to an emerging Islamic identity as the new religion took shape sapping towns and villages of their strength Simultaneously a small elite group of merchants and communal leaders migrated westward Lieberman here explores their formative influence on the Jewish communities of the southern Mediterranean that flourished under Islamic conquest

Making Muslim Space in North America and Europe Barbara Daly Metcalf, 2023-04-28 Focusing on the private and public use of space this volume explores the religious life of the new Muslim communities in North America and Europe Unlike most studies of immigrant groups these essays concentrate on cultural practices and expressions of everyday life rather than on the political issues that dominate today's headlines The authors emphasize the cultural strength and creativity of communities that draw upon Islamic symbols and practices to define Muslim space against the background of a non-Muslim environment The range of perspectives is broad encompassing middle class professionals mosque congregations factory workers in France and the north of England itinerant African traders and prison inmates in New York The truism that Islam is a religion of the word takes on concrete meaning as these disparate communities find ways to elaborate word centered ritual and to have the visual and aural presence of sacred words in the spaces they inhabit The volume includes 46 black and white photographs that illustrate Muslim populations in Edmonton Philadelphia the Green Haven Correction Facility Manhattan Marseilles Berlin and London among other places The focus on space directs attention to the new kinds of boundaries and consciousness that exist not only for these Muslim populations but for people from all backgrounds in today's ever more integrated world This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1997 Focusing on the private and public use of space this volume explores the religious life of the new Muslim communities in North America and Europe Unlike most studies of immigrant groups these essays concentrate on cultural practices and expressions of Islamic Traditions and Muslim Youth in Norway Christine Jacobsen, 2010-12-17 A major question regarding Islam in Europe concerns the religiosity of Muslim youth a category currently epitomizing both the fears and hopes of multicultural Europe How are Islamic traditions engaged and reworked by young people born and educated in European societies and which modes of religiosity will they shape in the future Providing an in depth ethnographic account from Norway this book engages comparative research on Islam and young Muslims from across Europe focusing on Islamic revitalization Muslim identity politics changing configurations of religious authority and the formation of gendered religious subjectivities The author discusses anthropological and other social science theorizing in order to examine religious continuities and discontinuities in a context of international migration globalization and secular modernity Transnational Muslim Politics Peter G. Mandaville, 2003-08-27 This radical book argues that translocal forces are leading the emergence of a wider Muslim public sphere It will be invaluable for researchers in international relations Islamic studies cultural studies sociology religion and politics
