Radiocommunications and N Technologies for Biomedical Applications Empire Within Alexander Barder, 2015-03-24
This book explores the reverberating impacts between historical and contemporary imperial laboratories and their metropolises through three case studies concerning violence surveillance and political economy The invasions of Afghanistan in 2001 and Iraq in 2003 forced the United States to experiment and innovate in considerable ways Faced with growing insurgencies that called into question its entire mission the occupation authorities engaged in a series of tactical and technological innovations that changed the way it combated insurgents and managed local populations The book presents new material to develop the argument that imperial and colonial contexts function as a laboratory in which techniques of violence population control and economic principles are developed which are subsequently introduced into the domestic society of the imperial state The text challenges the widely taken for granted notion that the diffusion of norms and techniques is a one way street from the imperial metropole to the dependent or weak periphery This work will be of great interest to scholars of international relations critical security studies and international relations theory Backpacker, 2001-03 Backpacker brings the outdoors straight to the reader s doorstep inspiring and enabling them to go more places and enjoy nature more often The authority on active adventure Backpacker is the world s first GPS enabled magazine and the only magazine whose editors personally test the hiking trails camping gear and survival tips they publish Backpacker s Editors Choice Awards an industry honor recognizing design feature and product innovation has become the gold standard against which all other outdoor industry awards are measured Medical Device Register, 2007 Contains a list of all manufacturers and other specified processors of medical devices registered with the Food and Drug Administration and permitted to do business in the U S with addresses and telephone numbers Organized by FDA medical device name in alphabetical order Keyword index to FDA established standard names of medical devices Echoes of Our Origins Shirley C. Strum, 2025-09-09 The amazing chronicle of a primate scientist s fifty year journey studying baboons and what her findings can tell us about primates resilience and human coexistence In 1972 renowned anthropologist Shirley C Strum traveled to Kenya to study the origins of human aggression through observing baboons What Dr Strum discovered completely defied her expectations scientific notions about baboons and even well established assumptions about primate behavior writ large In Echoes of Our Origins Strum takes readers on an extraordinary fifty year journey alongside baboons creatures that transformed not just her scientific understanding but also her perspective on life people nature and evolution Strum s groundbreaking research began when she embarked on fieldwork in Kenya Observing the lives of these social creatures Strum uncovered their unexpectedly complex strategies of negotiation collaboration and resilience in the face of adversity From exploring the evolution of social bonds and trust in baboon society a common idea today but not then to confronting the consequences of human wildlife conflict Strum illustrates what it means to coexist with the natural world and question our role within it With insights drawn from half a century of living among and studying baboons Strum reflects on the delicate balance of nature and humanity how science itself must evolve to see beyond its rigid frameworks and how to think about evolution This profound narrative challenges readers to look anew at not only baboons but also the very methods by which we understand the animal kingdom and ourselves Equal parts natural history adventure story memoir and call to action Echoes of Our Origins will engage enlighten and contribute to the vital conversation about our natural world and how to ensure its survival

Salmon Wars Catherine Collins,Douglas Frantz,2022-07-12 A Pulitzer Prize winning correspondent and a former private investigator dive deep into the murky waters of the international salmon farming industry exposing the unappetizing truth about a fish that is not as good for you as you have been told A decade ago farmed Atlantic salmon replaced tuna as the most popular fish on North America s dinner tables We are told salmon is healthy and environmentally friendly The reality is disturbingly different In Salmon Wars investigative journalists Douglas Frantz and Catherine Collins bring readers to massive ocean feedlots where millions of salmon are crammed into parasite plagued cages and fed a chemical laced diet The authors reveal the conditions inside hatcheries where young salmon are treated like garbage and at the farms that threaten our fragile coasts They draw colorful portraits of characters such as the big salmon farmer who poisoned his own backyard the fly fishing activist who risked everything to ban salmon farms in Puget Sound and the American researcher driven out of Norway for raising the alarm about dangerous contaminants in the fish Frantz and Collins document how the industrialization of Atlantic salmon threatens this keystone species endangers our health and environment and lines the pockets of our generation s version of Big Tobacco And they show how it doesn t need to be this way Just as Eric Schlosser s Fast Food Nation forced a reckoning with the Big Mac the vivid stories scientific research and high stakes finance at the heart of Salmon Wars will inspire readers to make choices that protect our health and our planet
