Mother Camp Female Impersonators In America:

Mother Camp Esther Newton, 1979-05-15 For two years Esther Newton did field research in the world of drag queens homosexual men who make a living impersonating women Newton spent time in the noisy bars the chaotic dressing rooms and the cheap apartments and hotels that make up the lives of drag queens interviewing informants whose trust she had earned and compiling a lively first hand ethnographic account of the culture of female impersonators Mother Camp explores the distinctions that drag queens make among themselves as performers the various kinds of night clubs and acts they depend on for a living and the social organization of their work A major part of the book deals with the symbolic geography of male and female styles as enacted in the homosexual concept of drag sex role transformation and camp an important humor system cultivated by the drag queens themselves Newton's fascinating book shows how study of the extraordinary can brilliantly illuminate the ordinary that social sexual division of personality appearance and activity we usually take for granted Jonathan Katz author of Gay American History A trenchant statement of the social force and arbitrary nature of gender roles Martin S Weinberg Contemporary Sociology American Studies Jack Salzman, 1986-08-29 This is an annotated bibliography of 20th century books through 1983 and is a reworking of American Studies An Annotated Bibliography of Works on the Civilization of the United States published in 1982 Seeking to provide foreign nationals with a comprehensive and authoritative list of sources of information concerning America it focuses on books that have an important cultural framework and does not include those which are primarily theoretical or methodological It is organized in 11 sections anthropology and folklore art and architecture history literature music political science popular culture psychology religion science technology medicine and sociology Each section contains a preface introducing the reader to basic bibliographic resources in that discipline and paragraph length non evaluative annotations Includes author title and subject indexes ISBN 0 521 32555 2 set 150 00 Sontag and the Camp Aesthetic Bruce E. Drushel, Brian M. Peters, 2017-02-15 Sontag and the Camp Aesthetic Advancing New Perspectives marks 50 years of writing and cultural production on the phenomenon of camp since Susan Sontag's 1964 cornerstone essay Notes on Camp It provides cutting edge theory and understanding on ways to read and interpret camp through a collection of essays from historical theoretical and cultural perspectives It includes varied subject areas including camp icons stylistics periods and important and representative texts from television film and literature These essays create a scholarly conversation that understands camp as not only signifier or aesthetic but also a language mode and style that goes beyond its initial linguistic and semiotic guise The contributors representing a diverse group of established and rising scholars explore camp as a largely queer genre that includes varying modes of understanding of desire and of the self outside a hegemonic model of heteronormativity

Making Camp Helene A. Shugart, Catherine Egley Waggoner, 2008-04-15 The rhetorical power of camp in American popular culture Making Camp examines the rhetoric and conventions of camp in contemporary popular culture and the ways it both subverts and is co-opted by mainstream ideology and discourse especially as it pertains to issues of gender and sexuality. Camp has long been aligned with gay male culture and performance. Helene Shugart and Catherine Waggoner contend that camp in the popular media, whether visual, dramatic, or musical, is equally pervasive. While aesthetic and performative in nature, the authors argue that camp, female camp in particular, is also highly political and that conventions of femininity and female sexuality are negotiated if not always resisted in female camp performances. The authors draw on a wide range of references and figures representative of camp, both historical and contemporary, in presenting the evolution of female camp and its negotiation of gender, political, and identity issues. Antecedents such as Joan Crawford, Wonder Woman, Marilyn Monroe, and Pam Grier are discussed as archetypes for contemporary popular culture figures. Macy Gray, Gwen Stefani, and the characters of Xena from Xena Warrior Princess and Karen Walker from Will Grace are discussed. Shugart and Waggoner find that these and other female camp performances are liminal, occupying a space between conformity and resistance. The result is a study that demonstrates the prevalence of camp as a historical and evolving phenomenon in popular culture, its role as a site for the rupture of conventional notions of gender and sexuality, and how camp is configured in mainstream culture and in ways that resist its being reduced to merely a style.

Extravagant Camp Chris A. Eng, 2025-02-04

In Between Subjects Amelia Jones, 2020-11-09 This volume is a study of the connected ideas of queer and gender performance or performativity over the past several decades, providing an ambitious history and crucial examination of these concepts while questioning their very bases. Addressing cultural forms from 1960s/70s sociology, performance art, and drag queen balls to more recent queer voguing performances by Pasifika and Mōri people from New Zealand, and pop culture television shows such as RuPaul's Drag Race, the book traces how and why queer and performativity seem to belong together in so many discussions around identity, popular modes of gender display, and performance art. Drawing on art history and performance studies but also on feminist, queer, and sexuality studies and postcolonial, indigenous, and critical race theoretical frameworks, it seeks to denaturalize these assumptions by questioning the US centrism and white dominance of discourses around queer performance or performativity. The book's narrative is deliberately recursive, itself articulated in order performatively to demonstrate the specific valence and social context of each concept as it emerged but also the overlap and interrelation among the terms as they have come to co-constitute one another in popular culture and in performance and visual arts theory, history, and practice. Written from a hybrid art, historical, and performance studies point of view, this will be essential reading for all those interested in art, performance, and gender, as well as in queer and feminist theory.
