Nigerian English David Jowitt, 2018-11-05 Although the past few decades have witnessed growing interest in varieties of English around the world no study of the Nigerian variety intended for the international market has yet been published Making use of well known paradigms the book will relate Nigerian English as a Second Language variety to other World Englishes Its chief overall concern however is to provide a detailed descriptive account of the variety seeking to show what is distinctive about it and also in this perspective distinguishing between more educated and less educated usage After giving a sociolinguistic profile of Nigeria where English today enjoys a more prominent role than ever before it will examine in turn the phonology morpho syntax and lexico semantics of Nigerian English with samples of written texts from the eighteenth century to the present It will also give a comprehensive summary of academic research carried out in the field over the past fifty years In this way the book will provide an introduction to the subject for the benefit of scholars and students in universities in many countries and will serve as a useful companion to other books in De Gruyter Mouton's Dialects of English series

Interactivity and the Online Media Sphere in Nigeria Joseph Wilson, 2019-01-15 In today's age of extraordinary technological development the mass media industry must constantly innovate and adopt emerging concepts to keep up with the demand of online visibility and prominence Interactivity is a distinguishing feature of the current online environment and is a necessity in maintaining relevance in digital media sphere The growing impact of new media technologies and the resulting pressure on mass media organizations to incorporate more audience involvement have made interactivity a particularly sought after phenomenon throughout the industry. The prominence of online interactivity has resulted in anxiety throughout the mass media industry regarding the ways in which media organisations can engage with their audience and maintain a high level of traffic on their websites. Attaining these heights largely depends on the quality and nature of interactivity on a given site. This book provides insights into the interactivity basics of an ideal media website and highlights the nature of interactivity in the Nigerian online media sphere vis a vis the basics of interactivity.

The Victory of Muhammadu Buhari and the Nigerian Dream Michael Chima Ekenyerengoz, 2015-06-10. The Victory of Muhammadu Buhari and the Nigerian Dream: My Testimony on the 2015 Presidential Election is an important chronicle of the 2015 presidential election in Nigeria and the principal actors in the emergence of the first Nigerian presidential candidate to defeat an incumbent President in the political history of Nigeria.

A Dream of Nigeria Kevin Etta Jr., 2006. A Dream of Nigeria is a collection of published essays examining governance in Nigeria from 2002 to 2005 during Nigeria's current civil rule dispensation. It is firstly a historical and political assessment of the nature and impact of governance during this period on the social, economic and spiritual fortunes of the Nigerian peoples. Secondly, it is a whisper, a prayer and a clarion call for the peoples of Nigeria in particular and Africa in general to reach for something higher than themselves: a set of higher values forming the basis for good governance, improved service delivery and civic responsibility at all levels and creating a more stable political foundation for proper democratization.

Media and Technology in Emerging African Democracies Cosmas Uchenna Nwokeafor, Kehbama Langmia, 2010-09-02. Media and Technology in Emerging African Democracies is a standard text that will give students an opportunity to familiarize themselves with some of the best literature in media technology impact in emerging African democracies with relevant concentration on information and communication technology (ICT). This textbook is a collection of essays that may be used as primary reading for courses on mass media technology and information communication technology (ICT). It is also suitable as supplementary reading in media and politics, political science and courses that focus on political communication and business communication. The book serves as a reference guide to mass media scholars, development communication experts, government leaders and diplomats interested in media review, most importantly as it pertains to African democratic dispensations. The book includes contributions by scholars whose research interests in media and its relevant impact on African democratic system have stirred considerable academic discourse. The chapters span several social science disciplines, giving students, professionals and government agencies an opportunity to see challenges from an interdisciplinary perspective.

Nigeria's Digital Diaspora Farooq A. Kperogi, 2020. Over a decade ago, when Nigeria's migratory digital elite in the United States pioneered a newfangled form of citizen online journalism that disrupted the professional certainties of domestic legacy journalism, the country's professional journalists held out hope that the disruptive effect of this insurgent, non-professionalized non routinized but nonetheless transformative form of journalism would be transitory But diasporic citizen online journalism is not only now an integral part of Nigeria's media ecosystem it has also inspired successful homeland digital native emulators and is challenging even supplanting in some cases traditional domestic media formations as sites of consequential democratic discourse With Nigeria's frenetic and deeply engaged social media scene diasporan citizen journalism homeland news and social media activism are merging to create the most energetic moment in Nigeria's media history This book chronicles the emergence and transformation of Nigeria's diasporic citizen journalism from the margins to the mainstream of the country's journalistic landscape and draws parallels with the mainstreaming of alternative media formations in other parts of the world Farooq A Kperogi is Associate Professor of Journalism and Emerging Media at Kennesaw State University Georgia USA He is a columnist for the Nigerian Tribune and blogs at <https://www.farooqkperogi.com> Nigeria's Journalistic Militantism Frisky Larr, 2011-04-21 Putting the Facts in Perspective on how the Press failed Nigeria setting the wrong agenda and excessively attacking ex President Olusegun Obasanjo in breach of professional ethics on absolute neutrality A brief historical guide to the build up of facts and culmination in the present political dilemma of political uncertainty A conclusive personal view on the possible way forward for the Nigerian Press Political Economy of Contemporary African Popular Culture Kealeboga Aiseng, Israel A.
