Shopping 3.0 Cor Molenaar,2010 Retailers are in difficult times The recession global competition government regulation and the growth of the Internet mean that costs are rising but margins are increasingly squeezed Cor Molenaar s Shopping 3 0 offers an engaging convincing and well researched manifesto for the future of retailing a manifesto which encourages retailers to switch their approach from a strategy that is based around transactions to one that is based around customers Logic dictates that there is no one single strategy that will work for all retailers some of them may indeed benefit from investing in e retailing solutions and the Internet but for others success will lie in developing a service based on customer experience or one with some apparently bespoke elements a strategy to appeal to customers as individuals Shopping 3 0 examines all these changes It sketches the world of consumers those who make their purchases from the comfort of their armchair and those who enjoy shopping with friends Cor Molenaar explores the impact of changing consumer attitudes to shopping the role of new technology in future retailing and the changing face of both city centre and out of town shops and malls Shopping 3 0 offers a welcome helping hand for retailers both physical and web based shopkeepers something to help you make sense of the ongoing revolution in shopping and to plan or adjust your business strategy to enable you not just to survive but to thrive in a world that will look very different in a few years time

Ethno-Playography Anne Hart,2007-07-27 Here s how to write salable plays skits monologues or docu dramas from life experiences social issues or current events Write plays skits using the technique of ethno playography which incorporates traditions folklore and ethnography into dramatizing real events The sample play and monologues portray events as social issues One true life example for a skit is the scene in the sample play written from first person point of view about a 1964 five minute train interlude when a male passenger commands the protagonist not to cross between cars while the train is in motion The passenger stands between the cars next to his wife who says timorously Let her go dear after the wife notices the young protagonist wears a wedding ring The protagonist tells him she s pregnant returning from the john and needs to get back to her family Instead he squeezes her head in a vise like grip crushing her between his knee and the wall of the train He kicks at the base of her spine yelling stereotypical ethnic epithets while passengers ignore events After the sample play and three monologues for performance you will have learned how to write ethnographic dialogue and select appropriate scene settings Also included are e interviews with popular fiction writers

Independent School Libraries Dorcas Hand,2010-06-11 The first book published about independent school libraries since 1985 this work offers both the independent school library community and the broader school library community a wealth of insights into excellence in library practice Independent School Libraries Perspectives on Excellence offers readers insights into best practices in library services for school communities using examples drawn from independent schools of various sizes descriptions and locations across the United States Two overview essays introduce a statistical analysis of independent schools Each of the remaining essays provides perspective on a different aspect of library practice including staffing advocacy assessment technology collaboration programs beyond the curriculum intellectual freedom and privacy budgeting accreditation disaster planning and more Because independent school librarians work across divisions and without a mandate to adhere to state or national standards they have the freedom to explore and refine best practice in a school library setting Fortunately the ideas and methods they have developed many of which are on display here can be applied in any school library
