Poems Michael Hamburger, 1988 Michael Hamburger in Conversation with Peter Dale Michael Hamburger, Peter Dale, 1998 LITERATURE CRITICISM MEMOIRS LETTERS POETRY A Critical Introduction to Translation Studies

Jean Boase-Beier, 2011-04-07 Jean Boase Beier's Critical Introduction To Translation Studies demonstrates a keen understanding of theoretical and practical translation It looks to instances where translation might not be straightforward where stylistics play an important role Examples are discussed from works of literature advertisements journalism and others where effects on the reader are central to the text and are reflected in the style It begins by setting out some of the basic problems and issues that arise in the study of translation such as the difference between literary and non literary translation the role of language content and style the question of universals and specifics in language and the notion of context The book then goes on to focus more closely on style and how it enables us to characterise literary texts and literary translation The final part looks at the translation of poetry Throughout it is conscious of the relationship between theory and practice in translation This book offers a new approach to translation grounded in stylistics and it will be an invaluable resource for undergraduates and postgraduates approaching translation studies Chicorel Index to Short Stories in Anthologies and Collections

Joyce Crick, Martin Liebscher, Martin Swales, 2010 This volume explores Hamburger's poetry and creative prose his translations the person and his world His scholarly writing was one element in his work his jargon free criticism retaining an undiminished urgency freshness and vital literacy His poetry ranges itself against the tracks and mechanisms of monstrous order and seeks to mark out a territory where some kind of value can be disclosed both within and beyond the poetry As a translator Hamburger asks the reader to hear between the lines of English poetry the German text the text that stretches the length and changes the rhythm of the English sentence These essays take the reader to the heartland of Hamburger's life and work and look at two very different attempts to capture his world on film The volume is illustrated by stills from Frank Wierke's acclaimed documentary Ein englischer Dichter aus Deutschland 2007 Saturn's Moons Jo Catling, 2017-07-05 The German novelist poet and critic W G Sebald 1944-2001 has in recent years attracted a phenomenal international following for his evocative prose works such as Die Ausgewanderten The Emigrants Die Ringe des Saturn The Rings of Saturn and Austerlitz spellbinding elegiac narratives which through their deliberate blurring of genre boundaries and provocative use of photography explore questions of Heimat and exile memory and loss history and natural history art and nature Saturn's Moons a W G Sebald Handbook brings together in one volume a wealth of new critical and visual material on Sebald's life and works covering the many facets and phases of his literary and academic careers as teacher as scholar and critic as colleague and as collaborator on translation Lavishly illustrated the Handbook also contains a number of rediscovered short pieces by W G Sebald hitherto unpublished interviews a catalogue of his library and selected poems and tributes as well as extensive primary and secondary bibliographies details of audiovisual material and interviews and a chronology of life and works Drawing on a range of original sources from Sebald's Nachlass the most important part of which is now held in the Deutsches Literaturarchiv Marbach Saturn's Moons will be an invaluable sourcebook for future Sebald studies in English and German alike complementing and augmenting recent critical works on subjects such as history memory modernity reader response and the visual The contributors include Mark Anderson Anthea Bell Ulrich von Buelow Jo Catling Michael Hulse Florian Radvan Uwe Schuette Clive Scott Richard Sheppard Gordon Turner Stephen Watts and Luke Williams Jo Catling teaches in the School of Literature at the University of East Anglia and Richard Hibbitt in the Department of French at the University of Leeds

The Poetics of Reading Eitel Friedrich Timm, Kenneth Mendoza, 1993 Situates the act of critical reading in the context of poetic aesthetics This volume situates the act of critical reading in the context of poetic aesthetics Running alongside recent post structuralist theories the textuality of such matters as literary discourse history media philosophy and religion has emerged as a focal point of debate in the humanities The essays here examine how questions of the canon genres and transformation of texts challenge the present epistemological situation taking an interdisciplinary approach to textual readings their methodology is drawn from a range of literary figures and critics including Lessing Kafka Walter Benjamin and Derrida The study also addresses the controversial predicament of subjectivity as one of the key terms in current literary and historical scholarship

Reading Goethe at Midlife Paul Bishop, 2020-07-13 This book explores the history of the idea of the midlife crisis using the writings of C G Jung and Goethe to investigate its relevance for today Tracing how the ages of humankind became the stages of life in which the midlife crisis represents a pivotal moment Paul Bishop offers a detailed analysis of a paper by Jung on this subject He then shifts the focus to Goethe's interest in Orphic wisdom and one of Goethe's major later poems Primal Words Orphic Urworte Orphisch Using Jungian ideas to explore the psychological implications of this poem Bishop draws on Goethe's own commentary and other background material to uncover its vital message Reading Goethe at Midlife reveals the remarkable symmetry between the ideas and Jung and Goethe Jung's analysis of the stages of life and his advice to heed the call of the self are brought into the conjunction with Goethe's emphasis on the importance of hope showing an underlying continuity of thought and relevance from ancient wisdom via German classicism to analytical psychology At a time when many Jungians are turning to neuroscience to provide an external underpinning for Analytical Psychology this scholarly book is very welcome it returns to psychology's home territory placing Jung firmly in a long cultural tradition Impressively well read in many fields extending from literature and the history of ideas to psychoanalysis and Jungian studies Paul Bishop allows a text by Jung and a late poem by Goethe to mirror and enhance each other demonstrating Jung's intellectual proximity to the tradition of German classicism The wealth of amplifications that Bishop brings to the many themes treated allows us to experience a living reality a continuity of ideas across different times and cultures revealing the possible materiality of literature in unrealized history incomplete politics and nondetermining thinking
