Robertson, 2021-02-24 The 1969-70 season marked a turning point in the history of the National Hockey League. In the interim the 12 NHL clubs staged thrilling and memorable playoff races that were not decided until the final regular season games were played. The three traditional powerhouse teams from the Original Six era faltered while former underdog clubs began to vie for top honors. Along the way Boston's Bobby Orr made history by becoming the first defenseman to win the NHL scoring title. Three aging veterans in Detroit combined to form the most effective forward line in hockey and a rookie goalie Tony Esposito lifted the Chicago Black Hawks from the basement to a divisional championship.
