Chapter 1:

1. What do you think hurts Lennie the most in this chapter? How does this represent his personality?
2. Why do you think Lennie and George are such good friends but don't work well with each other?
3. What are some characteristics of Lennie that makes him childlike? 4. Through this chapter they talk about owning a farm. Steinbeck writes, "He repeated his words rhythmically as though he had said them many times before." (Steinbeck 13). What effect does this story have on Lennie and why does George tell it so often?
5. What probably happened at Weed that got them fired? Whose fault do you think it was primarily?
6. What is the connection between what happened with Lennie and the mouse and what happened at Weed?

2. On page 30, George tells Lennie not to get into a fight with Curley by being lured in, presumably wanting to keep the job. He then tells him that if Curley starts it, he should fight back. Why does George give this odd set of instructions?
3. What are George and Lennie's general impressions of the job they're working now? The staff?
4. What other options do George and Lennie have if they don't like a job? How might this impact the way workers were treated?
5. What is George's advice to Lennie about Curley? Why?
6. What parallels can be drawn between the death of the puppies and the death of the mice in the first chapter? How are innocent creatures treated in the world the book depicts?

Then there's 6 months, 3 months, 1 month, and oh now there's 2 weeks left and you haven't started studying. What happens next is a panic-induced mayhem of highlighting everything in the textbook without even questioning if it's actually helpful. But I'm here to help you change this. In The Only Study Guide You'll Ever Need, I'll cover a range of different topics, including how to get started and pick up that pen, learning techniques that actually work, the science of memory, the dos and don'ts of timetabling, and combatting fear of failure, perfectionism, exam stress, and so much more. As a fellow student now at university, I definitely don't have a PhD in Exam Etiquette, but this is the book younger me needed. All I wanted was one place that had a variety of tried and tested methods with reassurance from someone who had recently been through the education system. The Only Study

Using Discussion to Promote Reading Comprehension Donna E. Alvermann, Deborah R. Dillon, David G. O'Brien, 1987. Drawing from observations of discussion in 24 different classrooms, this book will provide preservice and inservice teachers at the middle and school levels with the motivation and knowledge to use discussion to foster student comprehension of content area text assignments. The first chapter examines the distinctions between discussion and recitation and redefines major issues related to content area discussion in light of recent research and school reform reports. The second chapter establishes a basis for the premise that discussion is important to the development of reading comprehension, illustrating those skills that enrich or refine students' understanding of text. The third chapter uses portions of transcripts from videotaped content class discussions to illustrate how classroom context influences discussion practices. Alternatives to teacher-dominated discussions are described, and guidelines are provided for establishing the rights and responsibilities of critical readers. The fourth chapter demonstrates how to plan for classroom discussion of assigned material, describing five aspects of the planning process. The fifth chapter presents discussion strategies that help students master the content, examine more than one side of the issue, and evaluate alternative solutions to a text-based problem, while the sixth chapter analyzes one content area teacher's implementation of a preplanned discussion. Finally, the seventh chapter describes two procedures for informally evaluating classroom discussion used to promote reading comprehension. References follow each chapter.

Family Driven Faith (Paperback Edition with Study Questions) Voddie Baucham Jr., 2011-04-04. More teens are turning away from the faith than ever before; it is estimated that 75 to 88 percent of Christian teens walk away from Christianity by the end of their freshman year of college. Something must be done. Family Driven Faith equips Christian parents with the tools they need to raise children biblically in a post-Christian, anti-family society. In his Word, he has given us timeless precepts and principles for multi-generational faithfulness. Baucham's celebrated guide for godly, healthy families is now available in paperback with study questions added. Parents will find this a critical resource for the spiritual nourishment and protection of the next generation.
