On Education Thinking In Action:

Hannah Arendt on Educational Thinking and Practice in Dark Times Wayne Veck, Helen M. Gunter, 2020-02-20 In her renowned and provocative essay The Crisis in Education Hannah Arendt observed that a crisis becomes a disaster only when we respond to it with preformed judgements that is with prejudices Taken as a whole Arendt's work provides an enduring provocation to think and to make judgements about education and the issues that impact on it such as political economic and cultural disruption and uncertainty Drawing together the leading thinkers on Arendtian ideas and education this collection explores the role and promise education can have in preparing the future generation to understand to think about and to act within the world Concluding the same essay on the crisis in education Arendt declared education to be the point at which love for the world meets love for those who are newcomers to it The authors respond to Arendt's call for responsibility and authority in education providing a leading edge thinking analysis and agenda setting for public education systems and the world in dark times

Research on Teacher Thinking James Calderhead, Christopher Day, Pam Denicolo, 2012 This is a companion volume to the editors Insights into Teachers Thinking and Practice Falmer Press 1999 and seeks to carry the discussion on further illustrating that there is a continuing intensity of thought activity and debate on how to conceptualise research on teacher thinking and thus generate knowledge for further understanding and action The ethical questions on undertaking research on the inner lives of teachers remain unresolved The international team present chapters which investigate the relationship between the researcher and the researched and the relevance and role of research in teacher development The papers are not presented as best practice for such definitions would be inevitably value laden Rather they are indications and anticipations of key areas for the development of understanding of teachers thinking and actions in the 1990s
