Olivier Messiaen's System Of Signs:

Olivier Messiaen's System of Signs Andrew Shenton, 2017-07-05 Andrew Shenton's groundbreaking cross disciplinary approach to Messiaen's music presents a systematic and detailed examination of the compositional techniques of one of the most significant musicians of the twentieth century as they relate to his desire to express profound truths about Catholicism. It is widely accepted that music can have mystical and transformative powers but because pure music has no programme Messiaen sought to refine his compositions to speak more clearly about the truths of the Catholic faith by developing a sophisticated semiotic system in which aspects of music become direct signs for words and concepts. Using interdisciplinary methodologies drawing on linguistics, cognition studies, theological studies and semiotics, Shenton traces the development of Messiaen's sign system using examples from many of Messiaen's works and concentrating in particular on the Motations sur le mystère de la Sainte Trinité for organ, a suite which contains the most sophisticated and developed use of a sign system and represents a profound exegesis of Messiaen's understanding of the Catholic triune God. By working on issues of interpretation, Shenton endeavours to bridge the traditional gap between scholars and performers and to help people listen to Messiaen's music with spirit and understanding.

God at Play Daniel Soars, 2025-07-01 The first comparative treatment of the topic of lila in Hindu and Christian traditions, this volume explores what it means to consider divine and human action under the categories of play, wit, drama, grace and compassion. God at Play presents a theological exploration of the multifaceted motif of lila across diverse Hindu and Christian landscapes and its wide ranging connections to divine and human creativity. Given its ubiquity in Hindu theologies and life forms, lila offers a rich comparative framework for exploring certain ways of understanding divine and human action as expressed in Hindu and Christian sacred texts, philosophical theology and ritual practices. Though lila is often interpreted simply as play, the essays in this volume reflect a far richer semantic and conceptual field ranging from spontaneity and gratuitousness through joy and humor to mercy and compassion By focusing on the different contexts in which l l is found in Hindu traditions and resisting any uniform translation of the term the contributors to this volume avoid the risk of using predominantly western or Christian categories to understand the Hindu other The volume thus explores how l l functions in a variety of distinctive philosophical theological and devotional ways across Hindu traditions and listens for echoes in Christian understandings of the gratuitousness of the created order in relation to God God at Play is a genuine experiment in deep learning across traditions Each chapter reflects on what is learned by taking l l as the category of comparison and invites the reader to think about what these conversations add confirm or change in relation to earlier twentieth century scholarship on play not least in terms of what difference it might make to understand human life as an imitation and a participation in the divine life of a playful deity

Messiaen the Theologian Andrew Shenton, 2017-07-05 For Olivier Messiaen music was a way of expressing his faith He considered it his good fortune to have been born a Catholic and declared that the illumination of the theological truths of the Catholic faith is the first aspect of my work the noblest and no doubt the most useful Messiaen is one of the most widely performed and recorded composers of the twentieth century and his popularity is increasing but the theological component of his music has so far largely been neglected or dealt with superficially and continues to provide a serious impediment to understanding and appreciating his music for some of his audience Messiaen the Theologian makes a significant contribution to Messiaen studies by providing cultural and historical context to Messiaen's theology An international array of Messiaen scholars cover a wide variety of topics including Messiaen's personal spirituality the context of Catholicism in France in the twentieth century and comparisons between Messiaen and other artists such as Dante and T S Eliot Interdisciplinary methodologies such as exegesis theological studies and analysis are used to contribute to the understanding of several major works including lairs sur l au del Sept Ha nd Saint Fran s d Assise By approaching Messiaen and his music from such important and original perspectives this book will be of interest not only to musicians and theologians but also to readers interested in the connection between spirituality and the arts

Four Last Songs Linda Hutcheon,Michael Hutcheon,2016-11-04 Later life is a fraught topic in our commercialized anti aging death denying culture Where does creativity fit in The canonical composers whose stories are told in this book Giuseppe Verdi 1813 1901 Richard Strauss 1864 1949 Olivier Messiaen 1908 1992 and Benjamin Britten 1913 1976 offer radically individual responses to that question In their late years each of these national icons wrote an opera around which coalesced major issues about their own creativity and aging ranging from declining health to the critical expectations that accompany success and long artistic careers They also had to deal with the social political and aesthetic changes of their time including World Wars and the rise of musical modernism By investigating their attitudes to their creativity in the face of aging together with their late compositions and the critical reception of them this book tells the stories of their different but creative ways of dealing with those changes Bringing their respective specialties of medicine and literary criticism to bear on the study the authors show how the late nineteenth century where these stories begin saw the discovery and definition of old age as a social economic and medical construct And thus were born in the twentieth century both geriatrics and gerontology as disciplines Despite recent medical advances and increased life expectancy the strikingly dichotomous cultural views of age and aging both positive and negative have not changed much at all What also has not changed are the reception of late life works as caught between decline and apotheosis and the fraught discourse of late style The stories in this book weave all these elements together highlighting both the shared vicissitudes of aging and the individual power of creativity as a way to meet them

Transfiguration Svein Aage Christoffersen,Martin Wangsgaard Jürgensen,Nils Holger Petersen,2010-04 Transfiguration is a peer reviewed journal offering discussions of the relationship between art forms and Christianity in the European tradition from the early Church until today There is an increasing interest in the more or less precisely defined religious contexts of the art forms There is thus a demand for a theological journal that is not limited to the traditional matters within the discipline The term theology is here used in a broader sense that includes the modes of expression and thought which have come into existence in a historical energy field between
