Alex Voorhoeve

On Desire Why We Want What We Want:

On Desire William Braxton Irvine, 2006 Irvine looks at what modern science can tell about desire what happens in the brain when one desires something and how animals evolved particular desires He suggests that people who can convince themselves to want what they already have dramatically enhance their happiness On Desire William B. Irvine, 2005-11-01 In On Desire William B Irvine takes us on a wide ranging tour of our impulses wants and needs showing us where these feelings come from and how we can try to rein them in Spicing his account with engaging observations by writers like Seneca Tolstoy and Freud Irvine considers the teachings of Buddhists Hindus the Amish Shakers and Catholic saints as well as those of ancient Greek and Roman and modern European philosophers Irvine also looks at what modern science can tell us about desire such as what happens in the brain when we desire something and how animals evolved particular desires and he advances a new theory about how desire itself evolved Performing a Christian Life Thomas D. Kennedy, 2019-11-13 We want to live good lives but determining what a good life is isn't easy especially if we want the lives we lead to be ours rather than somebody else's Tom Kennedy helps us see why it is hard to find our way when it comes to living well and what we can do about that Finding our way requires knowing who we are understanding ourselves and Christians because of their experience with God will understand themselves differently than others in at least some ways Kennedy explores that understanding and discovers that Christian encounters with God lead to beliefs about God human nature forgiveness values and loving well that have important implications for what we do and feel for how we should live In clear and familiar language and with probing questions he helps us think more carefully and deeply about our identities and what it should look like for us to live well Exploring Practical Philosophy: From Action to Values Dan Egonsson, Jonas Josefsson, Björn Petersson, Toni Rønnow-Rasmussen, 2018-10-24 This title was first published in 28 11 2001 The broad label practical philosophy brings together such topics as ethics and metaethics as well as philosophy of law society art and religion In practical philosophy theory of value and action is basic and woven into our understanding of all practical and ethical reasoning New essays from leading international philosophers illustrate that substantial results in the subdisciplines of practical philosophy require insights into its core issues the nature of actions persons values and reasons This anthology is published in honour of Ingmar Persson on his fiftieth birthday SPIRITUAL LIVING Dr Marko Kimi Milic, 2016-08-11 Book is written from view of author on spiritual way of life self knowledge our higher being Proposal and ways we could go in our life's listening to ourselves Annoying the Victorians James Kincaid, 2013-10-23 What happens when bad criticism happens to good people Annoying the Victorians sets the tradition of critical discourse and literary criticism on its ear as well as a few other areas James Kincaid brings his witty erudite and thoroughly cynical self to the Victorians and they will never read or be read quite the same Tears of America Fella, 2019-06-24 This story is set in modern time South Carolina and along the east coast of America It is inspired by true events that are both bone chilling and promising The scenes in the story are also enhanced by the author's imagination. A young man named Jillian is set on chasing a high by any means necessary and starts a journey on becoming a martyr to some and a symbol of hate and racism to the rest of America. At the same time in Charleston, South Carolina, an innocent child's life has been turned upside down by the loss of his mother, leaving him in the care of his drug-addicted aunt who is at odds with the only person who would truly care for him, his mother's best friend. Losing her mother to a drug overdose, a young child symbolic to love is overshadowed by her hateful father who contradicts everything she holds dear, her mother's words. As the severe changes in their life lead them in opposite directions from the way they were raised and as they fight their circumstances to remain steadfast, hate, racism, police brutality, inequality, drug abuse, child neglect, and many other evils affect their lives in drastic ways and leave many others at a crossroad in their own lives. When one outrageous act rips through the country and with the peaking happenings in America, will the people unite and overcome these tragic times, or will it be the beginning of the next civil war?

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Socrates Russell E. Jones, Ravi Sharma, Nicholas D. Smith, 2023-11-02. This handbook provides detailed philosophical analysis of the life and thought of Socrates across fifteen in-depth chapters. Each chapter engages with a central aspect of the rich tradition of Socratic studies and, after surveying the state of scholarship, points the way forward to new directions of interpretation. A leading team of scholars present dynamic readings of Socrates extracted from the historical context of Plato's dialogues, covering elenchus, irony, ignorance, definitions, pedagogy, friendship, politics, and the daemon. Building on these core Socratic topics, this edition includes new accounts of Socrates in the work of philosopher and historian Xenophon, the comic playwright Aristophanes, as well as important scholarship on topics such as emotions, the afterlife, motivational intellectualism, and virtue. Fully revised and updated, The Bloomsbury Handbook of Socrates elucidates the complex landscape of Socratic thought and interpretation.

The Ideology of Competition in School Music Sean Robert Powell, 2023. The Ideology of Competition in School Music explores competition as a structuring force in school music and provides critiques of that system from multiple philosophical and theoretical perspectives. Competition is seen by many music teachers, students, and supporters as natural and inevitable, a taken-for-granted aspect of music education or an irresistible force rather than a choice. This book uncovers this ideological nature of competition and examines its effect on student learning, teacher agency, and equity within music education. It considers ways in which music educators might reconsider the role of competition in their teaching practice and offers alternative frameworks for organizing school music. In this book, author Sean Robert Powell views competition as a microcosm of the wider neoliberal capitalist society in which subjects are interpellated in an antagonistic competitive field as market logic dictates a system of accountability, reduction, and audit culture. Music teachers, students, and education administrators consciously and unconsciously reinforce, replicate, and sustain the competitive structure even if they do so while expressing a cynical disavowal. Powell considers competition broadly, including, for example, formal competitions between schools in which ensembles are given numerical scores and ranked.

festivals in which groups are given ratings based on pre given criteria state regional and national honor ensembles hierarchical arrangements within school music programs or simply the pursuit of social prestige reputation and ever higher performance standards Although the book provides examples from the competitive landscape of school music in the United States and especially Texas considered a hyper example of competitive culture Powell s analyses and discussions are relevant to readers in any context around the world Although the degree to which competitive achievement as an explicitly stated aim of instruction varies from program to program and location to location the realism of neoliberal capitalism and its effect on all aspects of education is a global phenomenon Tell Me What You Want Charlotte Fox Weber,2023-04-11 This inspiring and moving exploration of the twelve fundamental psychological needs we all share goes behind the closed doors of therapy to guide us in navigating our deepest longings Conversations on Ethics Alex Voorhoeve,2011-04-07 Can we trust our intuitive judgments of right and wrong Are moral judgements objective What reason do we have to do what is right and avoid doing what is wrong In Conversations on Ethics Alex Voorhoeve elicits answers to these questions from eleven outstanding philosophers and social scientists Ken Binmore Philippa Foot Harry Frankfurt Allan Gibbard Daniel Kahneman Frances Kamm Alasdair MacIntyre T M Scanlon Peter Singer David Velleman Bernard Williams The exchanges are direct open and sharp and give a clear account of these thinkers core ideas about ethics They also provide unique insights into their intellectual development how they became interested in ethics and how they conceived the ideas for which they became famous Conversations on Ethics will engage anyone interested in moral philosophy Proceedings of the Board of Contract and Apportionment of the City of Albany, from ... Albany (N.Y.).
