Padmanabhan, 2022-05-24 Conflicted Territories Representations of Ethnic and Political Disputes in World Literature is an attempt to contextualise the diversity and complexity of human territories around the globe through their manifestations in literature and popular culture The unrelenting presence of social variables such as indigeneity sovereignty and religion in territorial disputes obfuscates the possibility of conflict resolution due to their sensitive and complex traits This complexity is the kernel of this book in which each chapter explores the implications and dissensions of social variables in stifling global territorial crises Women, Subalterns, and Ecologies in South and Southeast Asian Women's Fiction Chitra Sankaran, 2021-11-01 In recent decades East Asia has gained prominence and has become synonymous with Asia while other Asian regions such as South and Southeast Asia have been subsumed under it The resultant overgeneralization has meant that significant aspects of the global ecological crisis as they affect these two regions have been overlooked Chitra Sankaran refocuses the global lens on these two rapidly developing regions of Asia Combining South Asian and Southeast Asian philosophical views and folk perspectives with mainstream ecocritical and ecofeminist theories she generates a localized critical idiom that qualifies and subverts some established theoretical assumptions This pioneering study introducing a corpus of more than thirty ecofictions by women writers from twelve countries in South and Southeast Asia examines how recent global threats to ecosystems in both nature and culture impact subdominant groups including women This new corpus reveals how women and subalterns engage with various aspects of critical ecologies Using ecofeminist theory augmented by postcolonial and risk theories as the main theoretical framework Sankaran argues that these women writers present unique perspectives that review Asian women's relationships to human and nonhuman worlds Diasporic Consciousness in the select novels of Chitra anarjee Divakaruni

Literatures, Communities, and Learning Aubrey Jean Hanson, 2020-06-23 Literatures Communities and Learning

Conversations with Indigenous Writers gathers nine conversations with Indigenous writers about the relationship between Indigenous literatures and learning and how their writing relates to communities. Relevant, reflexive and critical, these conversations explore the pressing topic of Indigenous writings and its importance to the well being of Indigenous Peoples and to Canadian education. It offers readers a chance to listen to authors' perspectives in their own words. This book presents conversations shared with nine Indigenous writers in what is now Canada: Tenille Campbell, Warren Cariou, Marilyn Dumont, Daniel Heath Justice, Lee Maracle, Sharron Proulx-Turner, David Alexander Robertson, Richard Van Camp and Katherine Vermette. Influenced by generations of colonization, surrounded by discourses of Indigenization, reconciliation, appropriation and representation, and swept up in the rapid growth of Indigenous publishing and Indigenous literary studies, these writers have thought a great deal about their work. Each conversation is a nuanced examination of one writer's concerns, critiques and craft. In their own ways, these writers are navigating the beautiful challenge of storying their communities within politically charged terrain. This book considers the pedagogical dimensions of stories serving as an Indigenous literary and education project.

Tracing the New Indian Diaspora Om Prakash Dwivedi, 2014-10-15. The growing importance of the Indian diaspora is felt today across the globe due to its emergence as the second largest diasporic community. By examining historical, socio-cultural, economic, political and literary aspects of the Indian diaspora, this volume sets out to trace the latest developments in the field of Indian diaspora studies. It brings together essays by Indian and foreign scholars, thus providing an authoritative platform for discussions in which identities and affiliations are contested and constituted through the hierarchies of cross-cultural migration in this increasingly globalized world. This volume traces the transnational network of the Indian diaspora and will prove of interest to scholars working in the fields of the Indian diaspora, diaspora theory and cultural studies. Countries covered include Mauritius, Fiji, Singapore, Trinidad, Tobago, Guyana, Suriname, the UK, Ireland, the USA, Canada, Malaya, South Africa and New Zealand. Creative writers discussed include Ramabai Espinet, Vikram Chandra, Rohinton Mistry, Chitra Banerjee Divakaruni, Nisha Ganatra, Jhumpa Lahiri, Kavery Nambisan and Sarita Mandanna, along with the work of filmmakers Mira Nair, Yash Chopra, Kabir Khan, Shuchi Kothari, Mandrika Rupa, Karan Johar, Sugu Pillay, Mallika Krishnamurthy and Nisha Ganatra. Wideranging and scholarly, Dwivedi's edited collection on routes and representations of the Indian diaspora is a vital contribution to the growing critical discourse on this subject.

Professor Janet Wilson, Northampton University, UK. Tracing the New Indian Diaspora is a significant contribution to the understanding of the positions and representations of the Indian diaspora, forcing us to re-examine our notions of location and dislocation of home and the world of belonging and alienation in short of the politics of the diaspora today.

Professor GJV Prasad, Jawaharlal Nehru University, India. Om Prakash Dwivedi is Assistant Professor in English at Taiz University, Yemen. His recent publications include The Other India: Narratives of Terror, Communalism and Violence (2012), Postcolonial Theory in the Global Age (co-ed with Martin Kich, 2013) and a collection of short stories The World to Come (2014).
