One With God Salvation As Deification And Justification Unitas:

One with God Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen, 2004 Taking note of recent developments in Luther studies and building on a historical tracing of the idea of salvation as union in Eastern Orthodox Catholic and some Free Church soteriologies One with God argues that deification and justification do not exclude each other and that the 1999 Joint Declaration between Catholics and Lutherans is a biblically historically and theologically sound basis for further talks about salvation Book jacket

Justification, Volume 1 Michael Horton, 2018-11-27 The first of a two volume project delving into the doctrine of justification Michael Horton seeks not simply to recover a clear message of its role in modern Reformed theology but also to bring a fresh discovery of the gospel in a time when contemporary debates around justification have reignited The doctrine of justification stands at the center of our systematic reflection on the meaning of salvation and grace as well as our piety mission and life together And yet within mainline Protestant and evangelical theology it is often taken for granted or left to gather dust in favor of modern concerns and self renewal Volume 1 is an exercise in historical theology exploring the doctrine of justification from the patristic era to the Reformation This book Provides a map for contemporary discussions of justification identifying and engaging principal sources Origen Chrysostom Augustine Thomas Aquinas John Duns Scotus William of Ockham Gabriel Biel and the magisterial reformers Studies the transformations of the doctrine through Aquinas Scotus and the nominalists leading up to the era of the Reformation and the Council of Trent Concludes by examining the hermeneutical and theological significance of the Reformers understanding of the law and the gospel and the resultant covenantal scheme that became formative in Reformed theology Engaging and thorough Justification will not only reenergize the reader whether Protestant or Catholic with a passion for understanding this essential and long running doctrinal conversation but also challenge anyone to engage critically with the history of the Church and the heart of the gospel

The Hermeneutics of Participation Greg McKinzie, 2025-07-15 Many theological interpreters of Scripture have claimed that church practices produce well formed readers But which practices Greg McKinzie argues that missional hermeneutics challenges the church to include participation in God's mission among the indispensable components of readerly formation After a quarter century of contemporary reflection on missional theology however the meaning of participation in God's mission remains vague In order to explain why it is a critical hermeneutical experience therefore McKinzie sets out to develop a theological account of missional participation that incorporates the concepts of the embodied narrativity and solidarity Then in conversation with the hermeneutical phenomenology of Paul Ricoeur the study suggests how theologically recontextualizing a model of the movement from embodied commitments to textual interpretation in terms of participation in God's mission illuminates the epistemic reconstitution of the church's theological interpretation of Scripture Understanding participation in God's mission as theological interpretation's proper locus theologicus should reorient the notion of readerly formation because the formation of missional readers is the process in which God opens the reading community's embodied eyes of faith through the works of faith seeking understanding Christification Jordan Cooper, 2014-07-18 The doctrine of theosis has enjoyed a recent resurgence among varied theological traditions across the realms of historical dogmatic and exegetical theology In Christification A Lutheran Approach to Theosis Jordan Cooper evaluates this teaching from a Lutheran perspective He examines the teachings of the church fathers the New Testament and the Lutheran Confessional tradition in conversation with recent scholarship on theosis Cooper proposes that the participationist soteriology of the early fathers expressed in terms of theosis is compatible with Luther's doctrine of forensic justification The historic Lutheran tradition Scripture and the patristic sources do not limit soteriological discussions to legal terminology but instead offer a multifaceted doctrine of salvation that encapsulates both participatory and forensic motifs This is compared and contrasted with the development of the doctrine of deification in the Eastern tradition arising from the thought of Pseudo Dionysius Cooper argues that the doctrine of the earliest fathers such as Irenaeus Athanasius and Justin is primarily a Christological and economic reality defined as Christification This model of theosis is placed in contradistinction to later Neoplatonic forms of deification Gregory of Nazianzus' Soteriological Pneumatology Oliver B.

Langworthy, 2019-12-16 Oliver B Langworthy examines the interaction of soteriology and pneumatology in Gregory of Nazianzus' thought He shows that this interaction Gregory's soteriological pneumatology is a coherent significant but under examined area of Gregory's thought His study engages in a chronological treatment of a wide range of Gregory's prose and poetic works This allows for the particular character of Gregory's soteriological pneumatology to emerge notably his emphasis on the experience of the Spirit The result is a more complete and nuanced picture of Gregory's theological investment in a divine and truly holy Spirit that is operative in the salvation of the believer The Letters of Paul Charles B. Puskas, Mark Reasoner, 2013-12-19 Since Charles Puskas first published The Letters of Paul it has proven to be a reliable text and reference tool It is an exemplary guide to the basic issues surrounding the Pauline letters who really wrote each letter when it was written the letter's social context audience and literary characteristics and also includes discussion of the worlds of Paul the letter genre and the rhetorical arrangement of each letter Working with noted Pauline scholar Mark Reasoner on this new second edition with more than 40 percent new and revised material the authors have taken account of a host of diverse cultural historical sociorhetorical literary and contextual studies of recent years and critically reexamined several issues of authorship date historical situation literary form and rhetorical structure They have addressed new and pressing issues filled certain lacunae and generally updated the book for a new generation of readers Approaching the World's Religions, Volume 2 Robert Boyd, 2017-06-20 Evangelical theology strives to be evangelical conservative and contemporary In a world in which everyone is Christian evangelical theology provides a balanced position between fundamentalism and liberalism While theological debates within the family will occur to be evangelical is a breath of fresh air for many However we do not live in such a world We do find ourselves living in a secular global society It is secular because no religious organization dictates how we live our lives It is global for at least two reasons First our technology brings us immediately in contact with those faraway places Second and of more importance we can simply step outside our front doors and encounter our neighborhoods that reflect a global pluralism This raises the question how shall we then live The intent of An Evangelical Theology of Religions is to suggest a direction for evangelicals to think about the secular global society in which they live in a way that is not only conservative but also evangelical and contemporary The final essay strives to address the evangelical aspect of our tradition that places an emphasis on the Great Commission and the law of love Waiting and Being Joshua B. Davis,2013-10-01 The problem of creation and grace has a long history of contention within Protestant and Catholic theology involving not only internecine conflict within the traditions but fueling as well ecumenical debates that have continued a dogmatic divide This volume traces out that conflict in modern Catholic and Protestant dogmatics and provides a historical genealogy that situates the origin of the problem within different emphases in the thought of St Augustine The Reformations of Medicine Ekaterina N. Lomperis,2025 The Reformations of Medicine explores the transformations of religious approaches to medicine in early modernity with a particular focus on Martin Luther s thought Lomperis examines implications of these early modern developments for contemporary intersections of spirituality and healthcare Toward a Better Worldliness Terra Schwerin Rowe,2017-04-01 Five hundred years ago the Protestant Reformation inspired profound theological ecclesial economic and social transformations But what impact does the Protestant tradition have today And what might it have This volume addresses such questions focusing on the economic and ecological implications of the Protestant doctrine of grace In the late twentieth century a number of Protestant scholars countered Max Weber s famous work on Protestantism and capitalism by arguing that Calvin and Luther were prophetic critics of early capitalist practices While acknowledging the importance of this scholarship Terra Rowe argues that a more nuanced approach is necessary This narrative tends to purify Protestantism of capitalist beginnings and does not account for compelling arguments articulated by proponents of Radical Orthodoxy tying Protestantism and Protestant grace in particular to capitalism These debates now emerge with increasing urgency in the face of growing economic injustice and overwhelming evidence of an ecologically unsustainable economic system demonstrated most potently by climate change In the spirit of ecotheologies resonating with the best of the Reformation tradition this book develops a fresh reading of Luther s theology of grace and his economic ethics in conversation with current reflections on concepts of the gift and gifting practices Practicing Baptism Bård Eirik Hallesby Norheim,2014-02-19 Where is Jesus Christ This fundamental question is the starting point of this book which investigates the shape of Christian life and ministry in a post Christendom context Over the last decades there has been a shift in much of Western theology towards focusing on Christian practices in ministry and theological education This may be seen as a way to deal with theological anxiety in an era of heightened personal autonomy In Practicing Baptism Bard Norheim critically analyzes the engagement in Christian practices As a response to this engagement Norheim develops a missional and diaconal theology for ministry focusing on the presence of Christ in Christian practices Fundamentally this is an attempt to answer a pressing question for today What do Christians do Norheim draws on Martin Luther s theology and his notion of the three modes of Christ s presence the present tense of baptism and Luther s idea of the marks of the church Based on this reading of Luther s theology Norheim suggests that Christian life and ministry could be interpreted through the concept practicing baptism Same God, Other god Alon Goshen-Gottstein,2017-08-30

Jews often consider Hinduism to be Avoda Zara idolatry due to its worship of images and multiple gods Closer study of Hinduism and of recent Jewish attitudes to it suggests the problem is far more complex In the process of considering Hinduism s status as Avoda Zara this book revisits the fundamental definitions of Avoda Zara and asks how we use the category By appealing to the history of Judaism s view of Christianity author Alon Goshen Gottstein seeks to define what Avoda Zara is and how one might recognize the same God in different religions despite legal definitions Through a series of leading questions the discussion moves from a blanket view of Hinduism as idolatry to a recognition that all religions have aspects that are idolatrous and non idolatrous Goshen Gottstein explains how the category of idolatry itself must be viewed with more nuance Introducing this nuance he asserts leads one away from a globalized view of an entire tradition in these terms Ecumenical Dialogue Angelo Maffei,2005 Surveys the historical and theological foundations of the ecumenical movement special attention is given to conciliar ecumenism and to the dialogues to which the Roman Catholic Church is partner Provided by publisher

Holy Trinity: Holy People Thomas A. Noble,2013-02-19 Teaching on the sanctification of Christians using the difficult word perfection has been part of Christian spirituality through the centuries The Fathers spoke of it and Augustine particularly contributed his penetrating analysis of human motivation in terms of love Medieval theologians such as Bernard and Thomas Aquinas developed the tradition and wrote of levels or degrees of perfection in love However the doctrine has not fared so well among Protestants John Wesley was the one major Protestant leader who tried to blend this ancient tradition of Christian perfection with the Reformation proclamation of justification by grace through faith This book seeks to develop Wesley s synthesis of patristic and Reformation theology in order to consider how Christian perfection can be expressed in a more nuanced way in today s culture Noble examines what basis may be found for Wesley s understanding of sanctification in the central doctrines of the church particularly the atonement the doctrine of Christ and the most comprehensive of all Christian doctrines the doctrine of the Holy Trinity What he sets out is a fully trinitarian theology of holiness God and the Gift Risto Saarinen,2005 The observation that contemporary theological and philosophical discussions about ecumenism center on the issues of reception and the gift but neglect the basic act of giving is the starting point of God and the Gift Risto Saarinen asks if we can approach these discussions from the perspective of giver In God and the Gift Saarinen demonstrates that we do have theological resources that enable us to outline a theology of giving He deals with basic philosophical and theological resources and outlines some specific modes of giving in particular forgiveness sacrifice and thanksgiving and living by example God and the Gift outlines a brief theology of giving by employing both classical theology and contemporary discussions It also points out the ecumenical relevance of the theology of giving For those who are more interested in particular theological and philosophical topics some new interpretations are offered for further discussion Among these are an interpretation of forgiveness as negative giving a discussion on the relationship between sacrifice and divine non violence and a new proposal to conceptualize various types of Christian imitation These aims are connected with the overall claim that instead of looking at reception and the gift itself we should focus on giving Saarinen illustrates this shift of perspective with observations and examples Though not discussed exhaustively they serve as preliminary signposts showing us the way to proceed Chapters are Introduction Giving and Receiving The Gift Contemporary Approaches New Testament and Martin Luther Forgiveness and Negative Giving Sacrifice and Thanksgiving Giving an Example Being Gifted and Ecumenical Sharing Risto Saarinen ThD PhD is professor of ecumenical theology at the University of Helsinki and a member of the Finnish Academy of Science and Letters He served as research professor at the Centre d Etudes Oecumeniques in Strasbourg from 1994 to 1999 Sobornost ,2006 Von der ausgrenzenden Barmherzigkeit Samuel Wilhelm Groß,Eberhard Werner,2021-06-16 The provocative title Of the exclusionary Mercy Intercultural Theology and Disability represents the lack of studies on disability and disabled people in the field of Intercultural Theology We will not find many works that consider this relevant topic Why is research on the subject of Intercultural Theology and disability of value to the Church For one thing the number of persons with physical or mental impairments is more than ten percent Second given the possibility of impairment by illness accident or becoming parents of a child with physical or mental impairment during lifetime the number of those affected by the phenomenon disability is much higher Third international humanitarian and social efforts to integrate persons with physical or mental impairments by inclusion and participation are increasingly replacing the Church s mission to the poor and marginalized Humanitarian and social approaches are outdoing Christian efforts if she is not increasingly pro actively engaged Lutherjahrbuch ,2005 Religion Index One ,1981 The Love Of Universal Reason Willeime,2025-08-14 From Plato and Aristotle with their uncaused cause to Immanuel Kant and his so called contradictions of pure Reason mainstream thinking has held that the principle of Reason is limited Following in the footsteps of Democritus Epicurus Spinoza Einstein this essay on the contrary elevates Reason or universal Causality to the rank of absolute foundation of reality and extends it without limits to the entire cosmos Based on the most recent scientific advances I reformulate the complete explanation for the existence of reality from the origin of the worlds to the most subtle faculties of the human mind Breaking through the metaphysical paradoxes deemed insoluble my thoughts then penetrate the secret cause of all things and revive a thousand year old philosophical current Integral rationalism has almost always frightened human beings At first glance the material world described by science condemns us to perish makes freedom impossible and ignores the meaning of all value Unable to meet the challenge of our

condition Plato rejected the philosophers of nature and since then the majority of so called philosophers have followed him taking refuge in various intellectualized forms of spiritualism On the other side others are content with the appearance of things and oscillate between skepticism relativism and fatalism Against these two impasses I set out in search of true wisdom the one that refuses both to flee from reality and to renounce the most precious impulses of my heart Obviously the origin of reality the meaning of life and the torment of death have still not found clear and coherent answers that would completely reconcile us with reality and at the same time convince us of their veracity to the point that they are embraced by all friends of truth Despite a few rare geniuses who once touched upon this ultimate philosophy sublime answers to the great problems of existence have still not been clearly announced Observing this void I set out to find them for myself After long efforts I have now reached a level of coherence that exceeds all my initial hopes I offer you here the chance to discover unsuspected heights
