WEEK The fascinating story of how we have gone out to eat from the ancient Romans in Pompeii to the luxurious Michelin starred restaurants of today Tracing its earliest incarnations in the city of Pompeii where Sitwell is stunned by the sophistication of the dining scene this is a romp through history as we meet the characters and discover the events that shape the way we eat today Sitwell restaurant critic for the Daily Telegraph and famous for his acerbic criticisms on the hit BBC show MasterChef tackles this enormous subject with his typical wit and precision He spies influences from an ancient traveller of the Muslim world revels in the unintended consequences for nascent fine dining of the French Revolution reveals in full hideous glory the post Second World War dining scene in the UK and fathoms the birth of sensitive gastronomy in the US counterculture of the 1960s This is a story of the ingenuity of the human race as individuals endeavour to do that most fundamental of things to feed people It is a story of art politics revolution desperate need and decadent pleasure Sitwell a familiar face in the UK and a figure known for the controversy he attracts provides anyone who loves to dine out or who loves history or who simply loves a good read with an accessible and humorous history The Restaurant is jam packed with extraordinary facts a book to read eagerly from start to finish or to spend glorious moments dipping in to It may be William Sitwell's History of Eating Out but it's also the definitive story of one of the cornerstones of our culture Recentring Tourism Geographies in the 'Asian Century' Harnng Luh Sin, Mary Mostafanezhad, Joseph M. Cheer, 2022-04-19 This book considers what the transition into the Asian Century means for some of the most urgent issues in the world today such as sustainable development human rights gender equality and environmental change The book critiques Anglo Western centrism in tourism theory and calls on tourism scholars to make radical shifts toward more inclusive epistemology and praxis From the British Century of the 1800s to the American Century of the 1900s to the contemporary Asian Century tourism geographies are deeply entangled in broader shifts in geopolitical power In the shadow of the COVID 19 pandemic the significance of shifts in tourism geographies and the themes addressed in this volume are more urgent than ever That the world faces increasing turmoil is abundantly clear Yet amidst the disruption to the everyday it is hope and compassion but also political economic restructuring that is needed to reset the tourism industry in more sustainable equitable and ethical directions In no uncertain terms the pandemic has forever changed the tourism industry as the world once knew it This book therefore sets out to collectively build on the momentum of the inclusive scholarship that Critical Tourism Studies Asia Pacific is renowned for while also asking readers to pause and reflect on the possibilities and challenges of tourism in a post pandemic Asian Century The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Tourism Geographies Handbook on Food Tourism Eerang Park, Sangkyun Kim, 2024-03-14 This Handbook on Food Tourism provides an overview of the past present and future of research traditions perspectives and concerns about the food tourism phenomenon Taking a multidisciplinary approach it contributes to the historical and anthropological understanding of the nexus between food society and tourism that underpins the divergent business and marketing efforts in tourism today
