Post-war British Drama: Looking Back in Gender Michelene Wandor,2003-12-16 In this extensively revised and updated edition of her classic work Look Back in Gender Michelene Wandor confirms the symbiotic relationship between drama and gender in a provocative look at key representative British plays from the last fifty years Repositioning the text at the heart of theatre studies Wandor surveys plays by Ayckbourn Beckett Churchill Daniels Friel Hare Kane Osborne Pinter Ravenhill Wertebaker Wesker and others Her nuanced argument central to any analysis of contemporary drama discusses the imperative of gender in the playwright's imagination the function of gender as a major determinant of the text's structural and narrative drives the impact of socialism and feminism on post war British drama and the relevance of feminist dynamics in drama differences in the representation of the family sexuality and the mother before and after 1968 the impact of the slogan that the personal is political on contemporary form and content Highways and Agricultural Engineering, Current Literature ,1944

Someone Else's Face in the Mirror Carla Bluhm,Nathan Clendenin,2009-04-30 In 2005 surgeons in France removed part of the face from a cadaver and grafted it onto the head of a 38 year old woman grossly disfigured by a dog attack Three years later in December 2008 surgeons at the Cleveland Clinic announced they had performed the first U S face transplant Although modern culture is accustomed to pushing medicine and the human body beyond all limits the world's first partial face transplant and the seven that have followed have caused a stir that still reverberates globally This book begins with the story of Isabelle Dinoire the recipient of the first face transplant and chronicles her surgery and battles with tissue rejection Its scope widens with a look at how surgical teams including three U S transplant teams are in a global race to perform the first full face transplant and at how medical history has led up to this point with prior successful transplants ranging from body parts as simple as cornea to those as neurologically complicated as the heart a hand and a penis The most novel among these surgeries the face transplant conjures up particular and expansive psychological issues Authors Bluhm and Clendenin show how transplant recipients struggle with functional issues including a lifetime of anti rejection drugs a danger highlighted by the recent death of the second face transplant patient in China But just as challenging in the case of face transplant is the psychological effect on and potential threat to identity Who are you if suddenly your face or a significant portion of it is not what you were born with What is it like to look in the mirror and see a face that is not the one you have always had Dinoire lamented It will never be me That statement is an absolute simplification of the identity issues a face transplant can create explain the authors Bluhm and Clendenin show how across history and media humankind via medicine literature film and other media has dreamed of a day when face transplants would be possible With so many disfigurements occurring among the military in Iraq and experimental face transplants too expensive for implementation in the private sector it is likely that the U S military will take the reins and further face transplant techniques as quickly as possible to serve injured personnel Heroic Triumphs Pasquale De Marco, 2025-04-08 In the tapestry of human history war has left an indelible mark shaping the destinies of nations and the lives of countless individuals From ancient battlefields to modern theaters of conflict stories of heroism resilience and sacrifice resonate across time reminding us of the indomitable spirit that resides within us all This book delves into the annals of warfare exploring the triumphs and tribulations that have forged the character of humanity Through the firsthand accounts of those who have witnessed the horrors of war and the extraordinary courage of those who have fought for freedom we gain a deeper understanding of the complexities of conflict and the enduring legacy it leaves behind By examining the turning points in history the strategies employed by military leaders and the technological advancements that have transformed the nature of warfare we come to appreciate the profound impact that conflict has had on our world From ancient battles that shaped civilizations to modern struggles that continue to test our resolve we are reminded that war is a crucible that reveals both the best and worst of human nature Yet amidst the darkness of war we also find stories of hope resilience and the enduring power of the human spirit The courage of those who stand up against oppression the compassion of those who aid the suffering and the determination of those who rebuild shattered lives serve as a testament to the resilience of the human spirit As we reflect on the past we must also look to the future recognizing the ongoing need for peace and reconciliation By learning from the mistakes of the past we can strive to create a world where conflicts are resolved peacefully where justice prevails and where the dignity of every human being is respected Through the exploration of warfare s complexities and the indomitable spirit of humanity this book seeks to honor the sacrifices of those who have fought for freedom inspire hope in a world yearning for peace and illuminate the path towards a future where conflict is a relic of the past If you like this book write a review Public Roads , 1956

Driving Europe Frank Schipper, 2008 Today we can hardly imagine life in Europe without roads and the automobiles that move people and goods around In fact the vast majority of movement in Europe takes place on the road Travelers use the car to explore parts of the continent on their holidays and goods travel large distances to reach consumers Indeed the twentieth century has deservedly been characterized as the century of the car The situation looked very different around 1900 People crossing national borders by car encountered multiple hurdles on their way Technically they imported their vehicle into a neighboring country and had to pay astronomic import duties Often they needed to pass a driving test in each country they visited Early on automobile and touring clubs sought to make life easier for traveling motorists International negotiations tackled the problems arising from differing regulations The resulting volume describes everything from the standardized traffic signs that saved human lives on the road to the Europe bus taking tourists from Stockholm to Rome in the 1950s Driving Europe offers a highly original portrait of a Europe built on roads in the course of the twentieth century Love and War Kristin Rodgers, 2018-11-26 Edie Stephens believes she s happy with her own fabulous apartment a good job friends and family who love her and a dedicated boyfriend But hidden beneath the facade of a perfect life is a smothered past filled with lost love regret and shameful secrets she ran away from but can never truly escape Edie's carefully ordered world is thrown into upheaval when she unexpectedly runs into the unvanquished ghost from her past After years of burying all the things she has yet to deal with she had no choice but to face an unrequited love that left her life too abruptly Pain she tried to put away and forget flares into open agony If she ever wants to heal she needs to revisit the girl she once was the tender hearted innocent just coming of age who'd fallen in love in a tough situation without justice Forced to reconcile the unanswered questions from long ago Edie wrestles with the timeless dilemma If love is worth fighting for is it also worth unrelenting heartache when a happily ever after may only be a fairy tale

The Pacific War Uncensored Harold Guard, John Tring, 2011-10-20 A WWII reporter's dangerous adventures in Singapore Malaya Java and more Harold Guard became a war correspondent by chance after he'd been invalided out of the navy following a submarine accident Thereafter working for United Press he gained a front row seat to many of the most dramatic battles and events of the century In March 1942 Guard arrived in Australia having narrowly escaped from Japanese forces invading Singapore and Java His dispatches from that disastrous front prompted one observer to comment on the crisis days when everybody except Harold Guard was trying to hush up the real situation At the time he was acclaimed by the Australian press as one of the top four newspapermen covering the war in the Pacific Over the next three years Guard was to have many more adventures reporting on the Pacific War including firsthand experience flying with the US Air Force on twenty two bombing missions camping with Allied forces in the deadly jungles of New Guinea and taking part in attacks from amphibious landing craft on enemy occupied territory He also traveled into the undeveloped areas of Australia's northern territories to report on the construction of air bases being built in preparation for defending the country against the advancing Japanese What made Harold Guard's achievements even more remarkable was that he was disabled and had to walk with a stiff right leg due to his navy injury Despite this he often reported from perilous situations at the front line which gained him considerable notoriety within the newspaper world Guard endeavored to give honest accounts and this often brought him into conflict with the military censors In this book the full story of Guard's experiences and observations during the Pacific War have been reconstructed with the help of his dispatches private correspondence telegrams and audio accounts No longer subject to censorship the starkly honest perceptions of how the Allies nearly failed and at last finally won the war can now be told escaping with her young son and a secret that could change the course of the Second World War Hitler wants Alena silenced her son brought back to Berlin and the Banque de France's platinum As they flee they experience the tragic realities of war and the raw emotions of two heroes living on the edge of fear And not everything is as it seems Paradise Gold America faces its biggest threat as Nazi U boats dominate the Atlantic from their base in the Caribbean And the US government enlist the help of the Mafia to snatch the biggest prize of World War II from the Germans Caught between ruthless Nazis and Mafia assassins only American agent Ben Peters knows the Nazis terrifying plans for America First he has to deal with two beautiful and dangerous women who will do anything to achieve their goals The Girl with the Silver Stiletto A stiletto is the ultimate murder weapon but will Natalie use it to kill a child to save her own life At the end of World War II she is given an ultimatum Execute the boy or die Her only alternative is to hand him over to the Nazis Why do the Nazis want the boy and who is he As the action races across three continents from London to New York to California to Buenos Aires only American agent Ben Peters stands alone against evil and his former lover

WHAT READERS ARE SAYING about the three books in the Ben Peters series Brilliant Exciting Suspenseful Hard to put down Plenty of action romance and international intrigue The opening pages grab and don't let go A great WWII novel Absolutely riveting Read it end to end and way into the night Look forward to more What a story I couldn't put it down So many twists and turns and so much action and adventure If you like reading Alan Furst and Phillip Kerr you will like this book One of the best WWII fiction I have read Thrilling chilling nail biting fast paced historical fiction Keeps you absorbed in the novel in juxtaposition of world events Writing similar to Ken Follett's in that the characters are alive with sexual tension Not able to read fast enough I just had to know how it was going to turn out for all of them OMG What can I say this was a GREAT story Wow he did a good job there was danger love mystery and fictional history A story I didn't want to end Put me in mind of Casablanca for the time period the tension and the characters There was not one single page that did not contain excellent writing tension and emotion Being on the train for two to three hours every day I could not wait for the next train to arrive so I could carry on reading With my hand on my heart this is the best World War Two espionage tale I've read

Margins of Insecurity Sam C. Nolutshungu, 1996 A number of crises since the end of the Cold War have demonstrated the insecurity of ordinary people in circumstances where states are either unable to provide protection or are themselves the principle sources of violence Public opinion has provoked international politicians to recognise a problem in which they should intervene but it is rare for effective policies to be implemented Emerging from a series of workshops on the International Security of Marginal Populations the essays seek solutions which go beyond the traditional emphasis on the interests of the state and give due weight to the needs of minority populations
