Expanded discussions of second generation risks and strengths and of same sex marriage intermarriage divorce and stepparenting Migrant Letters Marcelo J. Borges, Sonia Cancian, 2019-10-23 The migrant letter whether written by family members lovers friends or others is a document that continues to attract the attention of scholars and general readers alike What is it about migrant letters that fascinates us Is it nostalgia for a distant yet desired past Is it the consequence of the eclipse of letter writing in an age of digital communication technologies Or is it about the parallels between transnational experiences in previous mass migrations and in the current globalized world and the centrality of interpersonal relations mobility and communication then and now Influenced by methodologies from diverse disciplines the study of migrant letters has developed in myriad directions Scholars have examined migrant letters through such lenses as identity and self making family relations gender and emotions This volume contributes to this discussion by exploring the connection between the practice of letter writing and the emotional economic familial and gendered experiences of men and women separated by migration It combines theoretical and empirical discussions which illuminate a variety of historical experiences of migrants who built transnational lives as they moved across Europe Africa Latin America and the United States This volume was originally published as a special issue of The History of Family Burdens of Belonging Jessica Vasquez-Tokos, 2025-04-15 Burdens of Belonging is an exploration of how systemic racism and settler colonialism shapes the lives of differently racialized people in the U S today Red and Yellow, Black and Brown Joanne L. Rondilla, Rudy P. Guevarra, Paul Spickard, 2017-07-03 Red and Yellow Black and Brown gathers together life stories and analysis by twelve contributors who express and seek to understand the often very different dynamics that exist for mixed race people who are not part white The chapters focus on the social psychological and political situations of mixed race people who have links to two or more peoples of color Chinese and Mexican Asian and Black Native American and African American South Asian and Filipino Black and Latino a and so on Red and Yellow Black and Brown addresses questions surrounding the meanings and communication of racial identities in dual or multiple minority situations and the editors highlight the theoretical implications of this fresh approach to racial studies Latino Fathers Fatima Suarez, 2025-11-04 The contemporary meaning of Latino fatherhood What does fatherhood mean in the lives of Latino men In Latino Fathers Fatima Suarez shifts the attention from how father involvement affects Latine children to how Latino men experience fatherhood and what being a father means to them Suarez brings attention to the social forces shaping sustaining and undermining Latino men s parenting how their views and behaviors uphold challenge negotiate and transform culturally dominant ideas of fatherhood and the lessons they teach us about the reproduction of inequality in family life Suarez focuses on the many different facets of fatherhood including work life balance parenting challenges and empathy and resentment for their own fathers Drawing on in depth interviews with 60 Latino fathers in California Suarez highlights Latino fathers familial stories of joy sorrow humor pain uncertainty and hope Latino Fathers provides a compassionate intimate account of a group of fathers challenging the myths about them wrestling with the tensions they experience as they negotiate cultural ideas of good fathering and the structural realities that make it both possible and difficult to meet those expectations Race, Migration and Identity Martin Bulmer, John

Solomos, 2017-10-02 The chapters in this collection cover diverse aspects of the changing meanings and boundaries of race migration and identity in the contemporary United States The situation in the USA has been the subject of intense policy and political debate over the past decades and the papers in this volume provide an important insight from a wide range of analytical perspectives They provide an insight into the changing dynamics of race and migration in the contemporary environment combining conceptual analysis with original empirical research The concerns of this volume address global questions of relevance as well as those specific to the USA This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies

The Browning of the New South Jennifer A. Jones, 2019-05-13 Studies of immigration to the United States have traditionally focused on a few key states and urban centers but recent shifts in nonwhite settlement mean that these studies no longer paint the whole picture Many Latino newcomers are flocking to places like the Southeast where typically few such immigrants have settled resulting in rapidly redrawn communities In this historic moment Jennifer Jones brings forth an ethnographic look at changing racial identities in one Southern city Winston Salem North Carolina This city turns out to be a natural experiment in race relations having quickly shifted in the past few decades from a neatly black and white community to a triracial one Jones tells the story of contemporary Winston Salem through the eyes of its new Latino residents revealing untold narratives of inclusion exclusion and interracial alliances The Browning of the New South reveals how one community's racial realignments mirror and anticipate the future of national politics Routledge International

Handbook of Migration Studies Steven J. Gold, Stephanie J. Nawyn, 2013-05-02 The current era is marked by an unparalleled level of human migration the consequence of both recent and long term political economic cultural social demographic and technological developments Despite increased efforts to limit its size and consequences migration has wide ranging impacts upon social environmental economic political and cultural life in countries of origin and settlement Such transformations impact not only those who are migrating but those who are left behind as well as those who live in the areas where migrants settle The Handbook of Migration Studies offers a conceptual approach to the study of international migration exploring clearly the many modes of exit reception and incorporation which involve varied populations in disparate political economic social and cultural contexts How do these movements also facilitate the transmission of ideologies and identities political and cultural practices and economic resources Uniquely among texts in the subject area the Handbook also provides a section devoted to exploring methods for studying international migration Featuring forty seven essays written by leading international and multidisciplinary scholars the Routledge International Handbook of Migration Studies offers a contemporary integrated and comprehensive resource for students and scholars of sociology politics human geography law history urban planning journalism and health care Negotiating Feminisms Eilidh AB Hall, 2021-03-04

Negotiating Feminisms examines intergenerational feminism in Chicana family life. It analyses literary representations of the ways that Chicanas negotiate feminisms in the family across generations through the maintenance contestation and adaptation of traditional gender roles. Using an original theoretical lens of negotiation to read the works of Ana Castillo and Sandra Cisneros, this book unpacks intergenerational resistance to patriarchal oppression. This book shows how the works of Cisneros and Castillo articulate a politics of negotiation that critiques the gendered ideologies and roles of the family. In doing so, the book's discussion not only engages with literary representations but also connects these representations to the contextual experience of Chicana family life. This book calls for a rethinking of women characters beyond limited and limiting familial roles and uses the framework of feminist negotiation as a means to explore the empowering possibilities of intergenerational female relationships.

SAGE Readings for Introductory Sociology Kimberly McGann, 2021-03-25. This brief anthology for introductory sociology is a collection of 24 short readings that illustrate key concepts in sociology related to the everyday lives of students and spark good classroom discussions. The selections represent four theoretical traditions in sociology: functionalism, symbolic interaction, conflict theory, feminism, and show the range and diversity of sociology and the people who practice it. The book is designed for instructors who want to expose students to some original scholarship in their first sociology course but who do not want to adopt a comprehensive reader along with the core text they are using.

Investigating Social Problems A. Javier Treviño, 2021-01-09. For the Third Edition of Investigating Social Problems, editor A. Javier Treviño has gathered a panel of top experts to thoroughly examine all aspects of social problems, providing students with a contemporary and authoritative introduction to the field. Each chapter is written by a well-known specialist on the topic being covered. This unique contributed format ensures that the research and examples described are the most current and relevant available. In addition, the experts use both general theoretical approaches (structural functionalism, conflict theory, symbolic interactionism) as well as specialized theories chosen to bring additional insight and analysis to their assigned topics. The text is framed around three major themes: intersectionality, the interplay of race, ethnicity, class, and gender, the global scope of many problems, and how researchers take an evidence-based approach to studying problems. This title is accompanied by a complete teaching and learning package.

Contested Americans Cassandra Rodriguez, 2023-04. Contested Americans tells the story of how undocumented immigrants and Americans in mixed status families strive to belong in the country they call home while navigating harmful myths about them, immigration policies, and racism.

South Central Dreams Pierrette Hondagneu-Sotelo, Manuel Pastor, 2021-07-13. Winner of the 2022 Latino a Section Best Book Award given by the American Sociological Association, Honorable Mention for the Robert E. Park Award given by the Community and Urban Sociology Section of the American Sociological Association, Finalist for the 2021 C. Wright Mills Award given by the Society for the Study of Social Problems. Race, place, and identity in a changing urban America. Over the last five decades, South Los Angeles has undergone a remarkable demographic transition. In South Central Dreams, eminent scholars

Pierrette Hondagneu Sotelo and Manuel Pastor follow its transformation from a historically Black neighborhood into a predominantly Latino one providing a fresh inside look at the fascinating and constantly changing relationships between these two racial and ethnic groups in California Drawing on almost two hundred interviews and statistical data Hondagneu Sotelo and Pastor explore the experiences of first and second generation Latino residents their long time Black neighbors and local civic leaders seeking to build coalitions Acknowledging early tensions between Black and Brown communities they show how Latino immigrants settled into a new country and a new neighborhood finding various ways to co exist cooperate and most recently demonstrate Black Brown solidarity at a time when both racial and ethnic communities have come under threat Hondagneu Sotelo and Pastor show how Latino and Black residents have practiced and adapted innovative strategies of belonging in a historically Black context ultimately crafting a new route to place based identity and political representation South Central Dreams illuminates how racial and ethnic demographic shifts as well as the search for identity and belonging are dramatically shaping American cities and neighborhoods around the country

Latino Peoples in the New America José A. Cobas, Joe R. Feagin, Daniel J. Delgado, Maria Chávez, 2018-12-07 Latinos are the largest group among Americans of color At 59 million they constitute nearly a fifth of the US population Their number has alarmed many in government other mainstream institutions and the nativist right who fear the white majority US they have known is disappearing During the 2016 US election and after Donald Trump has played on these fears embracing xenophobic messages vilifying many Latin American immigrants as rapists drug smugglers or gang bangers Many share such nativist desires to build enhanced border walls and create immigration restrictions to keep Latinos of various backgrounds out Many whites racist framing has also cast native born Latinos their language and culture in an unfavorable light Trump and his followers attacks provide a peek at the complex phenomenon of the racialization of US Latinos This volume explores an array of racialization s manifestations including white mob violence profiling by law enforcement political disenfranchisement whitewashed reinterpretations of Latino history and culture and depictions of good Latinos as racially subservient But subservience has never marked the Latino community and this book includes pointed discussions of Latino resistance to racism Additionally the book s scope goes beyond the United States revealing how Latinos are racialized in yet other societies

Parents Without Papers Frank D. Bean, Susan K. Brown, James D. Bachmeier, Susan Brown, James Bachmeier, 2015-10-01 For several decades Mexican immigrants in the United States have outnumbered those from any other country Though the economy increasingly needs their labor many remain unauthorized In Parents Without Papers immigration scholars Frank D Bean Susan K Brown and James D Bachmeier document the extent to which the outsider status of these newcomers inflicts multiple hardships on their children and grandchildren Parents Without Papers provides both a general conceptualization of immigrant integration and an in depth examination of the Mexican American case The authors draw upon unique retrospective data to shed light on three generations of integration They show in particular that the membership exclusion experienced by unauthorized

Mexican immigrants that is their fear of deportation lack of civil rights and poor access to good jobs hinders the education of their children even those who are U S born Moreover they find that children are hampered not by the unauthorized entry of parents itself but rather by the long term inability of parents especially mothers to acquire green cards When unauthorized parents attain legal status the disadvantages of the second generation begin to disappear These second generation men and women achieve schooling on par with those whose parents come legally By the third generation socioeconomic levels for women equal or surpass those of native white women But men reach parity only through greater labor force participation and longer working hours results consistent with the idea that their integration is delayed by working class imperatives to support their families rather than attend college An innovative analysis of the transmission of advantage and disadvantage among Mexican Americans Parents Without Papers presents a powerful case for immigration policy reforms that provide not only realistic levels of legal less skilled migration but also attainable pathways to legalization Such measures combined with affordable access to college are more important than ever for the integration of vulnerable Mexican immigrants and their descendants

Beyond Expectations Onoso Imoagene, 2017-03-07 In Beyond Expectations Onoso Imoagene delves into the multifaceted identities of second generation Nigerian adults in the United States and Britain She argues that they conceive of an alternative notion of black identity that differs radically from African American and Black Caribbean notions of black in the United States and Britain Instead of considering themselves in terms of their country of destination alone second generation Nigerians define themselves in complicated ways that balance racial status a diasporic Nigerian ethnicity a pan African identity and identification with fellow immigrants Based on over 150 interviews Beyond Expectations seeks to understand how race ethnicity and class shape identity and how globalization transnationalism and national context inform sense of self

The Other Side of Assimilation Tomas Jimenez, 2017-07-18 The not so strange strangers in their midst Salsa and ketchup cultural exposure and adoption Spotlight on white fade to black Living with difference and similarity Living locally thinking nationally
