Sur la 4e de couv Evil Never Dies S M Hardy, 2020-09-17 The village of Slyford St James is no stranger to supernatural happenings as long time residents Jed and Emma know all too well When Jed receives a letter from an old friend he is intrigued Though he and Simon were like brothers during their army days they have lost touch over the years However the invitation to the Pomeroy family estate isn't quite the reunion he was hoping for Simon's eldest brother has been brutally murdered and he wants Jed to use his connection to the dead to help solve the crime When they arrive at the estate Jed is shocked by how fragile and fearful his friend has become As Jed calls upon the spirit world the results are dramatic and a gruesome warning reveals dark and dangerous family secrets that threaten the safety of them all

Darkness Calls Sue Short, 2019-09-14 This book examines the contrasting forms neo noir has taken on screen asking what prompts our continued interest in tales of criminality and moral uncertainty Neo noir plots are both familiar and diverse found in a host of media formats today and now span the globe Yet despite its apparent prevalence and increased academic attention many core questions remain unanswered What has propelled noir's appeal half a century on after its supposed decline What has led film makers and series creators to rework given tropes What debates continue to divide critics And why are we as viewers so drawn to stories that often show us at our worst Referencing a range of films and series citing critical work in the field while also challenging many of the assumptions made this book sets out to advance our understanding of a subject that has fascinated audiences and academics alike Theories relating to gender identity and neo noir's tricky generic status are discussed together with an evaluation of differing comic inflections and socio political concerns concluding that although neo noir is capable of being both progressive and reactionary it also mobilises potentially radical questions about who we are and what we might be capable of
