Motherline Every Womans Journey Female:

The Motherline Naomi Ruth Lowinsky, 2009 Originally published Los Angeles J P Tarcher 1992 under the title Stories from the motherline Essential Love Ginny Lowe Connors, 2000 In this inspiring collection of vibrant poems contemporary American poets speak out on a universal theme the unbreakable bond shared by parents and their children With kindness nostalgia forgiveness and love poets recall their parents Book jacket Negotiating Feminisms Eilidh AB Hall, 2021-03-04 Negotiating Feminisms examines intergenerational feminism in Chicanx family life It analyses literary representations of the ways that Chicanas negotiate feminisms in the family across generations through the maintenance contestation and adaptation of traditional gender roles Using an original theoretical lens of negotiation to read the works of Ana Castillo and Sandra Cisneros this book unpacks intergenerational resistance to patriarchal oppression This book shows how the works of Cisneros and Castillo articulate a politics of negotiation that critiques the gendered ideologies and roles of the family In doing so the book s discussion not only engages with literary representations but also connects these representations to the contextual experience of Chicanx family life This book calls for a rethinking of women characters beyond limited and limiting familial roles and uses the framework of feminist negotiation as a means to explore the empowering possibilities of intergenerational female relationships

In (M)other Words Andrea O'Reilly, 2024-04-30 Dr Andrea O'Reilly is internationally recognized as the founder of Motherhood Studies 2006 and its subfield Maternal Theory 2007 and creator of the concept of Matricentric Feminism a feminism for and about mothers 2016 and Matricritics a literary theory and practice for a reading of mother focused texts 2021 With this collection O'Reilly continues the conversation on the meaning and nature of motherhood initiated by Adrienne Rich in Of Woman Born close to fifty years ago In In M other Words O'Reilly shares 25 of her chapters and articles published between 2009 2024 to examine the oppressive and empowering dimensions of mothering and to explore motherhood as institution experience subjectivity and empowerment The collection considers the central themes and theories of motherhood studies including normative motherhood feminist mothering maternal regret matricentric pedagogy young mothers academic motherhood matricentric feminism matricritics motherhood and feminism the motherhood memoir the twenty first century motherhood movement mothers and daughters mothers and sons pandemic mothering and the motherline

What About Us? Maureen Freely, 2012-02-16 This work explores why feminism comes into conflict with women who have children and why women with children suffer when they try to put feminist ideas into practice

Mothers and Daughters Alice H. Deakins, Rebecca Bryant Lockridge, Helen M. Sterk, 2012-06-21 Family stories of the ties between mothers and daughters form the foundation of Mothers and Daughters Complicated Connections Across Cultures Nationally and internationally known feminist scholars frame analyze and explore mother daughter bonds in this collection of essays Cultures from around the world are mined for insights which reveal historical generational ethnic political religious and social class differences This book focuses on the tenacity of the connection between mothers and daughters impediments to a strong connection and practices of good communication Mothers and Daughters will interest those studying communication women s studies psychology sociology anthropology counseling and cultural studies

Matricentric Feminism Andrea O'Reilly,2016-10-01 The book argues that the category of mother is distinct from the category of woman and that many of the problems mothers face social economic political cultural psychological and so forth are specific to women s role and identity as mothers Indeed mothers are oppressed under patriarchy as women and as mothers Consequently mothers need a feminism of their own one that positions mothers concerns as the starting point for a theory and politic of empowerment O Reilly terms this new mode of feminism matricentric feminism and the book explores how it is represented and experienced in theory activism and practice The chapter on maternal theory examines the central theoretical concepts of maternal scholarship while the chapter on activism considers the twenty first century motherhood movement Feminist mothering is likewise examined as the specific practice of matricentric feminism and this chapter discusses various theories and strategies on and for maternal empowerment Matricentric feminism is also examined in relation to the larger field of academic feminism here O Reilly persuasively shows how matricentric feminism has been marginalized in academic feminism and considers the reasons for such exclusion and how such may be challenged and changed

Mothers, Mothering and Motherhood Across Cultural Differences - A Reader Andrea O'Reilly,2014-05-01 Mothers Mothering and Motherhood across Cultural Differences the first ever Reader on the subject matter examines the meaning and practice of mothering motherhood from a multitude of maternal perspectives The Reader includes 22 chapters on the following maternal identities Aboriginal Adoptive At Home Birth Black Disabled East Asian Feminist Immigrant Refugee Latina Chicana Poor Low Income Migrant Non Residential Older Queer Rural Single South Asian Stepmothers Working Young Mothers and Mothers of Adult Children Each chapter provides background and context examines the challenges and possibilities of mothering motherhood for each group of mothers and considers directions for future research The first anthology to provide a comprehensive examination of mothers mothering motherhood across diverse cultural locations and subject positions the book is essential reading for maternal scholars and activists and serves as an ideal course text for a wide range of courses in Motherhood Studies

Uncovering the Act of Maternal Infanticide from a Psychological, Political, and Jungian Perspective Brooke Laufer,2024-07-02 Using a wide range of disciplinary backgrounds Laufer examines the topic of maternal infanticide through the lens of Jungian theory and presents an integrated and forensic view of this issue as an aggregate of personal and political moments and as a feminine and feminist outcry urging human evolution The first part of the book will dissect the identity of the infanticidal mother and the Death Mother archetype with the author providing firsthand accounts of patients that she has worked with in her professional career The second part of the book focuses on interpreting that act of maternal infanticide and these chapters will look to the construct of patriarchal Motherhood as a way of explaining the drive and actions of an infanticidal mother The third and final section of the book takes the concept of evolution and transmutation a step further and addresses what is required in our modern state for the event of maternal infanticide This is an important new book for Jungian and analytic clinicians and scholars with an interest in maternal archetypes as well as psychologists and psychiatrists who specialize in perinatal mental health It would also be appropriate for forensic psychologists and legal analysts and academics and clinicians in the fields of women s health and studies

The Sister from Below Naomi Ruth Lowinsky,2009 Who is She this Sister from Below She s certainly not about the ordinary business of life work shopping making dinner She speaks from other realms If you ll allow She ll whisper in your ear lead your thoughts astray fill you with strange yearnings get you hot and bothered send you off on some wild goose chase of a daydream eat up hours of your time She s a siren a seductress a shapeshifter Why listen to such a troublemaker Because She is essential to the creative process She holds the keys to the doors of our imaginations and deeper life the evolution of Soul

Mother Outlaws Andrea O'Reilly,2004-05-13 Feminist scholars of motherhood distinguish between mothering and motherhood and argue that the latter is a patriarchal institution that is oppressive to women Few scholars however have considered how mothering as a female defined and centred experience may be a site of empowerment for women This collection is the first to do so Mother Outlaws examines how mothers imagine and implement theories and practices of mothering that are empowering to women Central to this inquiry is the recognition that mothers and children benefit when the mother lives her life and practices mothering from a position of agency authority authenticity and autonomy

The Monstrous Mother: Unexpected Evil in Myth, Literature, and Popular Culture Anna Chiara Corradino,Alessandro Grilli,2025-09-30 This edited volume delves into the unexpected intriguing depictions of monstrous mothers in different cultures literatures and the arts This wide ranging topic is explored through a variety of methodological approaches spanning disciplines from sociology to film studies and from comparative literature to cultural studies The scope of this collection is global highlighting the presence of maternal monstrosity not only in Western cultures but also in a number of other cultural contexts worldwide The book s international and interdisciplinary perspective makes it relevant to a broad and diverse readership focusing on literary criticism as well as cultural and gender studies

Janani - Mothers, Daughters, Motherhood Rinki Bhattacharya,2006

Archetypal Grief Fanny Brewster,2018-09-03 Archetypal Grief Slavery s Legacy of Intergenerational Child Loss is a powerful exploration of the intergenerational psychological effects of child loss as experienced by women held in slavery in the Americas and of its ongoing effects in contemporary society It presents the concept of archetypal grief in African American women cultural trauma so deeply wounding that it spans generations Calling on Jungian psychology as well as neuroscience and attachment theory Fanny Brewster explores the psychological lives of enslaved women using their own narratives and those of their descendants and discusses the stories of mothering slaves with reference to their physical and emotional experiences The broader context of slavery and the conditions leading to the development of archetypal grief are examined with topics including the visibility invisibility of the African female body the archetype of the mother stereotypes about black women and the significance of rites of passage The discussion is placed in the context of contemporary America and the economic educational spiritual and political legacy of slavery Archetypal Grief will be an important work for academics and students of Jungian and post Jungian studies archetypal and depth psychology archetypal studies feminine psychology women s studies the history of slavery African American history African diaspora studies and sociology It will also be of interest to analytical psychologists and Jungian psychotherapists in practice and in training

Mother of My Mother Hope Edelman,2009-10-07 In her acclaimed New York Times bestseller Motherless Daughters Hope Edelman explored the profound and lasting effects of mother loss as well as her own search for healing Now in her compelling new work Edelman explores another complex life changing relationship the intricate bond between generations Drawing from her own experience and the recollections of over seventy other granddaughters Edelman explores the three generation triangle from which women develop their female identities the grandmother mother daughter relationship With eloquent personal testimony she demonstrates the vital roles grandmothers have played in their granddaughters lives as a source of unconditional love family values and traditions and backup parent the ultimate safety net Here are grandmothers in all their glory The Benevolent Manipulator whose love for her family is matched only by her desire for control The Gentle Giant awesome respected who possesses a quiet behind the scenes power The Autocrat who rules her extended family like a despot The Kinkeeper the family hub who offers a sense of cohesion to the extended clan With insight and compassion Edelman probes this unique and emotionally charged relationship in a book that is a true celebration of an extraordinary bond and a must read for every woman

Emily Dickinson Steven Herrmann,2018-03-21 Among the 19th century poets Emily Dickinson is by far the most scientifically minded Science is the voice that summoned Dickinson at Mount Holyoke Female Seminary and gave her unique distinction as a poetess of botanical and entomological and astronomical classifications Like no other 19th century poet she forms an integration between science and spirituality She studied at Holyoke at the exact historical moment of the first Seneca Falls Women s Rights Convention in 1848 This therefore is a feminist book It speaks up for the Divine Feminine On the front cover purple white rosemary blossoms are exploding with color Emily Dickinson s garden was a place where butterflies bees and hummingbirds drank up the radiance of flowers Rosemary in particular was one of her favorite healing herbs C G Jung mentions the antitoxin of rosemary flowers as a synonym for the Self the total personality When Steven Herrmann refers to Emily Dickinson as a Medicine Woman he is speaking of an archetype of healing within all humans Her poems are enduring imprints of the Medicine Woman archetype It is by access to the Medicine Woman archetype that she s able to espouse a democracy of equality that the world needs right now She advises women to cherish Power and take heed from the Serpent We need a Medicine Woman to balance things out In a democratic sense she s a fierce and uncompromising spokeswoman for Liberty She is a dispenser of a new American myth for our times brings together Jungian analysts and psychoanalysts from across the United States the United Kingdom and France Carl Jung's concept of participation mystique is used as a starting point for an in depth exploration of shared realities in the analytic setting and beyond The clinical narrative and theoretical discussions move through such related areas as projective identification negative conjunction reverie intersubjectivity the interactive field phenomenology neuroscience the transference chimera shamanism shared reality of place borderland consciousness and mystical participation This unique collection of essays bridges theoretical orientations and includes some of the most original analytic writers of our time An essential read for psychoanalysts Jungian analysts psychotherapists and analytic candidates

A Jungian Life Thomas B. Kirsch, 2014-11-15 From conception until the present C G Jung his ideas and analytical psychology itself have been a central thread of Thomas B Kirsch's life His parents James and Hilde Kirsch were in analysis with C G Jung when he was born and he was imaged to be the product of a successful analysis At an early age Dr Kirsch was introduced to many of the first generation analysts who surrounded C G Jung and over time became acquainted with them Later in his roles with the IAAP he gained a broad knowledge of the developments in analytical psychology and through both his early family history and in his later professional life Dr Kirsch worked closely with many analysts who were integral in forming the foundations of analytical psychology

The Orphan Audrey Punnett, 2014-06-21 The Orphan A Journey to Wholeness addresses loneliness and the feeling of being alone in the world two distinct characteristics that mark the life of an orphan Regardless if we have grown up with or without parents we are all too likely to meet such experiences in ourselves and in our daily encounters with others With numerous case examples Dr Punnett describes how loneliness and the feeling of being alone tend to be repeated in later relationships and may eventually lead to states of anxiety and depression The main purpose of this book is not to just stay within the context of the literal orphan but also to explore its symbolic dimensions in order to provide meaning to the diverse experiences of feeling alone in the world In accepting the orphan within we begin to take responsibility for our own unique life journey a privileged journey in which one can at some point in time say with pride I am an orphan

Food, Faith and Gender in South Asia Nita Kumar, Usha Sanyal, 2020-02-20 How do women express individual agency when engaging in seemingly prescribed or approved practices such as religious fasting How are sectarian identities played out in the performance of food piety What do food practices tell us about how women negotiate changes in family relationships This collection offers a variety of distinct perspectives on these questions Organized thematically areas explored include the subordination of women the nature of resistance boundary making and the construction of identity and community Methodologically the essays use imaginative reconstructions of women's experiences particularly where the only accounts available are written by men The essays focus on Hindus and Muslims in South Asia Sri Lankan Buddhist women and South Asians in the diaspora in the US and UK Pioneering new research into food and gender roles in South Asia this will be of use to students of food studies sociology anthropology and cultural studies
