidents such as the 9 11 attacks in 2001 the Afghanistan War in 2002 the Iraq War in 2003 the Danish cartoon row in 2005 the London bombings in 2005 the Paris attacks in 2015 and the New Zealand shootings in 2017 In reporting violence the media tend to construct a negative image of Islam which is likely to reproduce unfounded hostility toward Islam and Muslims known as Islamophobia This book provides a systematic analysis of how non western online newspapers reproduce Islamophobia in news reporting African Language Media Abiodun Salawu, 2020-11-16 This edited volume considers why the African language press is unstable and what can be done to develop quality African language journalism into a sustainable business Providing an overview of the African language journalism landscape this book examines the challenges of operating sustainable African language media businesses The chapters explore the political economy and management of African language media and consider case studies of the successes and failures of African language newspapers as well as the challenges of developing quality journalism Covering print and digital newspapers and broadcast journalism this book will be of interest to scholars of media and journalism in Africa The Routledge Companion to Gender, Media and Violence Karen Boyle, Susan Berridge, 2023-08-25 With the heated discussion around MeToo journalistic reporting on domestic abuse and the popularity of true crime documentaries gendered media discourse around violence and harassment has never been more prominent The Routledge Companion to Gender Media and Violence is an outstanding reference source to the key topics problems and debates in this important subject and is the first collection on media and violence to take a gendered intersectional approach Comprising over 50 chapters by a team of interdisciplinary and international contributors the book is structured around the following parts News Representing reality Gender based violence online Feminist responses The media examples examined range from Australia to Zimbabwe and span print and online news documentary film and television podcasts pornography memoir comedy memes influencer videos and digital feminist protest Types of violence considered include domestic abuse honour based violence sexual violence and harassment female genital mutilation cutting child sexual abuse transphobic violence and the aftermath of conflict Good practice is considered in relation to both responsible news reporting and pedagogy The Routledge Companion to Gender Media and Violence is essential reading for students and researchers in Gender Studies Media Studies Sociology and Criminology Chapter 30 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial CC BY NC 4 0 license Interactivity and the Online Media Sphere in Nigeria Joseph Wilson, 2019-01-15 In today's age of extraordinary technological development the mass media industry must constantly innovate and adopt emerging concepts to keep up with the demand of online visibility and prominence Interactivity is a distinguishing feature of the current online environment and is a necessity in maintaining relevance in digital media sphere The growing impact of new media technologies and the resulting pressure on mass media organizations to incorporate more audience involvement have made interactivity a particularly sought after phenomenon throughout the industry. The prominence of online interactivity has resulted in anxiety throughout the mass media industry regarding the ways in which media organisations can engage with their audience and maintain a high level of traffic on their websites. Attaining these heights largely depends on the quality and nature of interactivity on a given site. This book provides insights into the interactivity basics of an ideal media website and highlights the nature of interactivity in the Nigerian online media sphere vis a vis the basics of interactivity.

Dialectical Perspectives on Media, Health, and Culture in Modern Africa Akwala, Alfred O., Ngetich, Joel K., Theuri, Agnes Wanjiku Muchura, 2020-10-30 Communication plays a critical role in enhancing social cultural and business relations. Research on media language and cultural studies is fundamental in a globalized world because it illuminates the experiences of various populations. There is a need to develop effective communication strategies that will be able to address both health and cultural issues globally. Dialectical Perspectives on Media Health and Culture in Modern Africa is a collection of innovative research on the impact of media and especially new media on health and culture. While highlighting topics including civic engagement, gender stereotypes and interpersonal communication, this book is ideally designed for university students, multinational organizations, diplomats, expatriates and academicians seeking current research on how media health and culture can be appropriated to overcome the challenges that plague the world today. The Psychology and Neuroscience of Impulsivity Yuliya Richard, Ahmed Moustafa, 2023-12-06 The Psychology and Neuroscience of Impulsivity is the first book to provide a comprehensive overview of impulsivity and related psychological and neural substrates. The book is divided into four sections: the first section will provide the readers with a general overview of impulsivity, neural and cognitive substrates of impulsive behaviors and the relationship between impulsivity and risk taking behaviors; the second section discusses the links between impulsivity and erroneous behaviors such as anger and aggressive behaviors and interpersonal violence; the third section reviews how impulsive behaviors are key features of several clinical disorders such as pathological gambling, drug abuse and antisocial personality disorder; the last section presents possible treatment options for impulsivity including a number of case studies. Reviews links between impulsivity to anger and aggressive behaviors. Research
